ORDER OF PUBLICATION

Samuel F. Robinson, Annie E. Robinson

versus

Eva Lynch, Eunice DeMott, Charles Storke, Raymond Storke, Wilbur Storke.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County In Equity. No. 2231.

The object of the Bill in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for the sale of the real estate of which Isaiah Coleman died, seized and possessed, intestate, for the purpose of clearing the title thereto.

The Bill states:

1. That Isaiah Coleman died, seized and possessed of a certain lot of land and premises in Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, on the Northwest side of Front street between Cannon street and the Pennsylvania Railroad property described in deed from Frederick Nichols, Jr., and wife to Isaiah Coleman dated March 15th, 1886, recorded S. B. No. 7, folios 645.

2. That the said Isaiah Coleman left surviving him as his only heirs at law, the following: Susanna Biggers, John T. Coleman, William H. Coleman, James U. Coleman, Bessie Coleman and Katie Coleman.

3. That on the 10th day of May, 1919, the above named heirs, together with Laura S. Robinson (a child of Katie Coleman, now deceased) undertook to convey to William F. Malin the above mentioned property in fee simple. See deed A. P. R. No, 8, folio 145.

4. That on August 11th, 1921, the said William F. Malin undertook to convey the aforesaid property to the Complainants in this case in fee simple. See deed R. R. A. No, 2, folio 157.

5. That by virtue of the above conveyances the Complainants acquired a five-sixth interest in and to said property, and the remaining one-sixth interest is owned by the said Defendants.

6. That the Defendants Eunice DeMott, Charles Storke and Raymond Storke are non-residents of the State of Maryland, and Eva Lynch and Wilbur Storke are residents of Baltimore City, Maryland, and all are adults.

7. That the said real estate is not susceptible of partition among the parties entitled thereto without material loss and injury, and that in order to make division of said interests, it will be necessary that said real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof divided amongst the parties according to their several interests.

And whereupon, since the filing of the Bill in this case your Orators have been informed and verily believe, that the said Eva Lynch and Wilbur Storke are no longer residing in Baltimore City but are non-residents of the State of Maryland, and their present whereabouts is unknown to your Irators.

And whereupon, on January 10th, 1924, a Petition and Order of Court for Order of Publication against Eva Lynch and Wilbur Storke was filed.

It is thereupon this 10th day of January A. D. 1924, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiffs by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County once in each of four successive weeks before the 11th day of February next, giving notice to the said Eva Lynch and Wilbur Storke, non-resident defendants, warning them to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor on or before the 25th day of February next, to show cause, if any they have, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.

GOV. RITCHIE'S SECOND TERM

No Governor ever took office under more auspicious circumstances than did Governor Richie on Wednesday. Honored, contrary to precedent in this State, by re-election, given a majority so sweeping as to leave no doubt of his being the popular choice, backed by a majority of his own party in both Senate and House of Delegates, he begins his new term with every prospect of a successful issue.

Local Order Discusses the Holy Bible

The Holy Bible, conceded by nearly all mankind to be the greatest book of all the ages, containing as it does poetry as great as has ever come from the pen of a master, and logic as keen and as far-reaching as ever written by the most renowned philosophers of all time, was discussed at the weekly meeting of the Chestertown Patriotic Order Son of America at their meeting Tuesday evening at Fraternal Hall The Book of Genesis, which reveals the handiwork of God in the creation of the world, and around which has clustered unrelentless criticism and unending debate, was the part of the Scriptures under discussion. This is an age of skepticism and the Bible, as well as everything else under the stars ha snot escaped the pointed shafts of the seeker for truth in all fields, and in order to get a better understanding of the Sacred Book, the Order decided to investigate it for themselves and take up some parts of it for discussion After the chaplain had read the first half of the Book of Genesis, the members were called upon to give their opinions on the same. The result was most interesting and instructive. Next week the Patriotics will take up the second half of the Book of Genesis. Members are requested to be present.
