BOLD HORSE THIEVES

Three horses were stolen right out of the pasture field of Mr. Walter Wright on Wednesday night last. He lives on the stone road between Chestertown and Kennedyville and the horses were in a field next to the road. These were all the horses he had on the farm, as he uses a tractor for a great deal of his form work. Two of the horses were gray and the other bay. It was a bright moonlight night and the thieves could see plainly. Sheriff Goodman and other officers are on the case but they have found that a team with two horses behind went through Galena Wednesday night. It is thought they were being taken north to be sold.

FARMERS' PICNIC AT CHESTERTOWN

The annual Farmers' Day picnic and raly was held on the campus of Washington College Thursday, several hundred farmers and their wives enjoyed a most interesting day. One of the leading features of the occasion was a large exhibit of pure bred dairy cattle including some of the best specimens in the State. There were cow judging contests, poultry culling experiments, and demonstrations pertaining to various farm operations.

The addresses in William Smith Hall were made by E. P. Cohill, President of Maryland Farm Bureau, M. M. Stewart, Secretary, Prof. T. B. Symons, Director of Maryland Extension Service, and Mr. Bower, of American Farm Bureau. E. Thomas Massey was chairman of the meeting. Judge Lewin W. Wickes made the address of welcome and William G. Smyth the response.

The Chestertown Band furnished music. In the base ball game Massey defeated Chestertown.

In the Dairy Cattle Judging Contest the winners were: 1st, Norman Pennington; 2nd, Martin Sutton; 3rd, Stanley Sutton.

These winners each received handsome canes, similar to those usually carried by cattle judges.

Wilbur Morris, Jr., received a silver cup, won by him at The State Fair last Fall for being the best Club Swine Showman in the State of Maryland.

Norman Pennington was awarded a Kant Kom Off Blanket for his Club Cow, Bess Clothilde Pontiac Burke whose seven day record of 606 pounds of milk and 26.25 pounds of butter is the State record for her age of any cow any breed at any time in the State.

Franklin Moffett and Stanley B. Sutton were awarded gold pins with the National Boys' and Girls' Club Emblem on them, with a ring of pearls around same, for outstanding leadership and service to Club Work and to Kent County.

The awards were made by County Agent Horace B. Derrick.

The dairy cattle winners will be given next week.

Needles Sold In Kansas City

Chestertown stores are surely advertised both home and abroad. A. L. Sparks, the Chestertown merchant, who sells everything for ladies, received an order this week from a lady in Kansas City, Missouri, for a stock of sewing needles. The lady said after trying to get what she wanted out West she was compelled to send to Chestertown for them. Mr. Sparks filled the order at once and is ready to supply even far off Kansas City ladies everything from sewing needles to ready made dresses.

TOLCHESTER A POPULAR PLACE

Tolchester Beach has had a very successful season considering the late summer. The boats from the city have been well-filled and the country patronage has been very good. Manager Frank Wheatley says he is very much pleased. The behavior has also been very good, though some of the visitors insist upon patronizing the bootleggers and get into trouble thereby.

Father and Son Drowned

A power boat loaded with fruit was at the Chestertown wharf last week. The owner, Capt. Joseph Lawrence sold quite a lot of bananas and watermelons here. He had his 11-year-old son with him on the boat. After leaving Chestertown the fruit boat went on down the Chester river and anchored opposite Queenstown. At this place the son, Baldwin, in running about the deck made a mistep and fell overboard. The father, who was 33 years old was a good swimmer and when he heard the cries of his son at once jumped in the water after him. The boy tried also to swim to his father but the son and father were both drowned.

Capt. Richard McNeal, pilot of the boat, went to the assistance of Lawrence and his son. He saw that he would be unable to save them and swam back to the vessel. Captain McNeal then piloted his vessel to Queenstown and returned with volunteer helpers.

When the vessel reached the scene of the accident an attempt was made to recover the bodies.

Lawrence, who lives at Ferndale, on the Annapolis Boulevard, is survived by a wife and four children, besides Baldwin. Mrs. Lawrence went to Queenstown.

Captain McNeal said that the boat, after loading with watermelons at Queenstown, was about a mile and a half off shore. Baldwin was running about the deck. Suddenly, the captain asserted, the youth lost his footing and fell into the water.

Lawrence, who heard the cries of his son, dived in after him immediately, according to Captain McNeal.

Lawnence, his son and Captain McNeal were the only persons aboard the boat, which was a 50-foot power craft, Captain McNeal said, equipped to accommodate about 30 persons.

The bodies were recovered this week.

Get your ticket for the Chestertown Chautauqua early. They are a smaller price this year than last, but the quality of entertainment has not been lowered. It only means that more tickets will have to be sold by the committee.

Chautauqua Season Tickets Now On Sale

Meeting Tuesday Night In Interest Of Annual Tent Event — Seven Joyous Days This Year—Aug. 30 to September 5th.

A meeting of the guarantors of the Chestertown Chautauqua was held on Tuesday evening in the Kent County Savings Bank. The meeting was called at the instance of Rev. A. H. Covey, president of the local committee, and for the purpose of completing plans for this year's Chautauqua which is to be held August 30 to September 5.

Plans were discussed extensively for the sale of season tickets. It is figured that with the disposition of around 700 tickets, the financial phase of the Chautauqua will be a success. Last year there was a deficit to make up but this is absurd in a town the size of Chestertown. The price of tickets this year will be $2.50 for adult season cards, $2.00 for youths and $1 for juniors. The guarantee to the Swarthmore people is $1800 and incidentals run the amount that must be raised up to $1950.

The sale of tickets, which will be carried on systematically by the team method—will start at once.

Officers for the Chestertown Chautauqua are: President, A. Howard Covey; secretary, R. H. Collins, Jr.; treasurer, Harry C. Coleman; publicity, J. N. Wheatley; hospitality, Dr. H. B. Simmons; chairman of the ticket committee, for ladies, Mrs. Don Falls; for men, H. F. Jefferson.

There are one hundred guarantors for Chestertown. See elsewhere for the fine program.

The Chautauqua will be held on same lot as last year.

FIRE COMPANY DRIVE

$5,000 must be raised for the Fire Company by September 6th. Entirely aside from others who may, and will, be interested the major part of this fund should come from those whose lives and property are naturally expected to be protected by the specific equipment supplied by this money. And this applies not only to Chestertown but to every part and section of Kent and the outlying districts nearby. Neither the town nor the county supports officially a fire equipment. If we expect protection we must, for the present, pay for it as individuals. To that end we have assigned a definite quota to each section outlined and this quota in each case is reduced to such a minimum as to give no excuse for each district not realizing it and, it is hoped, shooting over the mark. Therefore we ask that each chairman and his co-workers see to it that the quota for their respective district be raised on time.

On Saturday, August, 23, the famous team of baseball aviators from the Aberdeen Proving Grounds will play a picked all-county team from Kent at Washington Field. Both above mentioned games will be played in the afternoon. The aviators will fly to Chestertown and the planes will be on exibition.
