Wilson Elected President

The Golden West and the Glorious South Place Their Confidence in the Democratic Candidate.

California Puts The Cap Sheaf On For The President

Aside from the uncertainty of the result, the most remarkable thing about the election was the sudden wiping out of the Hughes majorities piled in the East by the returns coming in from the West. When the Republican landslide in New York became known and was quickly followed by the heavy Republican victories in New England, there was a veritable stampede to announce the election of Mr. Hughes and the defeat of President Wilson.

New York newspapers which have been prominent in their support of him conceded the President's defeat even before some of the Western States had been heard from. Thousands of persons in the East went to bed believing Mr. Hughes elected, and woke up Wednesday morning to find the result apparently changed while they slept. Even the Baltimore Sun based its calculations on the old days and gave up the fight.

The first figures of Wilson majorities through the West did not shake the confidence of those who were predicting the election of Mr. Hughes and not until the steady stream of Wilson Majorities began eating the Hughes columns piled up in the East did any of them suspect that the result was in danger.

At midnight it was apparent that the free predictions of a sweeping Republican victory throughout the country were being contradicted by the results from the West. As every hour saw the Hughes lead melting down it became clear that the President was not to be defeated so easily and then at daylight without any decisive result, it became apparent that the battle was being fought out in the doubtful States, with the advantage decidedly in favor of Mr. Wilson.

Not since a next day's revising of the returns seated Grover Cleveland in the contest of 1892 has the country been compelled to wait so long to know the results. More than 24 hours after the polls had closed, President Wilson and Mr. Hughes were running a neck-and-neck race in doubtful States, and not until Thursday afternoon was the decisive vote posted on the NEWS board and Democrats made happy. The final vote really did not arrive until yesterday (Friday).

MILK TO BE $2.55 NOVEMBER 15

The milk stations along the railroad in Kent have posted a raise in the price of milk beginning November 15th. After that date the price will be $2.55 per hundred which means about 5½ cents per quart, the price asked by the Dairymen's Association in several states. The price paid since October 15th was $2.20. This raise means a great deal to the milk producers of Kent.

In 1915 the milk shipped from five stations in Kent county amounted to 720,900 gallons, which at the present price would mean $158,598.

AUTO KILLS TWO HORSES

A big Mercedes going to Middletown Wednesday night ran into two 3 year-old horses near Chestertown and both were killed. The horses belonged to Mr. Julian Jones, near town. Clarence Newcomb and Urie Jones were passing along the road and seeing the two injured horses notified Mr. Jones. The animals were lying within twenty yards of each other. Mr. Jones, after examining the injuries of his horses, put an end to their sufferings.

A piece of the car was left in the road otherwise not a sign of any injury was to be seen. The horses got out of the pasture field in the early part of the night because of the removal of a rail from the fence by some traveler or passerby.

Coach Thomas Kibler arrived home from the hospital on Thursday last looking fine and received a cordial greeting from his many friends.

SHOOTS AT A NEGRO

George Davis and Edward Vessel, both colored had a dispute on High street yesterday morning and Vessel pulled out a pistol and fired at Davis as he ran across toward the postoffice. Fortunately no one was hurt. Vessell was arrested by officer Perkins and placed in jail.

SOME OF THE BOYS' CORN YIELDS

Harry Bailey, Jr., won first prize in Somerset county with a yield 101½ bu.

The highest yield in Cecil county was that of J. A. Ewing, who raised 94 5 bu; Osbourne Reynolds was a close second with 94 bushels.

Master Bonwill's yield was cut down by the moisture test to 118 and the other yields thruout the State—equally so. It still looks as it Kent will win the big prize on yield!

In Talbot, Hopper P. Cosden, of Longwood, and Andrew Shortall, of Easton, won out. His yield was 104 bushels from his acre of ground, this being the highest yield among the club members, whose average was slightly more than 62 bushels.

Fiery Strite, Clearspring, who won first prize in the boys' contest at the Hagerstown Interstate Fair Corn Show, raised 109 bushels, worth at to-day's market price, $109.00. The cost of raising the corn was $19 44, which included rental of land and pay for his time and the pay of the horses in cultivating and harrowing.
