"HONOR TO WHOM HONOR IS DUE"

A Voice From The "Cut" Tells Of Good Treatment To Prisoners.

WORCESTER DEMOCRAT:

The following letter dated Oct. 28th, was received from one of the inmates of the Maryland House of correction, of which one of our fellow townsman, William E. Lankford, has recently resumed management. The letter is exactly as it was written by the person himself and we gladly publish it so that our people may see what the unfortunates in the institution think of the treatment extended them by our friend Lankford. The letter is as follows:

MESSRS. EDICORS:—

Allow me space in your columns to refute statements made against the present Superintendent of the Maryland House of Correction that are entirely unfounded and for causes best known to his accusors. When he took charge of the institution the statement he made to us was one of kindness, and only what any sensible and sympathetic one could make. He told us that discipline was the paramount necessity for an institution of this character and while he should expect it, and must have it, he wanted it from a standpoint of mutuality: he wanted to be our friend and wanted us to be his friends. He wanted to act towards us as an employer, who could and would appreciate a common sentiment to the welfare of both. Two facts were very prominent the first day of his regeme; and that was a very sanitary improvement in food and vesse s from which it was served. Another was the conditions of the cells and corridors—a very marked and acceptable one to me, and I may add to all. No inmate of the institution can say naught of the sentiment he expressed, that from effort on hi part and ours should make our incarceration here as agreeable as conditions would permit. He spoke of the expense that the taxpayers of the State had to assume under a careless and inefficient management and while his aims were not tyranical, he was bound from duty, to make it redown to his and our credit, and while his management has only been of two weeks duration, any one who can fathom its career, can only see that it is fair, just and honorable. I know no grounds for censure from his accusers, but I can truthfully and with all frankness state that they are false and cannot be substantiated by proof. No man doing penalty for cause or injustice can but appreciate such a feeling from management managed. He stated that he was not responsible for our being here—sorry we are, but at the same time it was a fact and as such he had a duty to perform and so had we, and he hope it would be one of mutual feeling. Cast to the fore winds of the earth such accusations and false misrepresentations and give to a man who deserves it credit and honor due. I am human and can detect the tyrant as speedily as anyone (without being egotistical) but I can assure all who peruse this that the management of the Maryland House of Correction can only be conducted successfully by just such a course. The management is perfectly ignorant of the course I am persuing and I am not trying to gain any favor as I have only two more weeks more to remain here. It is only to refute statements made against a man who is honorable, just fair and capable and will show results to the public and inmates of the institution.

ROSE WORTH $15,000

John Cook, 82 years old, who for the past 64 years has been producing different and notable varieties of roses in his little plant in Baltimore, has added to America's list what has been declared to be the most beautiful rose ever produced. The new rose, as yet unnamed, is valued at $15,000 Fred H. Howard, of Los Angeles, Cal, has placed the above price on the new variety.

The rose is a lovely pink in color, with the shade of the well-known la France rose. It is unusually large in size, the specimens measuring five and one-half inches across the top. Other specimens at Baltimore are even larger. One bush shown there had more than 60 buds. The new grade is a glorified la France and naturally valued highly.

IF you are a business man, if you are a professional man, if you are employed at a daily wage, make up your mind to deposit weekly a certain sum of money in the bank. You'll be surprised how the sum will grow. Cash in bank gingers up the man who has it there. He has more confidence in himself. The business man is ready for a dull season. He is ready for an opportunity.

So is the professional man. The man who is working for a daily wage and who hasn't any money in bank frequently is fearful of a loss of his situation. He does not work as well or with the confidence in himself as does the man with something laid aside for a rainy day.
