DEATHS

Edward Webb died near Cecilton, May 7th, aged 57. The funeral took place Saturday, interment at Shrewsbury Cemetery, Rev. Mr. Rowlenson officiating. The deceased was a son of the late Joseph J. and Mary F. Webb, of Kent county. He leaves four brothers, William, Clarence, Joseph and Harper Webb, and three sisters, Mrs. Frank A. Roeder, Mrs. Wallace Atwell, Mrs. Olive R. Cleaver. His bearers were his six nephews. He was a man of high character and held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Joseph Richard Ryan, Sr., died at his home south of Rock Hall on May 9th, 1924, his seventy-eighth birthday. Mr. Ryan was born in Boston, Mass., his father being from Belfast, Ireland and his mother had been a Miss Collins, from England. He was married in Baltimore in 1875 to Miss Margaret Bargar, of York, Pa. His home was in the vicinity of Rock Hall for about forty-seven years during which time he was a member of the M. E. Church there, he having left at the age of eighteen the Catholic Church, in which he was reared, and affiliated with the Methodist faith. He was ever a sterling citizen, ready to do what he could for his neighbors and the community. He had been afflicted with heart trouble the past ten years. About a month ago complications took place and during his illness he had the devoted attention of his large family. He leaves four sons, Joseph R., Jr., John C., Nelson G., of Rock Hall, and Newton McQuay Ryan, of Queen Anne's County, and five daughters, Mrs. James E. Lambert, Mrs. Arthur P. Levy of Baltimore, Mrs. Hiram Crew, of Lynch Mrs. Edgar Hague and Miss Daisy Ryan, of Rock Hall, besides six grand-children. Funeral services were conducted at Rock Hall M. E. Church at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. Wm. H. Revelle. After the sermon the chaplain and Noble grand of Monumental Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., of Baltimore, read their burial ritual which included the placing of myrtle on the casket of the dead. Interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. The bearers were William Bramble, Henry Thompson, Milton Maslin, Walter Hadaway, Charles Judefind and Jas. Taylor. Thomas H. Cassey, undertaker in charge.

Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Hess were called to Lonaconing, Md., last week by the death of the latter's father, Mr. Isaac Bradburn, one of Allegany county's most prominent citizens.

Mr. Bradburn was born in Staffordshire, England, Aug. 22, 1845, and came to America with his parents in 1848, who located first at Georgetown, Pa., but removed to Lonaconing in 1854, which town then was but a sparse settlement.

Mr. Bradburn's career began in the coal mines and he gradually rose to the position of general manager of the American Coal Company. For more than fifty years he was one of the most active and commanding figures in the growth and development of the community in which he resided.

He was one of the founders of the Lonaconing Savings Bank, of which institution he served as director and Vice-President until he retired from active business affairs. He was also interested in the Home Electric Light Company.

He was a founder of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Lonaconing and besides contributing financial assistance, hauled the stones for the laying of foundations of the building after his own days work was done. He was treasurer of the church for many years, as well as trustee and active member of all the church societies.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Janet Minor Bradburn and the following children: Mrs. Margaret J. Smith, Cumberland; John J. Bradburn Lonaconing; Isaac Bradburn, Jr., Meyersdale, Pa.; and Mrs. Louis C. Hess, Chestertown. The funeral was held last Thursday.

Mrs. Arrie E. McNamee, widow of John C. McNamee, died at her home in North East, Sunday night, aged 81 years.

Mrs. McNamee was a daughter of the late Alexander and Catherine Maudlin Wilson, and was born at the Wilson homestead in Elk Neck June 4th, 1942. After her marriage the family resided in Elk Neck, where Mr. McNamee, a former President of the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Cecil county, was engaged in farming until about twenty years ago, when he retired and moved to North East, where he died six years ago. Four children survive—Florence W., wife of Capt. E. E. Curry, of New York; Capt. Alexander McNamee and Miss Lidie A. McNamee, at home, and William McNamee, of North East. She is also survived by a half-sister, Mrs. Jennie Pennington, wife of Frank Pennington, of Middletown, Del., five grandchildren and a number of nephews and nieces. Interment was made at Hart's cemetery, Elk Neck, the bearers being her six nephews: Wm. A. and Walter G. Wilson, of Collingswood, N. J.; Edw. C. Wilson, of North East; Harry L. Wilson, of Elk Neck; Alexander Wilson, of Cecilton; and Andrew W. Wilson, of Georgetown.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father, Barrett C. Smith, who departed this life six months ago November 17, 1923.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our hearts
Which never can be filled.
We often sit and think of you
When we are all alone,
For memory is the only thing
That grief can call its own.
Six months ago you left us;
How we miss your loving face;
You left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
God called him home, it was His will,
But in our hearts we love him still,
His memory is as real today
As in the hour he passed away.

By his son and daughter,
Edward and Marguerite Fowler.

COULD NOT WALK BECAUSE OF PAIN

Bad Case of Woman's Illness Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Louis, Missouri.—"I had such a bad case of female trouble that I could not walk because of the pains from inflammation. My back was all done up. I could hardly bend, could not go up stairs because of weakness, and no one could possibly be in worse shape than I was. I have taken twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am a strong woman now and can work down any of my neighbors. They wonder how I can do so much work. I dare say that I have recommended your medicine to a thousand women. A little book was thrown at my door, and that is how I first learned of it."—Mrs. D. M. BEAUCHAMP, 1104 Morrison Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Letters like this bring out the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

In office at Chestertown every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday; other days by appointment.
