Christmas Greetings To One and All

Having searched the market through and through I have filled my shelves with a stock of all new and fancy goods and will guarantee same as well as price. Some of my customers have told me that their home merchants have said that because my prices are so low that my goods are somewhat inferior. This is all a hum-bug. These customers have purchased here and found my goods stood up under the strongest test and were equal to any. So make Cohen's department store your Xmas headquarters and you will not only save yourself the time and trouble of hunting for xmas presents but will save yourself money besides. Above all shop early as the early shoper gets the best selection but as my shelves are jammed and packed there will be plenty for all.
