PERSONAL AND SOCIETY EVENTS IN KENT COUNTY

Mr. P. G. Wilmer returned from the Mercy Hospital yesterday greatly improved in health.

Messrs. A. Parks Rasin and Olin S. Davis returned from their trip to Florida Thursday and glad to get back, but greatly pleased with the balmy weather.

Mr. Chas. H. Jefferson has been confined to his home this week by sickness.

We regret to state that Mr. Frederick H. Russell, the efficient superintendent of the Electric Light Co., is still unable to be at his office.

Julian R. Carter of the Fifth Maryland Regiment, Eagle Pass, sent his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carter, of Chestertown, handsome presents from the far West.

Miss Sallie Davis is convalescent.

Prof. J. L. Smyth was housed by a bad attack of indigestion several days last week.

Mr. Charles Crane, of Baltimore, was the guest of Capt. and Mrs. C. E. Crane, Chestertown, several days the past week.

Mr. Lonnie Stevens, a former well-known and esteemed citizen of lower Kent, has moved to Milford, Del.

Mr. Frank Hurlock, who has been confined to his bed by sickness is now attending to business.

Col. W. J. Vannort had a bad fall on the slippery Chestertown streets Saturday and received a bad cut on the head.

Miss Mary Hines, of Baltimore, is a guest of her brother, Dr. Frank B. Hines.

We are glad to see Mr. John C. Davis, at his place of business again after an absence of several weeks.

Mrs. Walker, of Unionville, Va., is a guest of her niece, Mrs. J. Waters Russell.

Mrs. Walter U. Lusby and Mrs. Ollie Estes spent several days last week in Baltimore.

Mr. Wm. C. Speilberger and family will occupy the Simpers-Rockwell house corner Park Row and Cross street next year.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Chapman and child of Boston, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walter Chapman during the past two weeks.

Miss Nettie Sutton has been visiting Mrs. Wyszecki in Baltimore.

Mr. Lewin Howard has been visiting friends in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Stephen R. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins, who has been with the duPont Co., at Hapewell, Va., for the past 18 months was transferred to the Wilmington office of this company last year.

Miss Mary Whitely has accepted a position in the store of Mr. C. E. Kirby.

Mr. Jas. P. Parrott suffered a burned ear Monday by a stove falling on him. He made a lucky escape.

Mr. Philip G. Wilmer, 2nd, is spending the holidays with his uncle and aunt on the avenue.

Mr. Elmer Kendall has been confined to the house for a few days with a sore foot. A corn sheller run over it.

Mr. Earnest Brice, while jumping from a load of lumber Wednesday slipped and broke his right wrist.

Mrs. Cooper, wife of Officer Samuel Cooper, is quite sick at her home on High street with pneumonia.

Mr. Daniel McKee while riding home a few days ago became too warm, removed his overcoat and gloves, and lost same. No, it wasn't Monday nor Tuesday.

Miss Jennie Nickerson, of Red Bank, N. J., is spending the Christmas holidays at the home of her brother, Mr. W. R. Nickerson.

Mrs. M. F. Watts is spending the winter in Baltimore with her daughter.

Mrs. Thos. J. Tarbutton is quite ill at her home near Melitota.

Capt. Cosden and family, who have been residing on Carvel's Hill, near town, will move to Virginia the first of January. We are sorry to lose them from our midst, where they have many friends. Capt. Cosden has purchased a large farm there He takes with him that fine pair grey horses purchased of Mr. J. R. Byron. Mr. Purnell Jefferson has rented Capt. Cosden's place in place of the Hessey farm which has been rented by Mr. Chas. A. Crew. Mr. Horace Clothier and family moved last week from Rich Neck, a few miles from Chestertown, to Virginia to engage in farming, while Mr. H. P. Skipper and family, who have been residing across from town for a number of years, have moved to Baltimore. Mr. Hunter has moved into Mr. Skipper's house and Mr. J. F. Baxter's son will occupy the Clothier-Baxter farm. Mr. Rufus Collins and family will move on "Old Kentuck."

Leonard Crew, son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Crew, of Sparrows Point, has been elected president and general manager of the Coal and Iron Company of La Follette, Tenn.

Mr. James L. Bacchus, of New York, is at home for the holidays.

Mr. Paul Wilkinson, of Baltimore, is visiting Chestertown friends.

Mr. Lewin Howard, of Panama, is assisting in the Chestertown postoffice.

Dr E. J. Clarke and wife are spending the Christmas holidays with friends in Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Russell Wheatley, of Toronto, Canada, is home for the holidays.

THE case of Nickolas Avlamis vs. Graham, Clements & Sutton, for damages for injuries in an automobile accident, removed to Cecil from Kent county, was removed to Talbot county for trial. Friday night argument on motion for a new trial in the case of Christos Alevizatos vs. Graham, Clements & Sutton, of Kent county, was made by Messrs. W. W. Beck and W. T. Warburton for defendants; Messrs. William Pepper Constable and L. Wethered Barroll for plaintiff. Court announced a decision last night.

IN spite of trouble, war and high prices, the real Christmas feeling is in the air.

SINCE Christmas trees are higher the only thing to do is to buy a shorter one than usual.

THE community Christmas tree will be missed by many, but so will possibly pneumonia, and that ought to even up things.

Such tobacco enjoyment as you never thought could be is yours to command quick as you buy some Prince Albert and fire-up a pipe or a home-made cigarette!

Prince Albert gives you every tobacco satisfaction your smoke-appetite ever hankered for. That's because it's made by a patented process that cuts out bite and parch! Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

Copyright 1915 by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

On the reverse side of this tidy red tin you will read: "Process Patented July 30th, 1907," which has made three men smoke pipes where one smoked before!

PRINCE ALBERT

has a flavor as different as it is delightful. You never tasted the like of it! And that isn't strange, either.

Men who think they can't smoke a pipe or roll a cigarette can smoke and will smoke if they use Prince Albert. And smokers who have not yet given P. A. a try-out certainly have a big surprise and a lot of enjoyment coming their way as soon as they invest in a supply. Prince Albert tobacco will tell its own story!

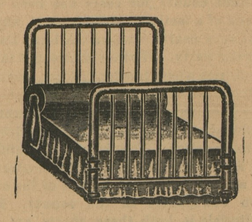

Buy Prince Albert everywhere tobacco is sold in toppy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidors—and—that corking fine pound crystal-glass humidor with sponge-moistener top that keeps the tobacco in such clever trim—always!
