SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1916.

COME, wake up, Wall Street.

THE Democrats will have a majority in both houses of Congress.

BILLY BRYAN is in line for reappointment as Secretary of State.

WILSON has a way of doing things different from anybody else—even in the election.

The temperance banner is marching forward. Five more States have been added to the "Dry" column.

THE West is progressive all right. They showed the East how to elect a Democrat when that man was a forward-looker.

How do the county forces like being in partnership with such men as Mahon, Loden and Preston. They are unfit for leadership and have degraded themselves in the eyes of all fair-minded men.

THE headquarters for news on election night was removed to the C. & P. telephone office where all that was to be had was dealt out by a corp of obliging and interested operators under the eye of Miss Jester and Supt. Robert C. Harris The NEWS man was given an exclusive phone where county news came promptly. Belated Galena came in last and the whole county vote was then given to the public. But it was the national result which seemed to be most sought after. This came by direct wire to Mr. R. C. Harris, who had in Dr. H. C. Hughes and H. F. Jefferson willing assistants.

THE ELECTION IN KENT

As usual the election in Kent was as serene as the day was beautiful. Nearly a full vote was polled and but little difficulty experienced in marking the ballot. The result is especially pleasing to the Democrats as they barely had sufficient funds to hire autos to get out the vote and other incidentals. The Democratic State Central Committee, Messrs. Wm. E. Brown, A. Lindell Beaston and A. Carroll Wilson, did their full duty and are to be congratulated on the outcome, while the several clubs in Kent had a strong influence in awaking interest.

The vote looks as if the party was reunited, altho the vote of Price and Lewis fell somewhat below Wilson's. We are of the opinion that this difference can be accounted for by the location of Lewis and Price on the ticket.

Millington climbs upon the front seat of the band wagon with 86 majority for Wilson while Worton comes next with 55. Every district in the county but Pomona gives Wilson a majority and this latter is only 49. The full figures are found in another column.

It was very bluish for the Democrats at first, and we retired with a feeling of uncertainty that was not very restful.

Hea quarters were moved to the NEWS the next morning and until the final vote was posted, this office thronged with anxious Democrats and worried Republicans. One well-known Republican in the seventies tried to convince many that it was all over because Hughes had carried New York, New Jersey, Indiana and Illinois! He was living in the past. These are different times—when Ohio goes Democratic and the far West bring their votes to a Progressive candidate.

LEWIS' DEFEAT

The Mahon machine in Baltimore city, and some of the Lee forces in Montgomery, Baltimore and other counties are to blame for the defeat of that able champion of the people, Hon. David J. Lewis. Everyone expected it, more or less, but when the long threatened knifing appeared as a disastrous fact, the surprise was almost as great as if nothing had been heard of the threats.

And certainly the disgust was as great. Mr. Lewis was one of the very best nominees the Democratic party has put forward in years. His private character was spotless; his personal career was an inspiration; his devotion to his duties and to the welfare of the country was not disputed in any quarter; his work in Congress during his three terms was without a parallel in accomplishment for the benefit of the whole people of the nation and in the shortness of time in which it had won him a commanding place. And his walk to his nomination no one dared dispute publicly. Yet, such a candidate and such a man was slaughtered ruthlessly by a money grabbing machine.

Decen Democrats said that the party should hang its head in the face of Mr. Lewis' defeat. He was betrayed by those into whose hands the affiliated members of the party had put the duty and responsibility of managing the campaigns of its candidates. The Democratic State Central Committee for the city, and other regular party workers obeyed John Mahon's orders, instead of performing their duty. And the party endures the disgrace of the action of its servants, and the further disgrace arising from the fact that the men who buried its confidence are defiantly maintaining the old Tweed attitude—"Well, what are you going to do about it?"

Having cut the life out of a candidate who by all the laws of politics and politica morals was entitled to the utmost support of the regular party organization and the party workers, the Mahon machine and its City Committee tool see nothing in their performance to regret, or to abash them. The machine leaders know no principles in politics, course and shape their actions entirely according to their view of their personal profit. And to them their disloya

PEACE AND PROSPERITY—you can't beat it.

THE new era has dawned—when Wall street cannot control elections.

WHAT'S the matter with Wicomico, Brewington? Old Kent gave your man more majority than he got at home.

WILSON—that's all? No, there's the women voters. They seemed to have rallied to his support.

Lewis swept the Eastern Shore. He is a great favorite with the farmers and will be heard from later.

THE temperance forces in Maryland won a great victory in voting three more countries dry besides Havre de Grace. The next vote will sweep the State.

DID you notice that the States where Bryan stumped went for Wilson? It means that the Peerless leader has not lost caste among those who know him best.

EVERYBODY could rejoice at this election. First the Republicans had their fun, then the Democrats, and vice versa. He who laughs last, however, laughs best, so that the Democrats are enjoying the final outcome.

PRICE wins, but by a small majority, about 56. He had a worthy opponent in Bob Duer, and Mr. Jas. T. Anthony, the Prohibition candidate, no doubt cost him many votes.

CHARLIE DODD was as happy over Wilson's election as if he himself had won. He was on the job as usual on election day and did efficient work, as did Wm. W. Beck, Esq., Howard Turner, George Sutton, Frank Crow, G. R. Rasin, Leonard Wilson, Robert Lewis and others who were so treacherously dealt with a year ago. It proves that their Democracy is as solid as the rocks of Gibraltar.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF KENT

Price's Majority 120—Lewis' Majority 140—Wilson Electors Win By From 300 To 168 Majority.

The highest Democratic elector, Furst, received 213 more votes than the highest Republican elector, Ackerman.

The State Corn Club championship will be announced Thursday night, November 16, at Annapolis, when Governor Harrington, on behalf of the State, will receive the Home State Tourists Governor Harrington has announced that he will on that night present to the State Corn Club champion a gold watch, to be known as the Governor's prize, and State Treasurer John M. Dennis will give a $100 Holstein calf, pure bred and registered, to the second prize winner. "With the stipulation," said Mr. Dennis, "that I don't want a city boy to win that second prize. A city boy wouldn't know what to do with a Holstein calf."

Corn Yields Elsewhere

The exact figures from the corn contest will not be known until next Thursday, but as far as known Kent county is well in the lead.

Earl Smith, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Smith, of Queen Anne's county, has the lead in the corn club contest around Rick Neck. His acre produced 125 bushels. The variety of corn used is the Yellow Dent. This young man shelled 100 pounds of it and found that he had 82 pounds of shelled corn and only 18 pounds of cob. The same acre three years ago produced 84 bushels. The second place was won by J. Medford Price, Jr., by a tenth of a point over Sam Seney, Jr.

Soldiers Get Relief From Soreness

Boys on the Border Relieved Their Pains and Aches With Sloan's Liniment.

Once upon a time Norman Jones, serving in the National Guard at El Paso, returned to camp after a strenuous 15 mile hike foot-sore and leg-weary. He had not been long in active service and his shoulders, back and limbs felt the after effects of marching.

Remembering Sloan's Liniment, Jones applied it to the sore spots and went to bed. He writes: "I arose the next morning feeling fine; in fact, I had entirely forgotten about the hike and went out for a four-hour drill in the sun as spry as ever."

Private Jones passed the experience along, and many a boy on the border relieved the agony of sprains, strains, bruises, insect bites, cramped muscles, rheumatic twinges, etc., by the use of Sloan's Liniment.

Easily applied without rubbing. At all druggists. 25c., 50c. and $1.00.
