ASSOCIATION FIXES 30c PRICE

At a meeting last week of officials of the Queen Anne's County Tomato Growers' Association, the price for this year was placed at 30c a basket for inland territory and 25c a basket for tomatoes to be deliverel to water points. In other words, is was agreed to place the price at 5 cents increase over last year. The canner met with officials of the association last week for the first conference on the new contract price.

The News is reliably informed that the city canneries receive 10 cents per dozen more for their pack of tomatoes than the inland plants. If so, why should there ben any difference in price

The farmer has the opportunity now to state what the price shall be and if 30 cents is reasonable to stick to it!

BUNDLE DAY IN KENT

We are planning to make Bundle Day for Kent county the best one yet. The Boy Scouts are going to help in the towns and in the country, the bundles will be carried to the schools. Public spirited men and women will be asked to carry them to Chestertown and leave them at Noland's Store, where the bread trucks will take them over to Baltimore. It is hoped everyone will sew them securely in burlap sacks whenever possible.

The Conference for the Clergymen of the County will be at 1 p. m. instead of 3, as announced last week, in the Parish House, Chestertown, March 15th. That will enable Mr. Pellegrin to cover his night appointment.

Easter gifts may be purchased from Rote's or Newnam's and the entire proceeds will go directly abroad. These gentlemen are kindly donating space and will sell the goods for us.

Look up all old sweaters and shoes. Old fashioned coats and skirts. Send warm woolen rags and clean cotton or linen rags. These can be well used in many hospitals over there. Send toys and dolls, for any day is Christmas, if it brings a toy.

30 CENTS FOR TOMATOES

A special from Edgar W. Montell, County Agent of Dorchester to Mr. Derrick says: "The Farm Bureau has just secured a contract for 1700 acres of tomatoes with three canners around Cambridge and Church Creek in Dorchester on the following basis: Tomatoes delivered up to and including August 16th, 32½ cents per 5-8 basket; between August 17, and August 21 inclusive 30 cents; after August 21, 27½ cents. We will no doubt be able to place the balance of our acreage at the above mentioned figures."

One-fifth of New Jersey's acreage has been pledged to canners. They offer $20 per ton. The Growers' Association ask from $22 to $33 a ton.
