...nesday, March 27 and 28—Ervin V. Willat production "FIFTY CANDLES," from the popular Saturday Evening Post story, released thru Hodkinson. "Fifty Candles" is a mystery story that keeps the audience in a state of expectancy from start to finish. It has thrills galore and enough sensational developments to give the most hardened movie fan the thrill of his life. Added attraction Tuesday—Second episode "WINNERS OF THE WEST," great historical serial.

Wednesday and Thursday, March 29 and 30—First National attraction, Charles Ray in "The Old Swimmin' Hole," from Jas. Whitcomb Riley's famous poem. From the opening scene to the close the story is brimful of heart interest. Charles Ray as Ezra, is "just plain boy," wholesome but mischievous. He would rather fish and spend his time at the old swimmin' hole than study. He loves Myrtle, the flirtatious belle of the country school, but after bringing him to his knees and robbing him of all his treasures she jilts him for his best friend, "Skinny." However, there is happiness awaiting him in the loving arms of the ever faithful Esther. Ezra is so busy falling in and out of scrapes that it is a wonder that he finds time for sweethearts. It is skillfully directed and so wonderfully acted as to obviate the necessity for a single sub-title. It steals into the heart of the audience until the breath of new mown hay seems to pervade the darkened theatre and the audience are wafted back to the wings of memory to their own school days. The play has received most enthusiastic notice wherever shown.

Friday and Saturday, March 31 and April 1—Gloria Swanson in "The Great Movement"—a Paramount super-production.

"THE GREAT MOVEMENT" was written especially for Gloria Swanson by the world's famous author, Elinor Glyn.

"THE GREAT MOVEMENT" is a tingling story of gypsy blood that would not mix with blue. For the girl wanted life, not titled ease. Behind-the-scenes life in official Washington! Barbaric revels in Russia! Social intrigues in England! Tingling escapes in the mountains of the West! All bound together with a golden thread of gypsy love. Glittering Gloria's first big starring picture, blazing with romance and luxury.

Special and appropriate music by Prof. Robt. Burns.
