The Gifts You Buy Every Year

How often it is that you can think of nothing "suitable" that is within the amount you want to pay!

Christmas, Birthdays, Graduation, Wedding Days follow each other in quick succession. Of course you like to feel that your gift is carefully selected and beautifully packed.

Miss Knight will select your gift from the various gift-corners of the store; the Hochschild, Kohn & Co. Gift Section removes all evidence of price and packs the gift neatly and carefully in tissue, places it in a box, and wraps it in white paper. From the time the postman hands the package to the recipient, that gift surely makes an excellent impression!

Silver, toilet articles, stationery, pictures, books, Ribbons, neckwear, gloves, lingerie and chocolates—tell Miss Knight the occasion, and describe the person—she will do your gift shopping for you.

'DRY' LAW CRITICISM ASSAILED BY PASTOR

Rev Dr. Warner, at St. John's, Declares Prohibition is Accomplishing Purpose.

Preaching an eloquent sermon on the subject, "Is Prohibition a Failure ?" Rev. Dr. L. F. Warner, pastor of St. John's Protestant Church, St. Paul and Twenty-seventh streets, referred to official satistics complied by Police Commissioner Gaither concerning the number of arrests for law violations since the licensed saloon went out of existence.

Dr. Warner said in part :

"Prohibition is not a failure because some people say it is a failure. There are those who want to discredit and defeat the law by saying evil things against it. When enforcement officials go out of their way to criticise prohibition in general and prohibition laws in particular, it is an evidence of unfitness for the job, to say the least. Prohibition is not a failure, but there are some who want it to be a failure. Prohibition is not a failure because it does not completely prohibit. Who said it would? Does any law entirely prevent crime? Are laws against murder, theft, disorderly conduct, etc., failures ? He who laughs at prohibition laws ought to know that the weakest argument that can be brought against any cause is ridicule. Prohibition may not completely prohibit, but it has thrown a barrier and safeguard around the appetities of men. It has driven the business to cover. Prohibition does prohibit in proportion to the vigor and effectiveness of prohibition law enforcement. Prohibition is not a failure because it has not made people immediately good. The purpose of civic law is not to make people moral, but to protect society against immoral people.

"The State is not interested so much in the individual as the relationship of individuals. It must protect its citizenship against the ravages of evil and even against the approaches of evil.

"It is not to the failure of prohibition or to the failure of prohibition enforcement but to the failure to recognize the sanctity and integrity of law to which must be attributed whatever carnival of crime may be going on in the land. Law is the mighty bulwark of our national existence. Those who are trying to discredit and weaken the operations of the Eighteenth Amendment can never be classed among the real and true friends of their country.

"Figures from the Baltimore Police Department show conclusively that prohibition has made the city better. Police Commissioner Gaither's figures show that there have been considerably less arrests made for law violations yearly since prohibition went into effect. In 1920 there were 30 per cent. less arrests made in Baltimore than during the previous year under the licensed saloon. Thus far in 1921 there has been a slight increase in the number of arrests in proportion to the arrests made in the first six months of 1920. This is not because of prohibition, but may be laid to several causes, including conditions made by unemployment and increase in population."

MOVE YOUR WHEAT QUICKLY

Three weeks ago County Agent Derrick called farmers' attention to the prevalence of fly in the wheat in Harford and advised that it be treated at once. The matter has again been brought before us by one of our largest millers who states that not a single sample submitted within the past two weeks has been free from fly. He confidently believes that nine out of every ten bins in Harford are infested and urges that in order to avoid still further losses the grain be sold at once or treated.

Already the search for clean seed is on; with mighty little good grain available. So far as we can learn no definite reason can be found for such a rapid spread of the fly, but many attribute it to the mild winter.

Certain it is farmers cannot awake to the seriousness of the pest too promptly.—Aegis.

MODERN WOODMEN.

The following was taken from "The Modern Woodmen," a paper published in the interest of all members of the Modern Woodmen of America:

"Under the law, assessments become due and payable on the first day of each and every month. In order, however, to give the neighbors plenty of time in which to pay, you are permitted to pay your current assessment up to and including the last day of the month. Thus, you really have thirty days in which to pay. For instance, October is Assessment No. 10. That assessment must be paid during the month of October some time, and if not paid by midnight of the 31st, you become delinquent, and the law, not the clerk, places you in suspension. Your clerk may be good enough to accept your assessment, and he no right to refuse it after that time, but if you don't pay until the 5th of November, you will have been in suspension five days, and should you have died until during that five days, if the law were strictly enforced, you would not be entitled, or rather your beneficiary would not be entitled, to benefits. Let us urge upon every member to pay his assessments and dues during the current month for which that assessment has been levied, and do not take a chance by going over into the next month."

MRS. HAYDOCK SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

Followed Advice of Her Druggist's Wife and Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I was in bed with a female trouble and inflammation and had four doctors but none of them did me any good. They all said I would have to have an operation. A druggist's wife told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took 22 bottles, never missing a dose and at the end of that time I was perfectly well. I have never had occasion to take it again as I have been so well. I have a six room flat and do all my work. My two sisters are taking the Compound upon my recommendation and you may publish my letter. It is the gospel truth and I will write to any one who wants a personal letter."—Mrs. E. H. HAYDOCK, 6824 St. Lawrence Avenue, Chicago Illinois.

Because Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved Mrs. Haydock from an operation we cannot claim that all operations may be avoided by it,—but many women have escaped operations by the timely use of this old fashioned root and herb medicine.
