EASTON'S BASE BALL CLUB

Easton claims that her people have given the home team better support than any other team in the league. The total receipts, after deducting all war tax, have been $7,241.86, and an attendance of 20,070. It shows about 5,000 more spectators paid admission than in any other town Easton has played in. Easton has paid to other teams $2,783.61 and has received but $1,935.08 from other teams. Easton is unquestionably a good base ball town and she has done this with a losing team. If Easton had been at the top, the attendance would have been considerably increased. Kent countians have patronized the games at Easton very well.

EASTERN SHORE COUNCIL BEGINS SECOND YEAR

The Eastern Shore Council, Boy Scouts of America, was organized a year ago. At that time seven counties, Kent, Queen Anne, Caroline, Wicomico, Somerset and Worcester joined their efforts, engaged Mr. Wm. Goldsborough Bradford as Executive Officer and were chartered by the National Organization which in turn is chartered by Congress. In this organization Mr. W. B. Copper became the representative of Kent County on the Executive Board, heading the Civic Service Committee. The County Committee, under the leadership of Harry Jefferson, Richard Collins, Chas. F. Wheatley and Mr. Copper raised Kent County's quota and Mr. Bradford soon succeeded in organizing a troop in Chestertown. This troop, under the splendid leadership of J. Thomas Kibler as Scout Master is one of the finest troops on the Eastern Shore. Troops are also organized in Kennedyville, Millington, Betterton, Still Pond and Rock Hall.

During the year, the Council raised and used $4500 in promotion and extension work, keeping Mr. Bradford in the Field serving the troops as organized.

Thirty troops with over 600 scouts have committed themselves to the Scout Oath:

"On my Honor, I will do my best."

1. To do my duty to God and my County and obey he Scout law.
2. To help other people at all times.
3. To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight."

Their motto is "Be Prepared" and their slogan, "Do a good turn daily."

Rallies have been held in Crisfield, Salisbury, Federalsburg, Easton, Centreville and Chestertown.

The Scouts have cooperated with the Red Cross, Japanese Relief, Near East Relief and assisted in the Washington College Drive.

A good start has been made and now the Council are raising their funds for their second year. Six thousand dollars is the objective for the entire Shore and six hundred is Kent Counties share in this great work. The local committee is being assisted by Major R. F. Seymour, Regional Executive from Philadelphia, who spoke last evening at the conclusion of the meeting of the Chautauqua guarantors. Major Seymour, it will be remembered, visited us last April and attended the Big Rally at the College gymnasium, where he spoke to the Scouts and their friends.

The following is the local committee for Kent county: H. F. Jefferson, Richard Collins, C. F. Wheatley, W. B. Copper, W. R. Huey, Allan A. Harris, Wm. F. Russell, P. M. Brooks, Harry. W. Fallowfield, H. T. Hartman, H. H. Hartman, Wm. B. Usilton, J. Thomas Kibler; H. Stockton Startt, St.James; Howard Owens, Betterton; E. Thos. Massey, Massey; Leonard Wilson, Millington; Mrs. Lecates, Galena; Mrs. A. V. Crewe, Kennedyville.
