HOLD-UP ON THE AVENUE

Charles S. Smith, of Washington avenue, was called from his bed after midnight Sunday by a Mr. Montagne, who was at Starr, in Queen Annes.

Mr. Montagne reported that his son had drove off in his car for Philadelphia carrying in his possession the father's auto key and requested Mr. Smith to stop him. The accomodating Mr. Smith listened until he finally heard a machine at 4 a. m. crossing Chester bridge. He went out in the road and stopped the first machine which proved to be the son. He asked the young man if he didn't have his father's key in his pocket. The young man, reaching in his pocket, said, "Yes, but how in the world did you know it. I thought you were some hold-up man." The key was mailed.

Every white man and woman owes it to themselves to be registered. Next Tuesday is the last day—9 to 9.

A TERRIFIC BLOW

The storm of last Friday afternoon did considerale damage in certain sections. The roof of Biack's creamery was blown off and some of the siding. William Graves' stable was unroofed and a small house at the depot blown over into Mr. Deshane's field. Corn shocks were scattered all over fields. At Georgetown several large trees were laid low.

George L. Mullikin, a prominent young farmer of near Roe, Queen Annes county, was instantly killed by lightning Friday afternoon shortly after 2.30 o'clock. He was at work in a field on the Beully farm, where he resided, and drove his team beneath a large sycamore tree to seek shelter from the storm, which passed over the county. Lightning struck the tree and Mr. Mullikin and his team of mules were killed. The deceased is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Mullikin, of near Roe. He is survived by a widow, who before her marriage was Miss Robinson, of that county.

After being taken out of the well and doctored up a ilttle the little one showed no bad effects except being badly frightened.

CHURCH DEDICATION

Sunday, Oct. 2nd, 1921, will be a date long to be remembered by the people of Skinner's Neck, when the opening services were held in the new Methodist Protestant Church there. At 2 o'clock the pastor, A. F. T. Raum, with Rev. J. M. Sheridan, supt. of Church Extension of the the Maryland Annual Conference, and Rev. J. L. dElerdice, together with the congregation present, participated in the exerces ncident to the laying of the corner stone. Then the congregation entered the new church, where, after singing "We're Marching to Zion," Rev. J. L. Elderdice led in prayer, Wesley Chapel choir rendered an anthem, Scripture reading by Rev. J. M. Sheridan, duet by Mrs. A. C. Raum and Miss Edith Gilbert, of Baltimore.

The pastor then delivered the first sermon in the new church. After giving a short history of the enterprise he spoke from Exodus, 14th Chapter, 15th Verse. After the sermon Mr. Elwood Burgess, supt. of Wesley Chapel Sunday School, presented a pulpit bible as a gift from Wesley Chapel Sunday School. Mr. James Boulter presented the church with an organ, a gift from Mr. Howard Kendall, Mr. Herman H. Dieker presented the deed for the lot as a gift from himself and wife to the church. All the gifts were accepted on behalf of the church by the pastor.

Rev. J. M. Sheridan then took charge of the exercises in an effort to raise in full the cost of the building. $2200.00 was the amount needed of which $1700.00 had been subscribed, leaving $500.00 to be raised to pay for the building. This amount was subscribed by the enthused congregation. There are a few details still needed such as stove, pulpit chairs, etc., but these will, without doubt, be forthcoming.

At the night service the church was dedicated to the worship of God, with Dr. Sheridan delivering the sermon

And so at the end of a "Perfect Opening Day" the congregation sang the Doxology with their heart in the singing. A large congregation was present at both services and completely filled the church. Friends were present from all parts of the county.

The pastor and trustees desire to thank everyone for their assistance in the erection of their church.

In an exceptionally fast game the International League All-Stars defeated Chestertown on Tuesday, 5 to 2. Gordy, of Newark, pitched for the locals. Chestertown threw away opportunities to score in the seventh and eighth. McGowan sewed up the contest in the eighth when he banged out a homer with two on. Johnston's assistance of Sharmon's grounder and McCarren's catch of Walls' fowl featured. Walls caught with Usilton, Blackway and Johnston on bags and Kibler, Duffy, Bounds and Moffett in the field.

AT CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY

If I knew you and you knew me,
How little trouble there would be.
We pass each other on the street,
But just come out and let us meet,
At Church next Sunday.
Each one intends to do what's fair,
And treat his neighbor on the square,
But he may not quite understand
Why you don't take him by the hand
At Church next Sunday.
This world is sure a busy place,
And we must hustle in the race.
For social hours some are not free
The six week days, but all should be
At Church next Sunday.
We have an interest in our town,
The dear old place must not go down,
We want to push good things along.
And we can help some if we're strong
At Church next Sunday.
Don't knock and kick and slam and slap
At everybody on the map,
But push and pull and boost and boom,
And use up all the standing room
At Church next Sunday.

RALLY WEEK AT STILL POND

Instead of the customary lray day our Sunday School planned a rally week. It was preceeded by missionary exercises Sunday, September 25. Mrs. A. G. Riffel, representing the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, made an address in the Sunday Schol in the morning, and spoke in the church in the evening.

Monday, Sept. 26, the Rev. O. H. Connolly, of Millington, spoke on "A Progressive Sunday School." He and Mrs. Connolly delighted our people with their gospel singing.

Tuesday evening we held a Sunday School Supper. Everything was free and everybody was urged to come. We had plenty of the most delicious country ham and the doughnuts were fine. Following the supper the Rev. G. E. Stirling, of Galena, gave an address on "Holding the Interest of the Young People for the Sunday School."

Wednesday evening the Rev. J. T. Rowlenson gave an address on "The Religious Training of Children." Thursday evening Rev. Henry C. Collins, rector of Shrewsbury Church, spoke on "Home Co-operation and Home Religion." Rev. and Mrs. Connolly kindly came over and sang for us again. All of the addresses were of a high order.

Sunday evening the Sunday School gave a pageant, "The Coming of Truth." About fifty characters were required and all the parts were well taken. The rendering of this pageant was such as to be a credit to any rural church.

All were pleased with the week and felt that it had been an uplift not only to the Sunday Sshool but to all departments of the church.

DUCK FEATHERS AS FISH BAIT!

Did you ever hear of duck feathers being used for fish bait? Well here is a true fish story from Betterton. Capt. Jim Crew, of Betterton, and Mr. Busby, of Philadelphia, could not get any bait last Saturday and Mr. Busby suggested that they use duck feathers. Capt. Crew laughed at the suggestion, but Busby got the feathers and they both went down to Plum Point below Betterton, and fished. When the fishing was over Mr. Busby had caught 42 fine rock some of them weighing 3 pounds. Capt. Crew used crab bait and he only caught two fish. Another day some of the same feather bait was used and Mr. Busby caught another lot of rock. Next.

GRANGE NOTES

Still Pond Grange No. 245, met in the Grange Hall Oct. 4th, at the regular hour. A profitable hour was spent and enjoyed. Mrs. Joe Howard gave a brief account of Miss Hill's demonsrations in "Short Cuts in Dress Making" that was given in the Grange Hall three weeks ago.

F. H. Cornelius proposed a poultry association that might be formed, this having been metnioned to him by County Agent H. B. Derrick.

Mrs. Rasin wanted the Grange to express their loyalty to Granges by purchasing phosphate nad anything possible through the Grange.

Lecture hour was under the direction of Bro. F. H. Cornelius, who is a model Granger, and supports all her precepts. The hour was opened by song 137, after which the Grange relaxed into a free and unparliamentary discussion of questions. Bro. Cornelius asked the male members, "What has been the most profitable crop this year?" In this locality no crop has been in evidence and the first response was "milk" most profitable. Second response "milk," third response "milk." Some did give credit to the "old hen," while one, a merchant, said egg plants were the most profitable crop he had. Such egg plants were only outdone by Jack's "bean stalk." I only wish I had known these egg plants were in evidence for I surely love egg plants. Then a discussion of the topic given out by the lecturer followed. This topic was, Is the Grange fulfilling its mission as a farmer's organization." Several pros. and cons., but nothing decisive. Then followed a talk by Bro. Cornelius, fish meal for hens, all being interested in this hen fruit.

Now Still Pond Grangers stop, look and listen. Next Tuesday, Oct. 11th, 7.30 .p. m., will be a special night for you. Special committee to furnish special entertainment. H. B. Derrick, accompanied by William G. Smyth will delight you by being with with Still Pond Grange, so be up and doing and come hear what Grange 245 has in store for you. Do not find fault with the Grange when you are a part of the whole.
