POLITICAL NOTES

Now that the primary day has been fixed for Friday, September 9th, the political pot has begun to sizzle. Enteries must be made 20 days before this date.

The two wings of the Democratic party in Kent are pursuing the same successful method that was used in 1919. They got together in selecting a ticket made up of candidates from both factions and all rallied to its support which resulted in a Democratic victory.

Robert D. Ayres seems to have a clear field for Clerk of the Court. He is an aggressive worker in the party and has a large following of the younger men besides the help of other elements.

For Register of Wills these names are mentioned: S. G. Caldwell, S. S. Hurlock and Harvey Moore.

There are three announced candidates for Sheriff—William Goodman, Thomas Hadaway and John F. Burris.

Ellsworth C. Bowers' name is most mentioned as candidate for Legislature.

In the Republican ranks the ticket most talked of is as follows: Clerk, A. Parks Rasin; Register of Wills, R. R. Hill; Treasurer, Thos. W. Trew; County Commissioner, John N. Bennett; Legislature, Ralph Williams, Herbert A. Urie.

The political sensation of the week has been the drastic action of the Governor in his summary removal of the two City Police Justices, and his assigning several of the others in such a manner that it means a virtual removal. It is true the two who went out of commission, resigned, but their resignations were given with bad grace, and they preferred to go out in this way, rather than to be removed under serious charges. The Governor's action is highly commended on all sides, except possibly one or two of the number, as it is a generallyrecognized fact that several of these who are still in office, are quite as worthy of removal as the two who were so summiarly dealt with by his Excellency.

One of the inexplicable things connected with the administration of every Governor of Maryland, has been the manner of men who have been made Police Magistrates. These officers have great power. They are Judges of the Police Courts, and have original jurisdiction over all persons accused of crime of any sort from the lowest to the highest degree. When a man or woman is arrested for any offense against the law, the officer making the arrest takes the accused to one of the Police Magistrates, who decides whether he shall go free, go to jail, be released on bail, or fined or held to answer to the charge before the grand jury, in the higher Court. To be a good and well-qualified Police Magistrate, a man must be intelligent, honest and have considerable knowledge of the law, and very few of all those who have served in these offices since the Civil War, whether republicans or democrats, have possessed even in a moderate degree the qualifications necessary for the proper performance of their duties.

Dr. M. Bates Stevens, a widely known educator of Caroline county and the State of Maryland, and Fletcher Sisk, a young business man of Preston, Caroline county, have filed their certificates of nomination with the election officials of the county, and will enter the primaries in Sept. for the State Senatorial office. Both Dr. Stephens and Mr. Sisk are among the most prominent citizens of Caroline, and will wax warm a friendly primary campaign.

PRIMARY SET FOR SEPTEMBER 9

The primary election this fall, at which the two parties will nominate candidates for State Comptroller and members of the Legislature, will be held Friday, September 9. This date has been agreed upon by Dr. J. Hubert Wade, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, and Galen L. Tait, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee.

In the city, nominations by both parties will be made for Sheriff and Clerks of the Court, as well as for members of the Legislature. In the Fourth District, candidates for the State Senate also will be nominated.

The following counties also will nominate for the State Senate:

Allegany, Cecil, Caroline, Charles, Garrett, Harford, Montgomery, Prince George's, St. Mary's, Talbot, Worcester, Dorchester.

The other 11 counties and the first three districts of Baltimore city are represented by holdover Senators. Of this number eight are Democrats and four Republicans. The Democrats are:

A. Theodore Brady, Anne Arundel.
W. I. Norris, First district, Baltimore city.
Robert Biggs, Second district, Baltimore city.
George A. Frick, Third district, Baltimore city.
David G. McIntosh, Baltimore Co.
H. D. Wolfe, Howard county.
W. F. Russell, Kent county.
J. H. C. Legg, Queen Anne's county.
C. R. Disharoon, Wicomico county.

The Republican hold-over Senators are:

J. Frank Parran, St. Mary's county.
John B. Robins, Somerset county.
C. F. Goodell, Frederick county.
Richard S. Snoden, Carroll county.

The seats from Allegany and Cecil are vacant. Senator Eppler, of Allegany, resigned to accept appointment on the State Accident Commission and Senator Crothers resigned to accept appointment on the State Tax Commission.

The world-famed Italian tenor of the Metropolitan Opera Co., New York, died at Naples, Tuesday, following a surgical operation Sunday. He had been ill for several months and went to Italy four or five weeks ago with his wife and baby daughter.
