LOCAL NOTES - - -

Prospects are good for fine prices for Thanksgiving turkeys.

Mrs. Florence Christopher has been appointed teacher of the public school at Corey's Corner, near Fairlee, and has entered upon her duties.

Dr. M. E. Parsons has rented the S. P. Townshend offices and will remove his denistry parlors there as soon as possible.

The roof on the boiler house of the New York Canning Company located at Barnard's Wharf, near Betterton, was burned Thursday morning. The Chestertown Fire Company went to the scene but the fire was out before they arrived. They made the run in nineteen minutes.

Former Sheriff Hadaway sold Saturday morning, the residence property on Cannon street belonging to Mrs. Sarah Pfeffer to Capt. T. H. Pfeffer for $2,500 and another property on High street extended consisting of a dwelling and lot of land to Capt. Pfeffer for $1,000. This sale clears this property of all encumbrances.

Early on Wednesday morning fire destroyed the warehouse of the Kauffman Construction Company, on First street, in Denton, together with several trucks, two tractors and a lot of tools. The flames are supposed to have started from a lighted match thrown down by some one taking gasoline. A garage adjoining, belonging to J. Virgil Moore, was also destroyed, with three used automobiles. The loss runs well into the thousands, with no insurance on any of the property. The fire was under full headway when discovered, and the fire company did well to keep the flames away from adjacent buildings. Mr. Kauffman is well-known in Kent having had several pieces of road to build.

The County Board of Education has established a number of transportation routes throughout the county for carrying the high and elementary school pupils to the high school centers and has awarded contracts as follows: Sassafras to Galena High School via Massey, to Raymond R. Ringgold for $800 per annum; Locust Grove to Galena High School to S. Hill Beaston at $270 per annum; Worton to Chestertown High School to Herbert M. Matthews at $585 per annum; Walter Wright's gate to Chestertown elementary school to H. A. Hammer at $432 per annum. One other route is to be operated from Piney Neck to Rock Hall High School

Mrs. Sarah Buckworth tripped over a rope with which a dog was tied on the porch at her home at Warwick, on Tuesday, and fell, breaking one of her hip bones. Her condition is reported serious.

Claude D. Lee at Easton has a radio set that tuned in on London, England, last week. It is considered a most unusual one, so much that a Baltimore man has offered, and Mr. Lee accepted, $100 for permission to photograph the aerial used.

What is believed to have been the biggest yield of tomatoes in Queen Anne's county during the last season was grown by John E. Weist on the farm of Joseph M. George, near Sudlersville. Mr. Weist received $1,984.-50 for the crop produced on a tract containing between 12 and 13 acres.

A Ford sedan driven by George McCabe, colored, of Elkton, dropped into the Chesapeake and Delamare Canal at Chesapeake City last Tuesday evening. In the machine at the time with McCabe were a man and woman, both colored. They managed to break the glass on the machine and all were rescued by government employes. McCabe is alleged to have been intoxicated at the time he ran the machine over a steep embankment. A warrant has been issued for the driver, who has disappeared.

Armistice Day was fittingly observed in Chestertown by the closing of banks and public offices and by the decoration of the homes and business places with American flags. The Frank M. Jarman Post of the American Legion held a demonstration in the public square. Dr. Paul Emerson Titsworth, President of Washington College, delivered a patriotic address which was enjoyed by the Boy Scouts, Sheen's Cavalry, a few of the Legion and a number of citizens.. The Legion placed wreaths and flowers on the graves of the soldiers who died in the late war.

Sheen's Cavalry is improving. Each time they make their public appearance they show results of training.

—Mr. Wm. A. Burk was the recepient of the handsome hand-embroidered table cover donated by Mrs. John S. Vandegrift to the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. The sum received for the cover amounted to $30 which will be applied on the purchase of the new county-wide fire truck. The fire company will greatly appreciate any article that the public may desire to donate, which they will sell to raise funds for this campaign.

TELEPHONE DIRECTORY ALMOST HALL OF FAME

Adam, Caesar And Many Other Immortals On List Of New York Subscribers.

Adam never had a telephone, but his name is listed in the New York City telephone directory just the same So are the names of Moses, Homer, Alexander, Caesar, Cicero and many others famous in various fields of human endeavor.

Nomenclature is a fascinating study, and New York's telephone book, with its list of 765,000 names, is a fertile field for investigation. Here will be found not only the surnames of Byron, Shelley and Keats, but also those of Pope, Burns, Scott, Carlyle, Macauley, Tennyson, Poe and Stevenson. Other distinguished characters whose names appear among the New York telephone subscribers are Columbus, Cromwell and Napoleon—indeed, the list might be extended almost indefinitely.

While New York has more telephone subscribers than any other city in the world, it has by no means a monopoly on famous names; and an interesting hour can be spent in seeing how many well-known characters in history or fiction have namesakes in the telephone directory of one's own home town.

PASSES MILLION MARK

The millionth telephone owned and operated by the Illinois Bell Telephone Company, was installed March 25 at Peoria, Illinois.

HAND OF DEATH !

Rufus F. Parks, after a long illness accompanied with unusual worries and distresful incidents, passed away at his home on High street early on Monday morning, aged 75 years and 9 months. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie E. Parks, and three grandchildren, Miss Virginia, Mary, and Claude F. Parks, Jr., a brother, William, and three sisters, Mrs.Ida Bellows, Mrs. Mollie Hubbard, Mrs. Maggie Pell, all of Baltimore.

The deceased removed to Chestertown from near Smithville doing business on the site of the T. C. Hadaway store, up-town. Then he removed to the Abraham Sparks property where A. L. Sparks now keeps store and then to the Tilghman property. He has been doing business in the latter place for 50 years. He was an indefatigable worker seldom losing a day from active work in the store. His business integrity was of the highest order and his unique way of treating customers won him a large trade. He kept a "Country Store" where nearly everything could be found. His was a business career which he pursued with an industry untiring.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, services conducted by Rev. T. J. Sard, interment in Chester cemetery; Rev. Mr. Sanner, of Baltimore, a brother-in-law, made the address. It was most impressive and elegant and seemed so appropriate as referring to the deceased. The bearers were Dr. H. G. Simpers, Prof. Mark Creasy, M. A. Toulson, Herbert E. Perkins, Jefferson D. Bacchus, Geo. D. Lofland, Jacob F. Thompson and Harry Stavely; undertaker, Charles L. Dodd.

Miss Annie E. Coleman, died Monday last at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles D. Wood, near Tolchester Beach, aged 58 years, of tuberculosis. She is survived by two sisters Mrs. Charles D. Wood and Mrs. Frank E. Stevens. Funeral was held this morning, Wednesday from the home where she died, interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery, the Rev. Chas. Reed officiating clergyman. The pall bearers were Frank Wilkins, Walter H. Hadaway, Marion T. Miller, W. J. Beck, John C. Wood and Jefferson D. Ayres, undertaker Chas. L. Dodd in charge.

Charles Perkins Woodall, aged 18 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Woodall died Sunday, Nov. 9th at the home of his parents, Cross St., of tuberculosis. He is survived by his parents, one brother, Preston Woodall, and one sister, Miss Helen Woodall. Funeral was held today, Wednesday, at noon, services conducted by the Rev. N. O. Gibson, the interment being in Chester cemetery.

The bearers were B. Eshman, Belt Townshend, Frank Estes, Carle Lecates, Harry Schreiber, and Charles Armstrong.

Mr. William W. Glenn, beloved husband of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Jenkins Glenn died at his home in Baltimore, November 6th, aged 83 years. The deceased was the father of Mrs. Chas. C. Schrieber, of Chestertown, who attended the funeral on Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Ella Chambers, wife of George W. Chambers, formerly of Chestertown, now of Baltimore, passed away to the Great Beyond at her home, November 4th, about 9 p. m. after an illness of about 11 weeks. She was a woman who bore her sufferings great and was devoted to her home and family and was loved by a large circle of friends and the memory of her life will long remain in the hearts of her family, relatives and friends.

She leaves besides her husband, George W. Chambers, two sisters and two brothers, and the following children: Mrs. Udie G. Deppins, Mrs. Thomas H. Chance, Mrs. Marcus Jamar, Mrs. Enoch Knox, Jonas B., Percy W. and Ernest A. Chambers.

The funeral took place from her late home Thursday afternoon at 3.30, conducted by Rev. L. Bland Taylor, of Riverside Baptist Church, and was laid to rest in Louden Park Cemetery, Baltimore. The bearers were Percy W. and Ernest A. Chambers, Michael Deppins, Enoch Knox, Harry Bidden and Elmer Hoffer, Wm. Cook officiating.

In sad but loving remebrance of wife and mother. Gone but not forgotten.

Sleep on dear mother and take your rest,
God called you home, he thought it best,
In silence you suffered and patiently you bore
Till God called you home where sufferings are no more.
In to sweet rest you have entered no more to weep or grieve
Where the flowers are sweetly blooming
In that heavenly home above.
By her loving Husband and Children. 1t*

Farmer, canner, banker, gentleman, George E. Silver, has passed on to his reward and in the passing Harford county has lost one of her most respected, worthwhile citizens. A born lover of the soil he was quick to grasp the great possibilities of preserving its produce through the use of modern canning operations, and at a time when canning methods were somewhat lax, ran his plant on a basis which not only kept faith with a trusting public but resulted in handsome returns to the owner. Diligent in his private affairs, interested in public matters, Mr. Silver by his life in a large measure exemplified the Christian principles upon which his

Susan Melvin Stewart, wife of David B. Stewart, 2200 Maryland avenue, died in Baltimore Wednesday after a lingering illness. She was born in Kent county, Md., and was the daughter of the late Anderson Wesley and Susan Melvin. Besides her husbend she leaves two sons, Milton Melvin Stewart and David B. Stewart, Jr., and six grandchildren. The funeral took place at her late home in Baltimore 7.30 p. m. last evening. The interment will take place in Chester cemetery this Saturday at noon. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Raymond Anthony, of Pondtown, died at the home of his uncle, Gaylord Anthony, Tuesday of last week, after a lingering illness of tuberculosis. Mr. Anthony was 21 years old and had been in bed only two days.

The funeral of Mrs. Nellie Jones Elliott, wife of Eli Elliott, who died in Easton Hospital on Thursday, was held from her home Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. N. O. Gibson, pastor of Christ M. P. Church; Rev. T. J. Sard, pastor of the M.E.Church, and Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Baltimore, a former pastor of the deceased in Chestertown. Interment was made in Chester cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. George V. Hatcherson entertained a week-end party at their home "Mt. Pleasant," their guests included Mr. and Harry B. Gwynn, Miss Nellie Riordan, Miss Anna Kiser, Mrs. Emma Moore, Charles Smith, George Wise, Thos. Spratt and George Fazzoli, all of Baltimore.

THE MEN'S STORE

Men are walking blocks out of their way to see these new ones!

MEN, as a rule, don't enthuse much over articles of apparel. Usually they take hats as a matter of course and when they take a stock by storm there must be some mighty big reason.

Ever since the first lid was lifted on this Fall display—the lid has been off.

We have been swept off our feet selling hats to men who have never had two feet in this store before—and in two weeks we have closed almost a season's business.

Why? Simply because we have the blocks that are worth walking blocks to buy—and if you haven't purchased your hat yet—there is no reason why you shouldn't cash in on the tip that others are capitalizing on.
