Probably some of our young people among them Misses Etta and Gladys Coleman and Grace and Dorothy Bramble, will attend his school in the fall. The Adventist congregation and friends visited the Ferry Park Sunday and enjoyed the bathing and staged some amusing races.

Much Virtue in Silence.

Silence is one of the hardest kinds of argument to refute. There is no good substitute for wisdom; but silence is the best that has yet been discovered.—H. W. Shaw.

With That Proviso.

It gives a man a great deal of happiness to witness the pleasure of others—when his profits amount to at least 10 per cent.

THE TELEPHONE GIRL—Illinois State Journal

Very frequent are the accounts of the heroism of the telephone girl. Her intuition and intelligence have often prevented great losses of life and property. She has remained at her post arousing the sleeping guests of a burning hotel. She has called the police and held at bay bandits in their murderous pursuits. In the category of courage, the telephone girl has won a high place and honor.

Recently a lone woman held vigil in the exchange in Hoopeston. Suddenly two cables snapped out of commission. She knew in an instant that things were not as they should be. On a quiet night whole cables do not act as these had acted. She did not take time to wonder or think it out or to guess. She acted.

She sounded the fire alarm, good and strong. When the rushing citizens poured from their beds they found "yeggs" at work on two banks. The "yeggs" escaped, but they took nothing with them.

Such telephone operators as Mrs. Addie Farrell of Hoopeston are worthy of a place in the community's hall of fame.
