Program Of Photo-Plays To Be Shown At The Lyceum Theatre

CHESTERTOWN

Friday and Saturday, June 9 and 10—Lewis J. Selznick presents "CONCEIT"—a unique creation.

"Conceit" of course deals with that element of mental perfection that is so often found in men and women whose inflated opinion of themselves exceed their true worth. But the subject is not handled with a spirit of levity. Instead, it is a straight-way modern drama with a variety of scenes, character and action that are most refreshing. The hero of the plot is not a gilded saint and the villain is not a cloven-hoofed fiend. They are just men with all the faults and virtues usually found in the normal average person. Also Pathe Review and Comedy.

Monday and Tuesday, June 12 and 13—Welch Bros. $100,000 spectacular film production of "UNCLE TOM'S CABIN"

A screen version of America's most popular stage play. Don't fail to take the children and give them a neverlasting lesson in American history.

Special matinee on Monday afternoon.

Prices—Matinee 15c, Nights 35c, with revenue tax added.

Wednesday, June 14—Clayds Brockwell in "The Sage Hen." The Billboard says: There is more human drama to be found in this picture than in a dozen so-called human stories. It is action of an exciting kind, all ways convincing.

Thursday, June 15—Varied program of short subjects—News, Movie Chats, Century Comedy and Winners of West serial.

Friday and Saturday, June 16 and 17—A Ralph Inch production—"A Man's Home," with Harry T. Money in one of his vigorous and impressive roles. Also Pathe Review and Comedy.
