WEDDING NOTES

On Wednesday evening, November 12, 1924, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ivie, 824 A St. S. E. Washington, D. C., was the scene of a very vretty wedding, when Miss Veryl Hall, of Stella, Neb., became the bride of Mr. Harry Johnston, of Kennedyville, Md., Rev. John C. Ball, of the Metropolitan Baptist Church, performed the ceremony. The wedding, solenmnized in the presence of relatives of the groom and friends of the bride, was characterized by a vocal solo, very beautifully rendered by Mr. Ivie. Then as Lohengrin's Wedding March was played by Helen Tucker, the bride appeared, leaning on the arm of Mr. Ivie, who gave her away. Mrs. Cleve Tucker, sister of the groom, who was matron of honor, was very becomingly dressed in a gown of powder blue and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. Johnston has as best man Cleve Tucker, and Joseph Weer, nephew of the groom was ring bearer. The bride was beautifully attired in an embroidered flat creve dress of cocoa brown and carried a bouquet of white roses. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for Philadelphia.

Miss Margaret Elsie Townsend, daughter of Britton Townsend, was married to Solomon S. Walbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Walbert, at Pomona parsonage, last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by the pastor, Rev. W. L. McClintock. The ring ceremony was used. Miss Ruth Townsend, sister of the bride was maid of honor. Leon Walbert was best man. The bride and maid of honor carried beautiful spray bouquets of carnations. The ceremony was witnessed by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carroll, Miss Rose Walbert, Mrs. Clara Willis, Gilbert Hadaway and Master Henry Carroll. After the wedding the bride and groom left amid a shower of rice to take the 5 o'clock ferry at Tolchester for Baltimore to spend several days there, then they will motor on to Washington. They will reside in Claymont, Del., where the groom has a position with the Worth Steel Co.

There were two weddings in the M. E. parsonage at Cecilton on Saturday evening, the contracting parties being Howard A. Loller, of Earleville, and Miss Elsie Smith, of Warwick, and John Bailey and Miss Janie Wooleyhan, both of near Earleville, The ceremony in each case was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. T. Rowlenson.

TWO GUNNERS HAVE TO SWIM ASHORE

Harry Richardson and Carl Robsman, of Crumpton, while gunning for ducks had an unusual experience when their small boat sprank a leak in midstream. After making every effort to plug up the hole, without success, the boat went down. The men jumped overboard and had to swim ashore. They lost two automatic guns, a watch, a sum of money and a number of ducks.

While gunning for ducks on the Susquehanna river, near Frenchtown, John Boyd, son of Mrs. Maggie C. Boyd, of Havre de Grace, miraculously escaped being killed, when his gun was accidently discharged. He pulled the gun toward him and it went off the load passing through his pocket in which he had several loaded shells, causing two of them to explode. His right leg was badly injured. Bryan Boyd who was with him in the boat, hurried the wounded man to a physician and later to his home.

SHO SOCIETY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

Memories of boyhood days were recalled by members of the Eastern Shore Society Thursday night at the annual meeting at the Hotel Rennert when Swepson Earle, Conservation Commissioner, gave a lecture on the State's crab industry, illustrated by moving pictures. L. Irving Pollitt, of Wicomico, was elected president to succeed Gen. Francis E. Waters. Walter R. Gale was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Members of the board were named as follows: J. H. K. Shanahan, Francis E. Waters, George L. Radcliffe, Dr. J. Clement Clark, Phillips Lee Goldsborough and Samuel K. Dennis.

Chapter representatives were chosen as follows: Henry O. Redue, Kent: Albert Burns, Talbot; Eugene L. Miles, Somerset; R. H. Dixon, Dorchester; Charles O. Hall, Cecil; John T. Fricker, Queen Anne's; Dr. Edw. S. Johnson, Worcester; Harry I. Perry, Caroline, and H. H. Robinson, Wicomico.

THANKSGIVING

On Thursday next the annual Thanksgiving holiday will be observed throughout all American territory, and as we approach this splendid occasion it might be well to take stock —each for ourselves and give thought to the many reasons why we should offer thanks to the Divine Providence which has so well cared for us.

Each individual has his or her own personal reasons for being thankful and taking the people of the United States and its possessions there is not one outstanding instance where there can be cause for anything but sincere thanks—for we have enjoyed a year of prosperity and general public contentment.

We could not enumerate the many reasons why we should offer special thanks for our present fine condition and the sound outlook as well as the pleasing past twelve months. We must limit our view to the conditions in general as our own State has enjoyed them, and this year of 1924 has been, indeed, one of prosperity and success for the people in our State.

Maryland as an agricultural State has had a year of success with all crops. The farmers and producers have done well—securing good prices and in turn selling high grade products. Other business has in turn remained steady and little slack has been experienced in any line. The majority have earned a comfortable living and employment has not been lacking. Health conditions have been unusually good and taking all in all there is great reason for our giving especial thanks on the day set aside for that purpose.

TOLCHESTER LINE ANSWERS SUIT

Contending its charter granted 50 years ago is broad enough to allow transportation of all kinds of vehicles as freight, James W. Chapman, Jr., attorney for the Tolchester Beach Improvement Company of Kent County, Friday filed with the Public Service Commission an answer to the protest from the Baltimore and Eastern Shore Ferry Company against its venture into the ferrying business from Light street to Tolchester.

Commission officials see in Mr. Chapman's answer points that will question the commission's power of regulating steamboat traffic within the State, an issue which never has been raised before so definitely.

Clarence K. Bowie asked for a postponement of the case, which was to have been heard Friday, until he has had time to prepare the case more fully.

The issue of competition between the State subsidized ferry service and the Tolchester Company arose when the latter company filed with the commission a schedule of rates for ferrying automobiles from its property to Tolchester that were about equal to the rates of the ferry company. Attorney Bowie protested against the competition, pointing to the expensive terminals his company put up to operate the ferry for the better transportation service of the State.

Mr. Chapman in his answer points out that the State pays $18,500 annually for this service, and that the competition from his company is no different from that which has existed all along.

He argues that the company's charter, a half-century old, gives it power to forward or transport goods and passengers, and that whether it is an ox cart or an automobile his company has the right under the law to haul it.
