WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

John W. Boyer and wife celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary last Thursday at their home in Rock Hall in a most delightful manner. A repetition of the ceremony by Rev. Harry Buppert, of Walbrook, was a feature.

The bride and groom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Davis, of Locust Grove, nephew of the bride. Both the ladies carried handsome bouquets of dahlias and the attendants presented the bride with fifty magnificent dahlias of different varieties, while other friends gave gold and handsome presents and showered them with felicitations and good wishes. There are very few silver threads in Mrs. Boyer's black hair and a glance at her face causes one to know that her husband has been good to her.

Those who witnessed the interesting ceremony were their daughter, Mrs. Charles Harrison, granddaughters, Miss Margaret and Miss Jeanette Harrison, Mr. Boyer's sister, Mrs. Mary J. McKovitt and other relatives and friends: Rev. Harry Buppert and Miss Margaret Buppert, of Walbrook; Mrs. Wm. J. Porter and Mrs. Benj. Durdling, of Baltimore; Mrs. C. J. Turck and Henry L. Dietz, of Rock Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Boyer's only son, ex-lieut. LeRoy Boyer, chief parole officer at Maryland Training School for Boys, at Lock Raven, Baltimore county, was prevented by his duties from being present.

Capt. and Mrs. Charles R. Kerr entertained at dinner Sunday, Oct. 8, the 50th anniversary of their marriage, sixteen members of their immediate families at their beautiful home in Rock Hall. Their daughter and grandchildren were present, the only absent member being their son, Lieut. Maurice Kerr, in the air service at Camp Travers, Texas, who hopes to be able to add his congratulations personally in a short time. This really youthful couple received some beautiful gifts. May they enjoy together many more years.
