Kent News

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1924

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, died Monday. He has had a great career.

The November number of the Transmitter, the trade publication of the C. and P. Telephone Company, just received devoted pages to the Eastern Shore. Many beautiful illustrations embellish the sketch and there are references to the various counties and towns that have historical or other interest. Its reference to Kent and Chestertown is limited.

What is a good Democrat? Somebody asked this question during the campaign. Here's our idea of the answer: A man who believes in the fundamental principles of the party; is always willing to lend his enthusiastic support in their behalf; encourages the candidates of Democracy by his willingness and zeal; works hard to win and is a good sport when he loses. A man who was sorry as thunder when Davis was defeated; but will work cheerfully and honestly to help support President Coolidge in his efforts to give the country an administration that will promote happiness, insure peace and restore genuine prosperity to the land. Our idea of a real good Democrat is Hon. John W. Davis. He took a terrific trouncing nobly; was among the first to congratulate the winner, and voiced the manly sentiment that he hoped the president's next four years would be brimful of personal happiness and success.—Cent. Observer.

SACRIFICE BRINGS REWARD

In a recent news item a very pretty story is told of the late Miss Virginia Lehman, of New York, who left the bulk of her million dollar estate to a niece, Miss Gladys Stevenson, aged 19 years.

The young girl had been very devoted to the spinister aunt, with whom she had lived for several years and who said in her will:

"She has sacrificed many of the pleasures young people enjoy to be with me. She brings sunshine and happiness into my life."

While kindness does not always bring such material rewards, it is seldom wasted, and it never fails to bring satisfaction to those who practice it.

AMENDMENT FOR BONUS CARRIED

Kent county ex-service men and State officials of the American Legion expresses satisfaction at the voter's approval of the amendment which paves the way for enactment of a bill for a State bonus for ex-service men of the World War.

It was pointed out, however, that the necessary legislation cannot be passed before 1927, when the next Legislature meets.

The Legion, which has sponsored the State bonus from the beginning, will continue its fight for the measure it was said. The next convention of the organization is expected to appoint a special committee to handle the matter.

The vote in Maryland on the bonus amendment was as follows:

For 80,313
Against 40,309

WHO ARE THE FARMERS' FRIENDS?

There are a lot of farmers—and by the way, a good many not farmers—who habitually "order" what they need. One man in this town, who makes his living exclusively off the people who make their money here was actually contemplating ordering the lumber for a house from a mail order concern a thousand miles away. The poor fish thought he could save money after paying freight on stuff that he could buy right here at a mill.

Now we are going to put it squarely up to these folks.

We will admit that there are somethings in stock in Chestertown and which, if in a hurry, must be bought elsewhere. But—

When crops fail, who will give credit for supplies to make this year's crop. Will Sears & Robuck or Montgomery & Ward?

Did you have any idea these mail order concerns would loan you money to carry you over? You know they wouldn't.

Who pays the taxes that furnishes public schools for your children? Foreign mail order concerns or the people who live in Kent county and the State of Maryland?

Who chips in with money to bury a poor person or to replace a house burned in the country.

Who buy your fruit, eggs, butter, vegetables, crops and other stuff? The mail order house or the local merchant?

What would your land be worth if there was no Chestertown with its railroads and good roads?

Come clean, now. Don't you feel sneaky selling your stuff to Kent county merchants and then mailing a money order to some mail order house?

Next week is known as Education Week. Each day is set apart as a special day such as Constitution Day, Patriotism Day, etc. Sunday is known as "For God and Country Day. Daniel Webster says, "If we work upon marble, it will perish; if we work upon brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal souls, if we imbue them with principles, with the fear of God and love of fellow men, we engrave on those tables something which brightens all eternity."

The home, the school, the church, the state, the nation, each has its duty towards the child. If the little ones are neglected at any time the whole nation is responsible.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

President Coolidge has issued the Thanksgiving Day proclamation setting aside Thursday, November 27, as a day for "National Thanksgiving." The proclamation read:

"The year has been marked by a continuation of peace whereby our country has entered into a relationship of better understanding with all the other nations of the earth. Ways have been revealed to us by which we could perform very great service through the giving of friendly counsel, through the extension of financial assistance and true exercise of a spirit of neighborly friendliness to less favored peoples. We should give thanks for the power which has been given into our keeping, with which we have been able to render these services to the rest of mankind.

"At home we have continually had an abundant state of public wealth.

"The production of our industries has been large and our harvests have been bountiful. We have been remarkably successful in all those pursuits which flourish during a state of domestic peace. An abundant prosperity has overspread the land. We shall do well to accept all these favors and bounties with a becoming humility, and dedicate them to the service of the righteous cause of the giver of all good and perfect gifts. As the nation has prospered, let all the people show that they are worthy to prosper, by rededicating America to the service of God and mankind."

COOLIDGE BINDS SELF TO SERVICE OF WHOLE NATION

This is President Coolidge's message of gratitude to the people of the United States:

"It does not seem possible to me to make an adequate expression concerning the Presidency of the United States. No other honor equals this, no other responsibility approaches this. When it is conferred by an overwhelming choice of the people and vote of the Electoral College, these are made all the greater. I can only express my simple thanks to all those who have contributed to this result and plainly acknowledge that it has been brought to pass through the work of a Divine Providence, of which I am but one instrument.

"Such powers as I have I dedicate to the service of all my countrymen."

In the trial of Representative John Phillip Hill, in United States Court in Baltimore for alleged violations of the Volstead act Judge Morris A. Soper ruled that the "one-half of one per cent," clause in the Volstead act does not apply to beverages made in the home for home consumption.

Judge Soper said:

"Congress seems to have used the word "non-intoxicating" differently in one section than that it did in another. To my mind Congress plainly intended that persons manufacturing cider and wine exclusively for use in their homes should be i na class by themselves or otherwise there is no apparent need for this section (Section 29.)

"The only reasonable explanation for Congress signaling out homemade cider and winemakers is that Congress did not intend to punish men for such manufacture unless the beverage is intoxicating in fact.
