Sandy Beach Is Sold In Big Land Sale

For $400,000, a group of Baltimoreans, headed by Irving E. Butler, president of the Stoneleigh Corporation, Friday acquired 456 acres of land on the north side of Bay Shore. The purchase also includes Sandy Beach.

The property will be developed by the Brighton Bay Corporation at a cost of $1,000,000, and the improvements will consist of 2500 cottages and bungalows, hotels and parks.

The construction of the first unit of a boardwalk 600 feet long and 60 feet wide will be started Monday. This walk when entirely completed will be 2½ miles long and 60 feet wide.

It is planned to make this property the finest summer resort in the South. Landscape engineers will start Monday in laying out building lots and planning several parks. Each lot will be 50 by 150 feet and restrictions will prevail.

The first of the hotels will be erected this summer.

CHILD LABOR

On the day the House agreed to the resolution for a child labor amendment to the Constitution a gold medal and $250 were presented by Mayor Kendrick to "the most worthy boy" of Philadelphia, because he managed to get to school for one session a day while he was earning a living for his paralyzed father, his mother and six little brothers and sisters. If there were a law keeping him from working for a living till he was 18, his family would be paupers, supported by the city.

On the day before the Senate assented to the same amendment two youths in Chicago, who had expensive educations and had never done a piece of work, confessed to the cold-blooded murder of a boy of 14 and an effort to extort $1,000 from the parents of their victim.

Of course, these cases don't prove anything, but they ought to arouse a little thought. The possibility of keeping boys and girls at school until they are 18, although they have no taste or ability for the higher education, is an absurdity. That a boy of 17, husky and indifferent to books, might be kept away from useful employment and at school, is the extreme of folly. Not long ago a girl 16 or 17, in New York, was hauled before a Magistrate under the compulsory school attendance law. She produced a marriage certificate, told the Magistrate she would much rather keep house for her husband than go to school, and he dismissed the case.

Certainly little children should not work, and all children should be obliged to go to school till they can read, write and cipher decently and have a little idea of geography; but the idea that any law, State or national, should forbid young people who have no taste or capacity for books to go to school till they are 18 is ridiculous.

Of course, persons from 15 years to 17 years and 11 months are children only in a legal sense. The greater part of these might properly be employed at light work, and would be at least as useful there as in school.

The matter should be left with the States. Amending the Constitution is the national disease.—Philadelphia Record.

Notice To Shippers

The County Commissioners for Kent county, by virtue of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, Chapter 487, passed at its session of 1880, hereby give notice that a uniform charge of one-quarter of a cent per basket will be made for each basket of tomatoes shipped from or over the county wharves season of 1924. There will be no charge upon shipments of wheat, corn or other grains this season.

The county wharves have been put in usable condition at considerable expense and the commissioners feel that a small part of the cost should be borne by the traffic.

This is not a tax on the grower but a charge by law laid on owner of boat.

By order of the Commissioners for Kent County.
