$1500 AGAINST HUBER CO.

A jury in the Queen Anne's County Circuit Court Wednesday returned a verdict awarding $1500 damages to Mrs. Evely Kelly, of near Elkton, against the Huber Baking Company of Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Kelly charged that she was injured when a truck owned by the baking company collided with her automobile four years ago. She brought suit in the Caroline county courts for $75,000 damages, and a year ago, a jury found for the defendants. An appeal was taken and the case was ordered retired.

The case was taken up on Monday. There was an imposing array of legal talent engaged, fifteen attorneys taking part in the trial.

KILLED 24 RABBITS

The gunning season is on and sportsmen are having fine times. A party headed by Henry Gill bagged 24 rabbits on Tuesday, another party got 14, Phil Kratzer's party got 8, etc. There seems to be a fair amount of rabbits and plenty of birds. The duckers have had fine sport, one club killing 80 on Monday.

HALLOWEEN PARTY AT CHURCH HILL

Church Hill did itself proud Friday evening when the annual Hallowe'en celebration was held at Guest's Opera House, and perhaps one of the largest crowds that ever attended an affair of this kind in the county was present.

Prizes were offered by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Good, of Church Hill, for the most comical and original costumes for grown ups, and also for children.

Harry E. Walls, popular Church Hill merchant attired as a colored man and riding a donkey represented Purina Chick Feed and brought down the house with his funny antics. He was awarded the prize for the most comical attire. Miss Mary Coppage representing a straw vote was awerded the prize for the most original costume. Her dress was of straw and her large farmer's hat added to the attractiveness. Across the front of her gown were the pictures of Davis, Coolidge and LaFollette, and below was a large question mark. The children's prizes were captured by Miss Edith Skinner, depicting the five and ten cent store, for the most original and Masters Rochester and Thomas Richards who were attired as a colored boy and girl, for the most comical.

Others especially attractive costumes that caused a considerable amount of favorable comment were Miss Lillian Rochester, who in a charming gown fashioned from the daily editions of the Baltimore Sun, was "The Baltimore Sun Lady." Mrs. Clay Coppage and Mrs. Ida MacDonald, represented a lady and gentleman of 50 years ago, and were charming with their old fashioned manners and dress.

One of the most unique costumes was that of Henry C. Bowen, who depicted the Tea Pot Dome Scandal. His headdress was an immense tea pot, and in his hand he carried a huge oil can. His costume bore placards that were familiar to all during the days of this famous affair.

Miss Christine Catlin, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Catlin, was particularly charming as an ear of corn, representing the trade mark of Mazola Oil. Her gown of green, with the yellow grains of corn peeping out the top was not only unique but pretty.

Mrs. Archie Fields was a splendid impersonation of a Jewish shoe-string salesman, and her daughter, Miss Laura Fields, was an ardent democrat, and by her costume which was made up of signs "Vote For Davis," was very attractive. There were also many others that were worthy of special mention, and showed much effort in preparing their costumes.

The affair was given for the purpose of raising funds to assist with the electric light fund, and was a splendid success. The prizes for grown ups were $5 in gold, and for children were $2.50, and were contributed by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Good. Refreshments of sandwiches, coffee, pie, milk and crullers were sold.

WEDDING NOTES

Miss Helen Stack, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Stack, and Edgar Rogers, both of Crumpton, were married at Elkton, Monday, November 3rd. The bride is a graduate of Sudlersville High School, class '24. They will reside in Elkton.

Mr. and Mrs. Zadoc R. Collins, of Centreville, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mildred, to Claude Everett Truslow, of Chestertown. The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon, Nov. 22nd, at 4 o'clock, at St. Paul's P. E. Church, Centreville. Miss Collins, is one of Centreville's most popular and attractive young women. Mr. Truslow is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Truslow, of Chestertown, and is junior member of the firm of W. H. Truslow & Son.

St. James Methodist Protestant Church was the scene last Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock of one of the prettiest weddings of the year when Miss Eunice Cornelia Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Morris, was married to George E. Cornell, Jr., by their former pastor, Rev. Avery Donovan.

The pretty church was very attractively decorated with chrysanthemums and autumn leaves and the bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Miss Anna Parsons. Frank Mason, cousin of the groom, sang "O, Promise Me." The bride was given in marriage by her father, Wilbur H. Morris.

She was charmingly gowned in Madelon Rose over rose chiffon trimmed with steel cut beads and wore a black picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of Bride's Roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was pearls.

Mrs. Elmer Richardson, of Baltimore, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a gown of crushed strawberry trimmed with steel cut beads and carried orchid chrysanthemums.

Albert Robinson, of Washington, D. C., was best man and the ushers were Harry H. Morris, brother of the bride, Irving Cornell, brother of the groom, T. Albert Newton, of Kennedyville, and Wright Robinson, of Templeville.

After the wedding a reception for the immediate families was held at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Cornell, Jr., left amid showers of rice and good wishes for a motor trip in the West. Her going away gown was of dark blue charmeen and wore a darn blue hat and veil.

Mrs. Cornell for the last several years has been an efficient assistant book-keeper in The Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome and valuable gifts which included cut glass, silver, gold, money, electric floor lamps, boudoir lamps, Green Mountain potatoes, apples, linen and many other useful gifts.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Avery Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason, Mr. and Mrs. T. Mason and son, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Mitchell and son, of Delaware; Mr. Albert Robinson, Ray Robinson, of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Grover Moore, Elmore Skirven, Mrs. G.Amos Wickes, Miss Margaret Wickes, Gardner Wickes, Mrs. Milton Sorden, Mrs. E. L. Richardson and Miss Margaret Ann Richardson, of Baltimore.

L. A. Pennington, of Kennedyville, announces the wedding of his daughter, Mary Katherine, to Herbert Francis Ward, Jr., at Ashland, Mass., on Saturday, November 8, 1924.

The wedding of Miss Helen Quillen to Harry D. Wyle, Jr., will take place Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents at 527 N. Clayton street, Wilmington. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Wyle, of Wilmington, and is well known here being a frequent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Barnes.

Wm. Leslie Crew, of Betterton, and Anna E. Alderson, of Cecilton, were granted a marriage license in Elkton Saturday.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our thanks to our many friends for their sympathy and condolences during our recent bereavement. MRS. ADA E. JONES, W. ELI ELLIOTT. 1t

CARD OF THANKS

We take this method of thanking our many friends for consoling words and kindness shown us during the sad hours of the death of our Dear Father and Husband, we especially wish to thank Rev. Mr. Sard, Dr. Simmons, Mr. Dodd, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. White and those who gave flowers and furnished cars. May God's richest blessings be bestowed on each and every one. MRS. JAMES A. TUCKER AND FAMILY. 1t

SHOOTS SELF IN FOOT

The first gunning accident of the season in Kent county happened on Tuesday when Thomas Taylor, son of the late Harry E. Taylor, former county treasurer, shot himself thru the foot while out hunting rabbits, near his home in Worton. It is reported that young Taylor rested the barrel of the gun on his foot, and in some unknown manner the gun was discharged, inflicting a serious wund.

EDNA HAL HAD GREAT RECORD

Edna Hal, owned by Capt. W. C. A. Thompson, arrived home last week after an unprecedented season for a Kent horse. She is by Harold B. and dam, Lady Thompson, whose sire was John B. 2.17¼, he by Bedworth, Jr., 2.06½. Last year this mare bruised her knee and was not put in training. Early this spring Wm. Watkins, of Cambridge, took her and with one of his own raising trained them together. The first start in a money race was at Cambridge on August 3, in the County Race and won second money; the injury to knee disappeared and she started August 20, at Pocomoke in 2.30 pace and won first in 2.17¼; started the next day, August 21, in 2.22 pace and won first in 2.17; started August 27 at Salisbury in 2.22 pace and won first in 2.16¼; started the next day, August 27, in 2.30 pace and won first in 2.17¼. This horse started five times in three weeks, winning four first moneys and one second money. Her secord for the season was remarkable. She started in 10 races. Won 7 first, 2 second and one third. She is six years old and has a mark of 2.16¼.

WELL-KNOWN MEN NAMED CONSULS

Two Baltimoreans, well-known in Kent, were among the few who passed the recent examinations held by the Department of State for appointment as vice-consuls of the United States. They are Clarence Warwick Perkins, Jr., and Edwin Schoenrich.

Both Mr. Perkins and Mr. Schoenrich have received their appointments in the foreign service. They now are taking a course of intensive training at Washington, preparatory to leaving for their statoins. Out of the 135 applicants to take the examination, 20 passed, Mr. Perkins making the second highest grade.

Mr. Schoenrich is the son of Professor and Mrs. Carl Otto Schoenrich and a brother of Dr. Herbert Schoenrich, also of Baltimore, and Judge Otto Schoenrich, of New York. He is a graduate of Baltimore City College, Washington College, and received a degree at Georgetown University. He later was principal of a high school at Porto Rico, professor at the Havana branch of Boston University, and lately has been connected with the United States Tariff Commission as a special expert.

Mr. Perkins, son of former State Senator and Mrs. Clarence W. Perkins, also is a graduate of Baltimore City College. Leaving City College in 1917, he entered John Hopkins University, where he received his degree in 1921. Since then he has been connected with the reportorial staff of the Baltimore News.

Following his appointment Mr.Perkins was married Tuesday in Washington to Miss Esther Mary Shaw. The bride is the daughter of Col. George C. Shaw, U. S. A., stationed at Washington. The ceremony, performed at St. John's P. E. Church, was followed by a reception at the Washington Club. Relatives and friends of the bridegroom made the trip from Baltimore to Washington for the ceremony.

Mr. Schoenrich has been appointed vice-consul at Valparaiso, Chili, and will sail from New York Thanksgiving Day. Mr. Perkins, who will be stationed at Vienna, Austria, will sail from New York, accompanied by his wife, November 27.

The big home game of foot ball at Washington College will take place today. Western Maryland College will be the opponents. Prospects are for a hot contest. Game called at 2.30 p. m.

Chestertown Council No. 177 Jr. O. U. A. M. will hold a special meeting on Thursday, November 20th, at 7.30 p. m. to receive a visit from the State Councilor of Maryland and other State officers. All members are urged to come out and welcome these visitors.
