

ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS FOR State Scholarships in Engineering Courses AT THE John Hopkins University BALTIMORE, MD.

ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS for the School of Engineering, as well as for the College of Arts and Sciences, will be held in the Civil Engineering Bldg., Homewood, from Monday, September 19th, to Thursday, September 23d, 1921, beginning at 9 A. M. each day.

Each Legislative District of Baltimore City and each County of the State, with the exception of Cecil, Harford, Howard and Queen Anne, will be entitled to one or more scholarships for the year 1921-1922, in addition to those which have already been assigned.

Under the provisions of the Act of Assembly, the County and City Scholarships in the School of Engineering are awarded only to deserving students whose financial circumstances are such that they are unable to obtain an education in Engineering unless free tuition be granted to them.

The next session begins Tuesday, October 4th, 1921. For blank forms of application and for catalogues giving information as to examinations, award of scholarships, and courses of instruction, applicants should address:

DOING EXCELLENT WORK.

Postmaster Miss Minnie B. Hadley, at Galena, Md., has received a letter commending her activity in the sale of Government Saving Securities recently from Howard T. Cree, director of the Savings Division of the Treasury Department in this district.

The postmaster is in line for a place on the honor roll of those who are rendering special service in the popularizing of Government Savings Securities. She is anxious to win one of the bronze honor pins to be awarded at some time, and is calling on the patrons of her office to help her place enough Government Savings Securities in the next three months to gain this recognition.

WILLIAM HOLTON DIES

William Holton, aged 60, teller of the Centreville National Bank, who shot himself through the head in an anteroom of the bank, last Thursday, died at the Emergency Hospital, Easton, early Monday.

He is survived by his wife, the daughter of the late Col. William McKenny, who was the largest land owner and wealthiest citizen of Queen Annes county. The late Col. William McKenny, Jr., who was president of the bank of which Mr. Holton was the teller, was his brother-in-law.

A son, Layton Holton, and a daughter, Mrs. Henrietta Shear, both of Centreville, also survive him.

EDITORS TO MEET IN TALBOT

Joint Meeting of The Del-Mar-Via Associations to be held in Easton.

President John E. Raine, of the Maryland Press Association, and S. E. Shumhaman, president of the Del-Mar-Via Press Association, have issued calls to their respective associations to meet in Easton on September 26 and 27. Besides the members of the two associations, nearly a hundred strong, Governor Ritchie and Governor Denny, of Delaware, will also be guests of the associations, and Governor Westmoreland Davis, of Virginia, is expected.

The visitors are expected to arrive early on the 26th and in the afternoon a visit will be paid to the Furniture factory at the invitation of the company, and the wonders of this great plant shown. During the afternoon the visitors will be taken to the Old Friends Meeting House, and then to one or two of the larger country houses of historic interest.

In the evening the Easton Publishing Company will tender a dinner to the governors and editors, probably at the Country Club, at which time addresses will be made by the governors and a number of the editors. After the dinner Manager Plummer will run a special movie show for them, beginning about 10:30 o'clock.

The morning of the 27th will be devoted to a business session, until 11 o'clock, when the visitors will be taken to Easton Point for a trip to the mouth of the Choptank, returning for an oyster roast at the Valliant plant at Bellevue. Another business session in the afternoon will be followed by adjournment.

This program is subject to amendment. The Easton Rotary Club has promised its hearty support and will provide cars for the editors to visit various points. A number of prominent business houses are interested in the forthcoming meeting, seeing in it a wonderful opportunity to present the attractions of Easton to the world at large.

MARY PICKFORD'S GREATEST PLAY

"Pollyanna" Soon to be Shown at the Lyceum Theatre

Critics everywhere assert that "Pollyanna" is one of the greatest picture plays ever made. The reason for this is that the philosophy upon which the story is based constituted a theme which at the present time has an unusual appeal.

Such a story is "Pollyanna" with its cheerful philosophy of gladness. It is believed that this production, coming at a time when the country is upset by a period of registration, will have an unprecedented reception from the picture patrons.

Miss Pickford points out in this story that even when things are bad they might be worse. This thought, planted in the minds of people who are disheartened by wage conditions, or who think they are not getting a fair price for their goods, will tend to stimulate a line of mental activity which will result in stabilizing conditions.

The most progressive of the picture stars believe in choosing plays, wherever possible, which will act as a propaganda of good. It is their ambition to have each screen medium serve a definite purpose, and with this in mind Mary Pickford decided to picture Eleanor H. Porter's famous book. So "Pollyanna" is a picture with a mission.

Applications for insurance may be made to: F. E. Thomas, Stevensville; E. S. Valliant, Church Hill; E. C. Bowers, Lynch, Md.; Joseph Downey, Rock Hall; R. Wesley Moffett, Millington; Charles H. Jefferson, Chestertown; Frank H. Ruth, Galena; G. W. Owens, Betterton; Allan S. Walls, Sudlersville; Howard Turner, Betterton; G. USILTON, President, terton.

MACCARONIES A. D. 1770. The hair of the gentlemen of this period was dressed exceedingly high, an enormous wig being worn. This was surmounted by a very small cap which was lifted from the head with a cane. These gentlemen were called Maccaronies.

When they Call it an "Orphan"

An orphan in automobile talk is a car that is bought from some person not able or disposed to guarantee service and satisfaction to the owner.

The term recognizes the specific value that a good dealer gives to any car he sells.

We recommend the Willys-Knight.

No car we sell ever becomes an "orphan".
