MAKING BAD MEN GOOD

Effective Revolutionary Method
Use by the Salvation Army in Prison Work.

During the last year The Salvation Army has found employment and given financial aid to 2,800 discharged prisoners. The old story of the man who cannot find a job because he has "done time" is a thing of the past, for The Salvation Army is always willing to find him employment. The old tale of the man who is driven back to crime through poverty and friendlessness is out of date, for The Salvation Army is daily applying its theories of practical Christianity to the prison problem.

In 383 prisons and reformatories during the last year 8,000 religious meetings were held under the auspices of the Salvation Army. They were attended by more than 260,000 prisoners and more than 9,500 men and women declared their intention of becoming self-respecting and useful members of society.

It does The Salvation Army confine its prison activities to convicts and ex-convicts. The entire family is frequently cared for and protected by The Salvation Army. Food is provided where there is want, shelter is given to the homeless, and a spirit of forgiveness is instilled in order that the family may be ready to welcome the transgressor on the day of his release. In connection with the work of The Salvation Army, both inside and outside of the prison gates, some of the most remarkable stories might be told. Among the conversions made during the last year are some of the most notorious criminals in the United States—men who were old-timers hardened offenders who had spent the major portion of their adult years behind bars. And in almost every instance the conversion has been sincere. Out of the scores placed on parole to The Salvation Army from every State and every county during the last year, only eight per cent. of the entire number failed to make good, the remaining ninety-two per cent. report regularly to The Salvation Army once each month and are quickly becoming hard-working, self-respecting men and women.

Among the recent activities of the Prison Department of The Salvation Army is the Lifer's Club, an organization which is exclusively of the 123 men who are serving life terms in the penal institutions of this country. The purpose of the club is to give the lifer something to occupy his mind—something to keep him in contact with fellow prisoners in other institutions and with the outside world. The officers of the organization are lifers, the members are lifers, and it will not long before a magazine, edited by lifers, will be circulated by The Salvation Army through every prison in the United States, as a message of cheer for the present and hope for the future.

The Tabernacle of the Great Outdoors

The Salvation Army is the most gigantic evangelistic movement for the common people in the World.

Recognizing neither creed, caste or color, it achieves where all other agencies fail.

With 18,000 officers in 70 countries and colonies, it preaches the gospels of love and redemption in 42 languages.

It has held 48,000 indoor meetings of which, in the United States, the attendance has been 5,949,454 and 34,000 street meetings with an attendance of 18,018,440 people.

Fully a third or 6,000,000 of this great army of the unchurched would never otherwise have heard a sermon.

In the United States alone, the Army has converted 32,738 converts as the result of the efforts of The Salvation Army workers in its 963 Corps.

In connection with its preaching has come the establishment of Relief Efforts and in the past year 10,375 families have been visited.

In order to facilitate its work, The Salvation Army issues 82 periodicals; its chief publication called the "War Cry," has a circulation of 6,171,940 in twelve months.

The Salvation Army conducts 68 hotels for men and two for women. In these establishments it has supplied 1,500,000 beds and 371,000 meals. In the year's span also 1,900 meetings have been conducted with an attendance of 32,170 people.

The Army reports 32,738 converts as the result of a year's work which means just that many less charges upon the public charity and that many more producers and good citizens.

The Salvation Army seeks those who will never seek the churches and they find them in the slums, paths and streets in all degrees of destitution and desperation and indifference. The voice of the Army speaker or singer is the "Voice crying in the Wilderness"; the lonely wilderness of the city streets.

So also in the prisons and jails, the poorhouses, hospitals and army camps, the Gospel is carried in a spirit of fellowship and love that sooner or later rouses a spark of manhood in the lowest criminal.

Thus the Salvation Army supplements the work of the churches and indirectly recruits for them.

May We Present
Miss Harriet Knight—
Who Will Shop For You

Harriet Knight is the young woman to whom you may write whenever you are in need of anything.

Do you need a beautiful gown for some special occasion, whose style combines loveliness with dignity? A trimly tailored suit or frock for the street? A pair of slippers or oxfords to harmonize?

You may be a housewife needing a fireless cooker, a vacuum sweeper or any one of a hundred different kitchen utensils. Perhaps you contemplate buying a new dinner set. Harriet Knight will select whatever you need. Do you need help in outfitting the growing boy or girl, or the tiny new member of the family? A splendidly stocked infants' wear department, boys' clothing section and misses' section are at Miss Knight's disposal.

And when you write, you can be sure that your shopping commission is receiving the same careful sort of attention that you would give it yourself.

The Noblest Instrument Is An Organ

and it ought to be in every musical home, but space and cost sometimes prohibit the installation of a pipe organ. However, an two manual reed organ, built on the exact principles and measurements of a pipe organ—and used in the studios of such organists as Gibson, Dethier and others—such an instrument closely approximates a pipe organ and has everywhere given great satisfaction. It can be built to the special specification of organist and to match the design of any room. Adapted for lodges. Call and hear it.
