The demonstration of work done by the High School boys and girls that was given on Tuesday afternoon was attended by a large number of patrons. The beautiful white dresses made by the graduating class, the serge and gingham dresses, blouses and all of the other articles showed that the girls are indeed skillful with their needles and everyone admired the pieces of furniture made by the boys, so strong and well made. We have a nice graduating class here this year and anyone who attended the demonstration could see very plainly that all classes were interested in the work.

A little crowd went to the woods fern hunting one day this week and found many beautifl ferns and flowers. Also they saw a fox had a doggie roast and a marshmellow toast, so the "kiddies" thought it was quite an eventful trip.

Health Meeting

A meeting of the Kent County Public Health Association was held at the Armory on Wednesday afternoon, June 11. Meeting opened with prayer by Rev. N. O. Gibson. Minutes of last meeting read and accepted. Mrs. Massey, Chairman of the Association, made a few remarks concerning the Health Centre which has been established in Chestertown.

The Association has secured the room in the Eliason Building, formerly occupied by Mr. Kaplan, and with the co-operation and help of other organizations this room has been thoroughly cleaned and fitted up as a Health Centre which is accessible to any one in Kent county. Tuberculosis clinics will be held here the second Monday in every month and other clinics will be established later.

Miss Lockwood, the County Health Nurse, gave a report of her work and stated she would be at the Health Centre every Thursday afternoon from 1 to 4, and will be glad to meet any one desiring consultation. Mrs. Massey then introduced Mr. Passano, of Baltimore County.

Mr. Passano gave a most interesting talk of the health work done in Baltimore County and told us just how hard they have had to work in order to make this the best health organization in the State. Obstacles of every kind were overcome until now they have five Health Centres, each one doing splendid work.

Miss Lydia Martin, of the State Department of Health, and Miss Baer were present and gave short talks concerning their work.

The following officers were then elected: Chairman, Dr. Frank B. Hines; vice chairman, Mrs. Clendaniel; secretary, Mrs. A. Parks Rasin; treasurer and chairman of seal sale, Mrs. Mary O. Morris; chairman of nursing committee, Mrs. Thomas Massey; executive committee to be composed of a representative from the different organizations and one from each district in the county.

If the people of Kent county are interested in health work, they can best show it by lending their co-operation.
