There is a smile that comes over the face of intelligent citizens who read the anti-organization reason for entering the present primary. They claim that they wanted to save expense! Why didn't they do it? A contest is made up of two sides and how easy it would have been to have entered into the plan to send three representative Democrats to the State Convention. The Organization stated two weeks ago that they would name a full delegation to go on a Ritchie platform. Are they opposed to Gov. Ritchie, or are they ambitious to shine? If the latter, then the desire on their part to shine will cost the tax-payers of Kent four or five thousand dollars.

DOUBLE STANDARD IN MORALS

Rev. O. N. Marshall denounces as unfair discrimination shown between sexes in overlooking sinful acts. He says women are victims of public opinion. His text is "For there is no difference," and the sermon is contained in these lines:

If the prodigal boy had been a girl,
How would the story have run?
Would the fatted calf have been killed as quick
For a daughter as for the son?
Would the welcome back have been the same;
Would the ring and shoes and all,
With the robe, been given a daughter
Had she been the one to fall?
The world applauds the father
For receiving the wandering son,
But turns its back to the daughter,
When she is the erring one;
There seems to be two standards
Of morals for maid and man,
The sins of the boy are given,
But the girl is under the band.
The fetal hall is wide open
And the banquet board is spread,
For the prodigal son is returning
As one who once was dead;
But society shuns the daughter,
Drawing its skirts aside,
Lest they should brush against her,
And tarnish their hollow pride.
The road to reform is made easy
For him who wanders away,
His mistakes condoned and forgiven
Are forgotten in a day;
But the path is rough for her who sins,
Though her fault be ever so slight,
Her sun of promise forever sets,
With no star of hope insight.
A double standard of morals
Is wrong if the fault is the same;
Why should we make any difference
In sex, when placing the blame?
If both be weak and erring
And either should seek to atone,
Let the faultless, if any among us,
Be the first to cast the stone.
When we have lived our lives on earth,
And reached our journey's end,
And done our earthly task below,
But not our earthly friend;
May it be said of us at last,
That our charity was wide,
And maybe then we'll average out
When we reach the other side.

GALENA ITEMS

The Bible school teachers are planning an egg hunt for pupils on the chapel and parsonage green.

Miss Anna Deshane, of Locust Grove, visited her grandmother, Mrs. Annie Deshane, a few days of last week.

The young people of Kennedyville will give a play entitled "The Bashful Mr. Bobbs," in Odd Fellows Hall, Thursday evening, April 22. (See adv. in this paper.) Benefit of St. Andrews P. E. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville McCauley and little son, Dennis, of Price's, spent the week-end at the home of Mrs. Eva McCauley.

Lenten services were held in Olivet M. E. Church Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evening.

Mrs. Ariminta Woodall, who has been sick, is much better at this writing.

A MESSAGE TO THE WORLD

Holy week has been more generally observed by the churches than ever before. This season solemnizes souls. It is fraught with memories of the greatest event of time or eternity. The throngs that fill the churches are drawn by the thought of the Crucifixion of the Saviour.

Even the thoughtless should think at such a time as this. It should set people to considering in quiet, unhurried retirement, the solemnities and sublimities of the soul. Turning aside from the accustomed routine of diversions, our eyes should be fixed upon the Spectacle of the ages.

In the words of Mr. Ellis, "We come to close grips with the question of the relation between the Church and mankind. The best that the church can offer the world is the Cross of Jesus Christ, with its message of salvation from sin. This is the heart of the Gospel which the Church preaches. The cure of souls, sick and sore and sad in sin, is the message of the Cross. "Jesus Christ, and Him crucified," is the dearest possession of the Church, and her freest, choicest message to the world."

He is risen! Let the glad refrain awaken in each heart that response which merits a surrendered life to Him and His service.

Mortgagee's Sale
—OF—
Valuable Real Estate

Under and by virtue of a power of sale contained in a mortgage from Robert A. Loud and E. Hynson Loud to David D. Taylor, said mortgage bearing date the 18th day of June, in the year nineteen hundred and nineteen, and being recorded among the land records for Kent County, State of Maryland, in Liber A. P. R. no. 5, folio 38, etc., default having occured in the said mortgage's terms and conditions, and which said mortgage has been assigned to the undersigned for the purpose of foreclosure and collection, the undersigned assignee of said mortgage will sell at public sale, in front of the Court House Door, in the town of Chestertown, Kent County, Maryland, on

Tuesday, April 22nd, 1924

between the hours of one and two o'clock p. m.,

All That Valuable Farm
or tract of land

situate, lying and being in the Third Election District of Kent County, aforesaid, known as

"The John W. Newton Farm"

lying on the public road leading from Chestertown to Worton Station, adjoining the lands of Ralph Williams, the heirs of Penelope Pennell et al and containing,

200 ACRES

One Rood Thirty and Seven-Tenths Perches of Land, more or less. The improvements on this land are fine and consist of a

Modern House

with Acetylene Light,

and running water throughout, and many up-to-date conveniences. It is a two story frame dwelling and in good condition.

In addition to the above mentioned house there is near the main dwelling a small one story frame dwelling for servants. This building is in good repair and a nice house. The outbuildings are large, ample conveniences for horses and all kinds of stock. There is a cow stable with concrete floor and well equipped. A nice granary and corn house and ample shedding for the accommodation of all machinery.

There are nice poultry houses and a fenced poultry yard.

The land is of nice quality and in high state of cultivation. There is a splendid meadow on this farm with nice stream of running water through same.

There has been planted a sufficient number of young fruit trees for use of farm and these trees will soon be in bearing. All annual crops growing on the farm at the time of the sale will go with the land and pass to the purchaser.

This farm is well located with reference to churches, schools, stores and there is Washington College within a few miles at Chestertown, which is about five miles distance.

TERMS IF SALE:—One-third of the purchase money in cash on day of sale, the remaining two-thirds in two equal installments payable in six and twelve months each from the day of sale, the deferred payments to bear interest at six per cent and to be secured by the notes or bonds of the purchaser or purchasers endorsed and secured agreeable to the undersigned, or all cash on day of sale at the option of the purchaser or purchasers. Further particulars to be made known on day of sale.

JAMES T. EARLE,
Assignee.

John T. Jester, Auctioneer.

A reasonable loan on this land may be obtained by applying to James T. Earle, Centreville, Maryland.

There was no occasion for a primary in Kent this year and those who have brought it on will be held accountable to the voters and taxpayers. Messrs. H. W. Vickers, Dr. Merritt Brice and Capt. Charles R. Kerr should have had no opposition. They are good Democrats, they endorse the Ritchie administration and can represent the people at the State Convention.

There is universal sorrow in Kent county over the sudden death of Arthur L. Harris. He was young, ambitious, industrious and intelligent, a representative citizen and popular with all classes. In his demise Kent county has lost a good citizen, the agricultural community an untiring worker and his neighborhood a true friend. He was a worthy son of a noble sire, the late James S. Harris.

There is no citizen who regrets a primary contest such as is now on more than the News editors. But as long as the ambitions of men is but the evil shadow of aspiration there will be misery to him and those who are pulled into the maelstrom. If the time and money were spent in some good cause Kent county would be helped and those engaged in the contest have a grand feeling of nobleness.

Science's Latest Gift to Poultrymen

Science has at last discovered a way to reduce losses of young chicks to a minimum. The Quaker Oats Company developed a method of including this wonderful life-giving discovery in

FUL-O-PEP CHICK STARTER

Science proved by experiments that Cod Liver Oil because of its Vitamine content, when combined with the other health-giving ingredients, overcomes leg weakness and produces strong bones and healthy vigorous bodies.

These elements are all combined in Ful-O-Pep Chick Starter, so if you want to cut down your Chick losses, feed them on Ful-O-Pep Chick Starter.
