LEGISLATURE NEWS

A bill to make the office of the sheriff of this county a salaried office has been prepared for introduction in the legislature this week. The bill provides that the sheriff shall receive an annual salary of $1,800, together with the profits accruing from the board of prisoners and other appurtenances.

Not to be outdone by the Independent Citizens' Union, which two days ago sent a petition in favor of Sunday "movies" and stated that it represented 20,000 voters the board of directors of the Maryland Sunday School Association have presented, through Delegate Sharp, a statement that it opposes Sunday "movies" and represents 300,000 boys and girls who are the wards of 100,000 men and women.

Senator Curran blocked passage by the Senate of a bill which he declared would militate unfairly against merchants of Baltimore and other Maryland cities who have customers in Kent county. The measure would prohibit business concerns other than those of Kent county from taking orders for selling or delivering merchandise in that county without first taking out a license. The license would cost $150 and there also would be a fee of $1 for the clerk issuing it.

Governor Ritchie has signed the bill providing for a bond issue of $10,000 to provide the town of Millington with additional fire equipment.

At the celebration of the 76th anniversary oft he Mount Vernon Literary Society, an old society pin, worn by D. James Blackiston who graduated from the college in 1864 was presented to P. P. Heck, the president of the society, by Toastmaster H. P. Ford, of Philadelphia, on behalf of Dr. Edward J. Clarke, of Pocomoke City.

Passage by the House of Delegates of any reform legislation during the present session is now considered at Annapolis to be remote.

The News acknowledges receipt from Senator Copper of the Bill relating to increase of taxes in Chestertown. The bill provides for a referendum and will segregate the two funds—5 cents for garbage and 6 cents for Fire Company.

The Maryland Legislature this year will not extend its sessions into April. This is because of leap year giving 29 days in February. The session began, as it always does, on the first Wednesday in January, this year that date being January 2nd, thus the twenty-nine days in February and the thirty-one in March make the ninety days, the limit permitted by the constitution. Not for many years has the Maryland legislature adjourned before April arrives, and it will be after the lapse of many years before this will occur again.

By card pubiished in this issue Mr. John W. Barnes announces his candidacy for town commissioner.

A get-together meeting of patrons of the Chestertown creamery was held in Firemen's Hall Wednesday evening. Mr. Davis, of the Willis-Supplee-Jones Co. addressed the farmers on clean milk. He said that the farmer who kept any cow that did not give 20 pounds of milk daily was keeping a "boarder" and should get rid of her. He laid great stress against bringing garlicky milk or sour milk to the station. He represented 6000 patrons of creameries. Rolls and hot "doggies" were served and everyone enjoyed the meeting.
