CHAUTAUQUA TENTH ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

1912-1921 Season Tickets $2.50

Chestertown, September 1-7

CHAUTAUQUA

The full program for the Chestertown Chautauqua has just been arranged and the News is presenting it herewith by special courtesy of the Chautauqua Association. It is believed that this program is the most attractive yet offered to Chestertown, as it contains some features that are practically impossible to hear except through this Chautauqua.

Chautauqua begins this year on Thursday, September 1, with "The Four Artists." This is composed of a soprano, an impersonator, a harpist, and a pianist—all artists in every sense of the word. In the evening there will be a concert, and a lecture, "The Advantage of a Handicap," by Elliot A. Boyle, a veteran Chautauqua speaker.

The second day there will be two concerts by the "Boston Musicians Quintet" and a lecture by Dr. Frank Bohn, "All the World and Ourselves." His series of articles in the New York Times on European conditions have attracted world-wide attention.

The third day in the afternoon the "Pilgrim Entertainers" and an illustrated lecture, "The New Power in Southern Europe," by Drew Pearson,

Keep Down Costs Increase Profits

Higher yield per acre! That's the one thing to build to. Whether prices for crops go up or down, by producing more per acre—per man or per hour—you are certain of a profit.

Bigger crops at lower cost are a direct result of Samson Power Farming. You can plow deeper, till, plant and harvest quicker and better, saving man power, time and money on all belt work as well, with a Samson Model "M" Tractor and power implements.

The experience of thousands of Samson farmers in all sections of the country has proved this. They made money last year and will make money this year. Will you take advantage of their experience to make certain the profits on your farm this year?

On the average farm to-day, power machinery is the solution of the farm production problem. It is coming sooner or later to every farm—the earlier the acceptance the quicker the profits.
