BANKERT NAMED COURT CAPTAIN

John C. Bankert was elected captain of the Washington College basketball team at a meeting of the players. The new pilot is a center, and played as first-string substitute last season. He has been under the direction of Coach Tom Kibler for three years.

Four veterans from last year's team besides Bankert will play again this season. Carroll, Dumschott, Fiore and McGrann are the regulars who will perform on the court for Washington again.

Bankert is expected to fit in well with the four veteran regulars. He is six feet two inches in height, and weighs 165 pounds.

Manager Luther A. Cooper has not quite completed his schedule, but when the list of engagements is made public there will be many new colleges booked. Among the newcomers will be the University of Maryland, Duquesne, Villanove and St. Francis. The other usual games with State colleges will be scheduled again, and the court campaign promises to be a trying one for the Washington team.

ESSAY CONTEST CLOSES.

The Farm Bureau Essay Contest which was inauguarted about six weeks ago under the auspices of the American Farm Bureau Federation and supported by the State and county organizations, came to an official close on Monday, November 10, after an intensely interesting and instructive campaign. Between 600 and 700 boys and girls of the rural sections of the State participated in the contest, writing essays on "Why Dad Should Join the Farm Bureau."

As near as can be calculated at this time, the standing of the 10 counties which were officially entered in the contest, is as follows: Worcester county leads with a total of 121 entries; Baltimore county, second with 114; Prince Georges, with 80; Harford, with 77; Caroline, with 40; the others in order are: Calvert, 23; Anne Arundel, 22; Howard, 17; Dorchester, 14, and Talbot 1.

This makes a grand total of 509 contestants but it is the impression of the knowing ones that the ultimate total will reach well above the 600 mark. In the number of contestants, Maryland stands fourth in the country and Worcester county, fourth in the counties of the country.

Members of Glyndon Farm Bureau Local, Baltimore county, who went into the wool pool, having their product converted into blankets instead of selling on the open market, are now getting $12 for these blankets, netting the producers 78 cents per pound for their wool as against 45 or 50 cents on the open market. These blankets, the members claim, are equal and in some cases superior to those retailing in the stores for from $18 to $22.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE DEFEATS MT. ST. MARY'S

Washington College was returned victor over Mount St. Mary's for the first time in four years, winning by a score of 25 to 0 last Saturday. The game was a ragged affair, marred by frequent misplays on the part of both elevens. The Mountaineers, however, were outplayed in all departments of the game.

The Chestertown lads scored in the initial period when a delayed cross buck brought the ball to the Mountaineer's five-yard line, from where the ball was carried over by Kavanaught on the fourth plunge. In next period Kavanaugh placed two pretty dropkicks between the posts for six more points. With the score 25 to 0 against them, the Mountaineers opened a plucky aerial attack the closing minutes of the game and carried the ball 80 yards to the Washington one-yard line, when time was called. Coach Kibler used most of his second string men in the last quarter which accounts for St. Mary's gains in last part of the game.

CHESTERTOWN TEAM WINS

Soccer players from Chestertown High School, Kent county champions and from Sudlersville High School, pennant winners of Queen Anne's county, met Friday afternoon on Centreville Athletic Field for the first of the State soccer loop elimination contests. Chestertown emerged from the fray victors with a 3 to 2 score. Two of their points were won by field goals and the other on a penalty kick. Joe Russell, left half-back, kicked the penalty goal, and the field goals were made by James Chapman and Calvin Price.

OLD KENT CHAPTER D. A. R.

An enthusiastic meeting of Old Kent Chapter, D. A. R., was held Saturday at the home of the Regent, Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth, the occasion being the annual visit of the Capt. Jeremiah Baker Chapter, of Cecil county with Mrs. H. Benge Simmons as the Regent.

The guests of honor were, Mrs. David M. Garrison, of Annapolis, State Regent, Mrs. Matthew Gault, of the Mordecia Gist Chapter, of Baltimore, Mrs. H. H. Kleinefelter, of the John Eager Howard Chapter, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Levi Clough, of the Samuel Turbitt Wright Chapter of Queen Anne County.

Mrs. Smyth of Old Kent presided and made an address of welcome. Responses were made by Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Klinefelter and Mrs. Geo. W. Davenport, of Easton, for Old Kent.

Mrs. Garrison and Mrs. Gault spoke in explanation of the State Program of work, and Miss Sarah E. Stuart, State Chairman, of Phillippine Scholarship Endowment Fund, made an appeal to the six chapters represented.

Luncheon was served to about forty guests and members.

ANNUAL MEETING IN PHILADELPHIA

The Philadelphia Chapter of the Washington College Alumni Association held its annual meeting in the Meridian Club, Philadelphia, on Friday evening, November 7th. Owing to other engagements and demands, comparatively few of the members could be present. A bountiful dinner was enjoyed, presided over by the retiring president, Simeon Van T. Jester. Among those who attended were William J. and William E. Bratten, Mr. and Mrs. Jester, Harry Pringle Ford, Mrs. Lillian B. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph F. Tull, Mrs. Reba S. Jenkinson, Miss Ruth Clauson, Dr. Mary Burchinal, Miss A. Virginia Reich and John S. E. Pardee. Dr. Burchinal, who is a member of the College Board of Directors, gave an illuminating address on the present financial condition of the college and its educational system. An interesting informal discussion followed. Many expressions of appreciation were heard relative to the fine victories of this year's college football team over Pennsylvania Military College and Haverford College. At the election of officers, Dr. Mary Burchinal was chosen president; Rudolph F. Tull, vice president; Miss A. Virginia Reich, secretary, and Miss Maude O. Hickman, treasurer.
