KENT COUNTY OFFICIAL STILL ACTIVE AT 92

William Ford, the superintendent of the Kent County Almshouse, is probably the oldest county official in the State. Mr. Ford observed the 93rd anniversary of his birth recently and he is in possession of all of his faculties, and is engaged in the active management of the institution, doing light chores about the place every day. Mr. Ford was born October 2, 1831, and for many years pior to his connection with the county home, he was one of the county's most prominent farmers. He was elected president of the Board of Trustees of the home in 1879 and for twenty-five years scarcely missed attending a meeting. He has been superintendent of the home for the past twenty-four years, so that he has served nearly fifty years of his life as a county official. He enjoys excellent health, his step is quick, and his mental faculties are as keen as a man of fifty years. He has a remarkable memory and delights in relating incidents concerning the early life and history of the town and county. Mr. Ford carries an old haycopper in his pocket, bearing the date of the year of his birth and whenever any one askes him his age, he pulls out the old hay copper and says—"There it is." His daughter, Miss Sue B. Ford, assists her father in the management of the institution, which is a model of cleanliness. He came to Chestertown last Friday night to enjoy Hallowe'en.

FIRST GRADUATE MANAGER FOR WASHINGTON COLLEGE

Prof. William R. Howell, M. A., B. D., has been appointed graduate manager of athletics of Washington College by the board of visitors and governors. This action marks a new era in Washington College athletics, for it is the first time in the history of the college that athletics are placed under the supervision of one head.

The student athletic asscciation, at a meeting, voted unanimously in favor of Professor Howell for the position. Professor Howell has been associated with the college athletics since coming to Washington, and always has been an ardent supporter of the teams.

The change in the supervision of sports will not affect the under graduate manager system in the least. The usual elections will be held as prescribed in the student council rules, under which the college is run. Professor Howell will handle the business end of athletics and also will help in scheduling the games for the year.

There will be a Tuberculosis Clinic for known tuberculosis cases, contacts and suspects in Health Center, Chestertown, Monday, November 10, 1924, at 10.30 a. m.

YEARS only make possible the true prospective of civilization's progress. As yet we are unable to know the importance of that memorable day in 1918, when guns were stilled and a world rejoiced in a signed armistice. We do know, however, that the great conflict was not in vain—that a more intelligent world was taught anew the utter uselessness of war——and progress, to this extent, was achieved. * * The blood of our sons was the price paid. This year—or any year—we cannot fail to bow in sacred reverence to the living and dead who gave their all in that great war that right might triumph and prevail.

Autumn Days at Washington

The Hall Mark of Service

The Heart of the Nation
An Ideal Autumn Pleasure Trip

Visit Washington, the Capital of the Nation, "A City Beautiful" and a dominant centre of interest. Its educational value is incalculable. Its attractions supreme.

See the Capital, magnificent Library of Congress, the halls of legislation, Washington Monument, White House, art galleries and museums, all attractive features of "The City of Magnificent Distances," and enjoy a trip to nearby picturesque Mount Vernon, the burial place of Washington, a shrine to which pilgrims from all parts of the world pay tribute.

The chaste and impressive Lincoln Memorial and the splendid marble amphitheatre, in Arlington Cemetery, on the brow of the hill across the Potomac, are recent additions to Washington's attractions well worthy of a special visit.

WASHINGTON IS DELIGHTFUL IN AUTUMN

Attractive at all times, the nation's capital is specially inviting, with its squares and beautiful avenues, in the autumn days of the year, the best season for an enjoyable pleasure trip or brief vacation.

The Pennsylvania Railroad is the recognized national highway to the national capital.

PRACTICAL NURSE ADDS TESTIMONY

Mrs. Crail Says Tanlac Is Without An Equal.

Mrs. Hattie Crail, a highly successful and popular practical nurse, 32nd and Douglas Sts., Des Moines, Iowa, is another among the many of her admirable profession to endorse the Tanlac treatment.

"Following a period of severe nervous prostration two years ago," declared Mrs. Crail recently, "I was so weak, restless and uncertain of myself that I scarcely dared go on the street alone. I suffered from violent headaches and dizzy spells, and again from a condition of extreme drowsiness. For a time I was compelled to give up my work.

"But with Tanlac my recovery was surprisingly rapid, and soon my nerves were entirely normal, the pains left my head, my appetite and digestion became perfect and I was strong enough to resume my work of nursing. In short, Tanlac built me up so I have enjoyed sound health ever since."

Tanlac sisold by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills recommended by the manufactures of Tanlac.
