Kent News

SEPTEMBER 3, 1921

Dr. J. Hubert Wade, chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, issued a call yesterday for a meeting of the State convention on Tuesday, September 20, at the Auditorium Theatre.

Primaries Next Friday

The Democratic Primaries will be held Friday, Sept. 10. There are contests for only three places, viz., Register of Wills, Treasurer and Sheriff. It is very important that all registered voters go to the polls and vote for the man who will best fill each of these offices.

THE RE-ORGANIZATION PLAN

Governor Ritchie, who is now in the center of the public stage not only as the harmonizer of party troubles, but also as the chief factor in the preparation of the plan to reorganize and readjust the whole governmental system of the State, presented the complete draft of all the proposed changes to the Sub-Committee of the reorganization Commission on Tuesday night.

Mortgagee's Sale of A FINE FARM

Situated, Lying and Being in Kent County, Maryland.

The undersigned, Hope H. Barroll, Attorney for the purpose of collecting a certain mortgage given by George F. Welch and Rena Welch, his wife, Mortgagees, bearing date the 6th day of January, 1920, unto John P. Crossley, who has since departed this life and whose executrix, Mary E. Crossley, assigned said Mortgage for the purpose of collection unto Hope H. Barroll, Attorney, as will appear by reference to the said Mortgage duly executed, acknowledged recorded in Liber A. P. R. No. 6, folios 168, etc., a Land Record Book for Kent County, Maryland, as on reference to same will more fully and at large appear, will offer for sale on Tuesday, September 6, 1921

at the Court House Door, in Chestertown, Md., between the hours of 11 o'clock A. M. and 12 o'clock noon, all that certain farm situated, lying and being in Quaker Neck, in said Kent County, bounded on the east by the public road leading from Bakerville or Pomona to Brice's Mill, on the west by Lankford Bay, on the east by lands formerly belonging to Jas. H. Baker. The farm contains more or less, including the lot of woodland as described in a certain deed for the wife from John P. Crossley and wife to George F. Welch, duly executed, acknowledged and recorded among the Land Records for Kent County, aforesaid.

This is one of the most desirable small farms in Kent County, it lies a short distance from Chestertown. The land is a medium loam with red clay sub-soil and excellently adapted to the growth of all grains, fruits, grass and beautifully situated on Lankford Bay. This farm is in a high state of cultivation. The buildings are ample, commodious and the property is of such size and location that farms like it are seldom on the market.

TERMS OF SALE.—The purchaser will be entitled to possession of the farm January 1st, 1922. The taxes will be paid out of the purchase money. All title papers, United States Revenue Stamps to be paid by the purchaser. $1500 of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale and the residue in one and two years from the day of sale. All unpaid purchase money to bear interest from the day of sale.

HOPE H. BARROLL, Attorney for Collection and Trustee. John T. Jester, Auctioneer.

I agree to the sale of the above farm and I hope that it will bring the highest dollar. The sale is made with my approval and my consent.

GEORGE F. WELCH.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it. They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!
