TO OUR MOTHER

We've gone about for year we find
With eyes half blind,
Squandering golden hours
In search of flowers
That do not grow, it seems,
Except in dreams;
But in our wanderings
From place to place
We've found more fair, no face,
No eyes more true than thine,
Oh, mother mine.

APRIL TERM CIRCUIT COURT NOW IN SESSION

Since the last issue of the News the following cases have been heard and disposed of by the Circuit Court for Kent county:

Friday

State vs. John Robinson for murder. Jury trial. Occupied attention of the court throughout Friday and Saturday. Verdict guilty of manslaughter. Sentenced to 12 months in the House of Correction. John D. Urie and Thomas F. Healey represented Robinson. S. S. Beck, State.

The jury returned a verdict for $2,500 in the Mary E. Satchell case. The defendant asked for a new trial.

Friday

The case of John Lawrence against John W. Scott for alleged $1,000 damages caused by an automobile collision was on trial at hour of going to press. It is a Cecil county case. J. F. Evans and H. H. Barroll for plaintiff; H. A. Warburton and S. S. Beck for defendant.

The Chaires will case is marked for trial next. Centreville court is in session with Judge Keating on the bench.

The trial of Norman Lane for the murder of James Jones will come up at a special term of Court June 9th.

WITHOUT AN ENEMY

Heaven help the man who imagines he can dodge enemies by trying to please everybody! If such an individual ever succeeded we should be glad of it—not that we believe in a man going through the world trying to find beams to knock and thump his poor head against, disputing every man's opinion, fighting and elbowing and crowding all who differ with him. That, again is another extreme. Other people have a right to their opinion so have you; don't fall into the error of supposing they will respect you less for maintaining it, or respect you more for turning your coat every day to match the color of theirs. Wear your own colors in spite of the wind or weather, storm or sunshine. It costs the vacillating and irresolute ten times the trouble to wind and shuffle and twist, that it does hones, manly independence to stand its ground.

J. Waters Russell has sold his suburban home near Baltimore and will remove his family to Chestertown early next month. They will reside for the present on Maple avenue, near Queen.

CAUTION

All persons are hereby cautioned against trespassing in any manner upon the Paper Mill Property as all violators will be made to comply with the law against trespassing.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION

AFTER ALL that has been said and done, the political fight in this county on Monday next May 5, for the delegates to the State Convention, narrowed down to the question of the political control of this county between Senator W. B. Copper and his followers and Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., and his followers. * * * The question in this campaign whether Senator Copper and his followers or Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., and his followers are to control the political destinies of this county and it is for you to decide that question on Monday next. Your vote next Monday will determine that question and it is for you, and you only, to decide.—Chestertown Transcript, May 3, 1924.

Now let's see, if Mr. Copper and his followers accept the result gracefully and with loyalty to the winners.
