

LOCAL NOTES

The new schedule of Chester river Company goes into effect Monday. See time table in this issue.

A. L. Sparks' big show window was decorated this week with dahlias from Mrs. George Chairs' yard. They were about the handsomest seen here this season. Mrs. Paul Adams also has some beautiful blooms.

The tennis tournament announced by the Town Commissioners for next week has been called off because of lack of interest and entries.

Ernest Briscoe on the Kelly farm, near Betterton, sold 100 tons of tomatoes off 8 acres. Who can beat this?

The loading of large logs and timber has been transferred from the depot at foot of Cross street to the mill where a big equipment has been erected.

Eddie Keenan, the big guard of W. C. asked if Charlotte Hall was a chorus girl, when told the first game would be with this college.

Polk T. Bramble, proprietor of Bramble's Poultry Farm, has just completed the installation of a new incubator of 8,000 egg capacity.

A dental conference was held at Cambridge Monday. Dr. H.C. Hughes was present from Chestertown. A fine supper was served.

Dr. Paul M. Pearson, president of the Swarthmore Chautauqua, and well-known locally, was, last week, re-elected president of the International Lyceum and Chautauqua Association, defeating Wm. Jennings Bryan.

The dance in Firemen's Hall last Saturday evening given by "The Baltimoreans" Bill Smith, director, was a decided success and everyone enjoying themselves and pronounced the music fine.

Next Wednesday, in Baltimore, the annual meeting of the Maryland section will be held in the Unitarian Church, Charles and Franklin streets, Baltimore, in interest of sufferers in Smyrna. As many as possible are urged to be present to hear Charles Vickery and Mr. Pellegrin who have just returned from the scenes of the war. Moving pictures will be shown of the actual conditions. All attendees are asked to bring small donations for eatables as lunch will be served and each to pay for his dinner.

Milk for October is fixed at $2.33 per hundred for 4 per cent.

The jury which heard the Peca will case in Elkton last week returned a verdict sustaining the will.

W. P. Newnam has made the first purchase of a lot from the Brown plot. He bought the corner lot and expects to build in the spring.

Mrs. Gladys R. Wickes has sold to the Messrs. Wick, of Iowa, a bungalow and 7 acres on Chester river for $700. They will give special attention to raising ducks and chickens.

Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., trustee, has sold at private sale the Wickes farm located near Chestertown to H. Clay Lusby for $26,000. The farm contains 520 acres. H. Clay Lusby has been the tenant on this fine place for 32 years.

Owing to the small price offered for Keiffer pears, the crop in this section, will not be remunerative. Buyers are offering only 15 and 25 cents a basket which does not pay the cost of picking and growers are allowing fruit to go to waste.

The Board of Town Commissioners is improving the appearance of Cross street by laying concrete walks.

The coming of Leon M. Pearson to Chestertown on Monday evening, Oct. 16, to give a Recital in the Auditorium of the High School for the benefit of the Chestertown Public Library will be of interest. Mr. Pearson will present an evening of rare enjoyment. He is already a playwright of distinction and a student of dramatics at Harvard.

His subject "Rhymes of many Races," is attractive in itself—then the fact that money is being made for a most worthy cause is enough to warrant attendance. Tickets will be on sale each library day, Tuesdays, from 2 to 5, Saturdays 2 to 5 and 6 to 8 p. m.

George Sutton, Worton trainer, who has been campaigning on Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania tracks, made good with his pacer, Princess D. This mare has an interesting history. Last spring Mr. Sutton received the mare from one of his patrons, who, because of financial reverses was unable to pay the cost of training and told Mr. Sutton to take the mare in payment for the bill. The mare is one of the fastest ever trained by Mr. Sutton and has not been out of the money in any race in which she has contested, finishing most of the time in second position. She took second money in a race at the Wilmington Fair.

The total deposits in Kent banks as per statements September 15th is $3,704,996.28.

Edmund Hurr, of near Locust Grove, had the misfortune to have his valuable water dog drown recently in the Sassafras river.

L. W. Ford has deeded to John C. Redmile the farm bought of the latter last year. It is finely located at Kennedyville. Mr. Ford will likely remove to the town.

The Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36 of the American Legion extends a cordial invitation to all ex-service men to attend an outing to be held at Quaker Neck Wharf, Sunday, October 15th.

GRANGE NOTES

Kennedyville Grange will re-open for the fall on Monday, October 9th, at 7.30 p. m., at the School Building. All grangers are urged to make a special effort to be present. This is your organization and you should encourage by your presence all the social and community meetings. Meet with your fellows in an evening of social entertainment and betterment. Remember the date, Monday evening, October 9th, at 7.30.

A. S. Bryan Wins Auto.

The Ford car for which members of the Centreville Band have been selling chances for the past two months was raffled at the entertainment given Wednesday evening in the Centreville Opera House, and was won by A. S. Bryan, of Grasonville. About $200 was realized from the raffle.

James A. Stillman, former president of the National City Bank, of New York, was denied a decree in his suit for absolute divorce against his wife, Anne U. Stillman, and Baby Guy Stillman was declared legitimate, in the findings of Daniel J. Gleason, referee in the case which were filed in New York Friday. Through his mother's victory, Guy Stillman retained his rights as an heir with his two brothers and his sister to the $8,000,000 trust fund created for them by their grandfather, the late James Stillman.

John H. Clendaniel and family will remove to Chestertown early next month and occupy Miss Alice Wilmer's residence on Queen street. Miss Wilmer will remove to Water street.
