OF INTEREST TO MILK MEN

On the afternoon of Monday, December 18, a general meeting of delegates from the Eastern Shore counties and Delaware will be held at Chestertown, when an effort will be made to organize a Peninsula Milk Producers' Association composed of all counties repreeented, with the object of securing a fair price the year round.

Every farmers' organization should appoint a delegate to attend this meeting, and should get in touch with the County Agent at once.

Several of the leading dairy men of the state have been invited to atted this meeting and explain the method of organization. There certianly is nothing to lose and most likely a lot to be gained.

HIS FRIEND HURT; HE HELPED HIM

Injured Man Laughed When Simple Treatment Was Suggested, But He Thanked His Comrade Later.

Once upon a time word came to Henry A. Voehl, of Plainfield, N. J., that a close friend had been injured, and full of anxiety he visited the afflicted man, who was suffering from a sprained ankle.

"It was so bad that the leg had turned black," said Mr. Voehl in relating the story. "I told him I would have him out in a week and he laughed at me. But I took him a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, that night he put some on and noticed the ankle felt better. I told him to use it every day, and in three days his ankle was practically well. In four days he was working. He gladly admits that Sloan's Liniment "put him on his feet."

Sloan's Liniment can be obtained at all drug stores, 25c., 50c. and $1.00.

"Have You Been Good Children?"

"DO UNTO OTHERS"

Friend, have you ever asked yourself the question? "Is my neighborhood any better for my presence in it?" Has your community life been such that were you to remove to some other locality wou would be really missed, and missed with regret?

We believe that many of us who consider ourselves good citizens and good neighbors, if we were to seriously consider this question, would be somewhat puzzled to find the correct answer.

We all know people of our own community of whom it were idle to ask this question. We know beyond question that they are a real asset to any community that is so fortunate as to claim them. Let us, in the light of their lives, truthfully and impartially judge our own lives, and let us profit by that judgment.

All of us know that good angel of the neighborhood. Frequently she is a frail little mite of womanhood, quiet and unassuming, with the most humble appreciation of her own virtues. Yet whenever sickness or sorrow develop in the countryside we instinctively look to find her in attendance, ready to efface herself in her ministrations to others; giving of the fullness of her own large heart to sustain the failing courage of those in need.

And who does not know the handy man of the community? He is always busy, yet never so busy that he cannot grant a favor to a neighbor. He is the man who, when he starts to town, is hailed by every housewife on his route and loaded down with commissions and orders to be filled, until frequently when returning home his neighbors get most of load. He is also the man you send for if you have a sick horse or cow; if your crops do not turn out to suit you, you consult him. You call on him, if a subscription is to be circulated, and he is always ready to not only chip in, but he cheerfully takes the paper from house to house and man to man until the object is attained. In fact, when we contemplate the number of "thankys" jobs he gets through with in the run of a year we often wonder how on earth he has found time to attend to his own affairs. But he has, and he has attended to them well.

The truth is that we all waste many valuable hours and days that might better be given to these kindly ministrations to others' comfort and pleasure. We ponder our own cares and perplexities, burdens and sorrows, until they loom as mountains in our pathways, obscuring our neighbors and their affairs, until we frequently forget that they, too, have cares and sorrows, many times more grievous than our own.

It would be of real benefit to us if we could at times forget self and enter into the joys and sorrows of others.

Try it, friend, and you will be surprised to realize how soon the care and sorrow have flown from your own life and left naught but joy and peace in their stead.

We've looked them over, carefully. We've thought it over, carefully—We've come to the conclusion the logical place to buy gifts for Men and Boys is at the big Men's Store of Bordley & Sons.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

At the monthly meeting of The Town Relief, at the home of Mrs. T. T. Horn, on Friday evening, Dec. 8th, the following Resolutions were adopted in memory of two our deceased members, Mrs. I. R. Leaverton and Mrs. S. A. Copper, as follows:

WHEREAS, God in his infinite wisdom has deemed fit to remove from our society our friends and members; and whereas, their death have brought keenest sorrow to the hearts of those who knew them and were proud to claim as a friend, be it

Resolved, that we, the members of the Town Relief, do hereby extend to their loved ones our sincerest sympathy in this hour of their bereavement with the earnest trust that Providence sustain them in their affliction, and be it further

Resolved, that copies of this resolution be sent to the families of our departed members, entered upon the general minutes and published in the county papers.

Signed
MRS. G. F. CLARK,
MRS. T. T. HORN,
MRS. W. B. COPPER,
MISS DAISY BARNES,
Committee.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother, Mary L. Crouch, who departed this life, December 17, 1913.

The month of December once more is here,
To us the saddest of the year;
Because it took from us away,
Our dear wife and mother three years ago today.

Mother and Rebecca, both have gone,
They slumber sweet and know no care;
Her heart was true her life was young,
Yet not our will, but God's be done.

Kind hands did try to save her,
Sighs and tears were all in vain;
Happy angles came and bore her,
From this happy world of pain.

From this world of grief and trouble,
To the land of peace and rest;
God has taken my wife and Mother,
Where she will find everlasting rest.
BY HER HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

Lippincott & Co.—THE IDEAL CHRISTMAS STORE—Lippincott & Co.

TO THE GOOD PEOPLE OF CHESTERTOWN AND VICINITY:

If You Cannot Get What You Want In Your Home Town COME TO LIPPINCOTTS

THE CHRISTMAS SEASON is with us once more. Assuming that we all have the real Christmas spirit—that Gift Giving is to be a genuine pleasure—let us consider how the Christmas Shopping may be done with comfort and satisfaction, with happiness and profit.

Within the last twelve months this big store has been ravaged by fire and water with great losses and a temporary suspension of business, But even such a catastrophe could only be temporary in an organization like this. Out of the ashes arose a bigger and better Lippincott's—an organization far more efficient than before—and a store more complete and better equipped in every way to meet the needs of its thousands of customers in Wilmington and the country roundabout.

And so we come to you now with an invitation to visit us during the interval between now and Christmas. We want you to feel that Lippincott's is just as much YOUR store as if it was located in your home town. Distance goes for naught these days. The family automobiles, the inter-urban trolley and the steam cars have made us all neighbors.

It is superfluous to say that we are better equipped than ever before to take care of your Christmas needs. A larger store gives us new departments and more room in other lines. You can plan your shopping tour here with the confident assurance that no matter how large your list you will be able to make every purchase—and in doing this Christmas Shopping becomes a real pleasure instead of a more or less tiresome duty.

Suggestions are hardly in order with more than a half hundred departments to choose from, but the following will give you some idea at least of the possibilities which the store offers :

UMBRELLAS	TRIMMINGS	HANDKERCHIEFS	PICTURES
CUT GLASS	BLANKETS	DRAPERIES	BABY COACHES
JEWELRY	LINENS	FURS	CHINA
CLOTHING	BED SPREADS	SHOES	MILLINERY
FURNISHINGS	TOYS	HOSIERY	STATIONERY
SILKS	NECKWEAR	TRUNKS	PERFUMERY
DRESS GOODS	QUILTS	BAGS	GLOVES
LACES	FURNISHINGS	SUIT CASES	CANDIES

THIS is your invitation, remember. Make this store your headquarters. Meet your friends here. You are genuinely welcome. Come see us whether you buy or not.

THE PEOPLE'S BANK
CHESTERTOWN, MD.

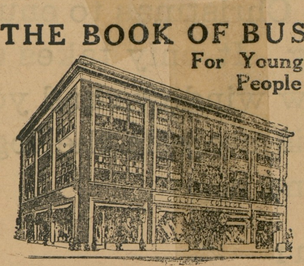

IF you are a business man, if you are a professional man, if you are employed at a daily wage, make up your mind to deposit weekly a certain sum of money in the bank. You'll be surprised how the sum will grow. Cash in bank gingers up the man who has it there. He has more confidence in himself. The business man is ready for a dull season. He is ready for an opportunity.

So is the professional man. The man who is working for a daily wage and who hasn't any money in bank frequently is fearful of a loss of his situation. He does not work as well or with the confidence in himself as does the man with something laid aside for a rainy day.
