The district meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will meet at Betterton on next Thursday, Sept. 28th, beginning at 10:30 a. m., morning and afternoon sessions.

Those from here wishing to go and having no way, see Mrs. L. B. Harper on Sunday.

The Kent County Sunday School Convention met here on Wednesday with a large attendance, with a good meeting and a good time by all.

W. C. T. U. MEETING A well-attended meeting of the Kent County W. C. T. U. was held at the Elementary School Building, in Chestertown, last Saturday afternoon.

Various items of business were given attention. The Loyal Temperance Legion work, among the boys and girls of the county, is under the efficient direction of Miss Anna Leaverton.

Interesting meetings are being held all over the county this week, with Miss Green, State Legion Superintendent, in charge.

The Young People's Branch, with Miss Elsie Townsend at its head, is doing a splendid work.

It was this organization that entertained the County W. C. T. U. Convention so delightfully in July. Bond Chapel is to be congratulated upon the splendid organization of its young people, and of its boys and girls, and we hope to see its influence take root all over the county.

KENNEDYVILLE

Miss Mary Wiltbank has returned home from Betterton where she spent the summer.

Miss Bertha Grantlin returned home from a visit with friends in Wilmington.

Miss Ella Scotten has been spending some time with her sisters.

ROCK HALL

The new street lighting system in the town is appreciated.

Wesley Chapel folk listened to an impressive sermon on "Love" Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. A. F. T. Raum, and an address on "Temperance" by Miss Carrie Greene.

The town was called on for a number of witnesses in Elkton Monday at the trial of Benjamin Coburn for the death of the late Albert Walbert.

Joseph Davis laid the foundation for his home on Sharp street and now is assisting Frank Ayres with the frame. It will be a four-room bungalow 25 by 30 feet and have front and back porches.

Fred Pippin is spending some time at Grafton, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson are receiving congratulations on the advent of a son, now a couple of weeks old.

The S. D. A. Convention was addressed Friday evening and Sabbath morning by Elder L. O. Drews, of Baltimore.

A week ago a recital was given by Miss Catherine Jeffers' music pupils at the home of Mrs. Frank Jacob.

The little musicians were Mande Hadaway, Minnie Jacob, Franklin Jacob, Cora Thomas, Marie Jacob, Albert Dowling and Eva Jacob.

Frances Willson returned from the hospital Saturday, his mother, Mrs. T. B. Willson, going over to Baltimore to accompany him home. He is recuperating nicely.

The stork has been busy. Wednesday a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Roland Miller, of Chester, Pa., Mrs. Miller is at the home of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jusfeld, Thursday a daughter came to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jewell Thompson who will call the little newcomer Ella May.

Allen Urie while driving a truck near Chestertown met with an accident which damaged the truck badly and hurt him about the face. He made a narrow escape.

At the M. E. Church Sunday two fine sermons were delivered by the pastor, Rev. W. H. Revelle, the morning text being "And the word was made flesh, and dwelt among us," John 1:14. A solo, "Tell Us," was sung by Mrs. Revelle. Sunday school in the afternoon was addressed by Miss Carrie E. Greene, of Baltimore, State Secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion, a fine speaker who held the attention of the children. Monday at 3:30 p. m. a legion was organized with thirty boys and girls as members. Miss Greene was present to give them a nice start. Epworth League at 7:30 o'clock was under the direction of Miss Mabel Webb. One of the musical numbers was a solo by Mrs. Willard Dodson, of Worton. A duet "Drifting," was sung by Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Revelle.
