A number of hand line fishermen have been enjoying the sport on the Chester river this week. Capt. Claude Truslow took a party from Chestertown for two days on his fast, luxurious speed boat "Peggy" and caught few fish, but had a fine time. Capt. Walter B. Strong and Edmund Pennington also enjoyed the sport this week with fair luck.

DEATHS

Thomas W. Toulson died on Thursday last. He was 80 years of age, was born in Kent and lived here all his life. He has been one of Kent's best known and estimable citizens. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Virginia Toulson and four sons, Thomas S., Wm. H., Edward and Harry M. The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. from his late home in Quaker Neck. Interment at Chester Cemetery. Revs. McClintock and A. H. Covey will officiate. C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers will be his four sons, M. A. Toulson and Walter Bramble.

Funeral services for Mrs. Harry P. Skipper, 1626 Linden avenue, who died suddenly Friday at Johns Hopkins Hospital, was held at 3.30 p. m. August 10th, at her home. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Dr. G. W. Haddaway, pastor of Starr M. P. Church; interment took place at Chester Cemetery, Chestertown, at 11 a. m. August 11. Mrs. Skipper and her family moved to Baltimore several years ago from Chestertown where they had lived at Primrose Manor, the family estate. She is survived by her husband, Harry P. Skipper, and five children, Mrs. Julio Del Toro, of Ann Harbor, Mich., the wife of Prof. Del Toro, of the University of Michigan; Miss Martha A. Skipper, Miss Alice H. Skipper, Miss Sarah E. Skipper, and Arthur B. Skipper. Mrs. Skipper had a host of friends in this vicinity. She was loyal and true to all who knew her. A wonderful and devoted mother.

The funeral services at the grave were conducted by Rev. A. H. Covey; the bearers being M. A. Toulson, Dr. J. R. Micou, Dr. J. S. W. Jones, W. B. Usilton, W. I. Walker and H. B. Rote; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Julia C. Malone, beloved wife of Wm. H. Malone, died suddenly at the Maryland General Hospital with complicated diseases Wednesday, July 23rd, age 27 years. She is survived by one child two years old, Francis. She also leaves a mother, Dora E. Fields, and a sister and brother, Mrs. Walter H. Warren, of Owings Mills, Md., and Walter H. Fields, of Bivalvue, Wicomico county. Funeral services were held from her late home on Friday at 11 o'clock, Rev. Shreves officiating; interment in Mt. Olive Cemetery; Wm. P. Cook, undertaker.

Austin Ford and Miss Geyer, of Philadelphia, have been recent guests at Crumpton M. P. parsonage.

Howard McGinniss, of McGinniss Corner, Queen Anne's has been quite sick the past week.

The Double Creek M. E. Church held their picnic at Tolchester on Tuesday.

Rev. Mr. Gardner, of Crumpton M. E. Church, is at Lewis, Del., for two weeks.

An increase in fire insurance rates in Maryland is held out as a possibility as a result of the report of Charles H. Roloson, Jr., chairman of the Fire Prevention Committee of the Maryland Association of Insurance Agents. He finds for a period of years down to and including 1923 Maryland has had a larger loss ratio than any State. Mr. Roloson and members of his organization in all parts of the State, especially in those sections where there is little modern fire-fighting equipment, hope to arouse the public to the need for better organization and equipment.
