Kent News

SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1924

Kent county was favored on Thursday by a light rain, but it is still dry in most sections.

It doesn't seem to be too hot for politics as all the Presidential candidates are making big preparations for an active canvas.

THE GOVERNOR TO TOUR THE STATE

Democrats are planning a vigorous campaign in all parts of the State, headed by Governor Ritchie, in support of the Davis-Bryan Presidential ticket.

While the drive will not get under way actively until John W. Davis, the Presidential nominee, has mapped out his plan, the preliminary plans already are in preparation.

Governor Ritchie, who was influential in helping swing the national convention to Davis after the deadlock, says he is prepared to make a series of speeches in the State for the ticket. If his services as a campaigner outside the State are required by the National Committee, he will prove a ready volunteer.

Final approval on the State campaign will be given at a meeting of the State Central Committee to be called by J. Enos Ray, Chairman, very soon. At this meeting a candidate to oppose Representative J. Phillip Hill in the Third Congressional district will also be named. The speaking campaign for the national ticket will be combined with for the six seats in Congress.

Fear that La Follette votes in Maryland may swing the State from the Democratic to the Republican column will be reflected in the intensity of the campaign. Democratic leaders have little or no fear that La Follette will carry the State. They figure however, the labor vote, including the railroad workers, in the past has been found more numerously in the Democratic column than in the Republican. A large shift in this vote to La Follette might upset the normal Democratic majority.

MASSEY HUMBLES MILLINGTON

Millington lost another game to Massey last Saturday August 2nd, on Massey's diamond. The Massey boys seem to be back on their batting stride and tapped Davis of Millington for nineteen safeties, three of these going for extra bases. Millington and Massey in their first games split even this putting Massey ahead. Groff was on the mound for Massey and allowed five hits, struck out 11 men and walked 1. Nelson Davis was on the hill for Millington and allowed 19 hits and struck out 4 men. The final score was 10 to 3. Moffett, Massey's short stop, made several spectacular catches during the game. He was a little uncertain during the first part of the season, but now he is back to his old form. He is batting 356.

HIS WAY IS HARD

The way of the editor as well as the transgressor, is hard, says the Preston, Minn., Times. He tries to please—mostly tries. If he writes an article boosting someone, he is considered mushy. If he doesn't he's no help to the town. If he takes a stand on issues, he's a crank. If he doesn't, he hasn't an opinion. If, in writing an obituary, hewrites of the virtues and overlooks the weaknesses of the deceased, he's a humbug. If he doesn't, he has some explaining to do.

If he writes an article boosting someone, he is mercenary. If he doesn't, he is dead. If he's dry, he's a hypocrite. If he's wet, he's a booze-fighter. If he supports the church, it's for business reasons. If he does not, he's an athiest.

If he publishes editorials, he's got the big-head. If he doesn't, he doesn't know enough. If he's rich, he made his money dishonestly. If he's poor, it's because he wasn't business-like. If he's successful, anyone could have done it.

There is no change in the Chestertown postoffice situation. A new location adjoining Voshell House is being considered, but nothing definite has been decided.
