KIBLER HAS FOUR VETS BACK AT WASHINGTON

Basketball has started in earnest at Washington College. The first call for candidates brought out twenty-five men for the initial workout. Coach Kibler looks for the best season in years. He has some really promising material to work with this year.

Practically the entire first squad of last season is back at college. Carroll, Dumschott, Fiore and McGran are the men left from the varsity quintet of last season. These men, with Captain Bankert, who has been showing exceptional form thus far, will undoubtedly uphold the high standard set by former Washington court teams.

Cavanaugh, McAuliffe and Holland, three members of the squad last year, are also back at Washington. Becker, a product of the Crosby High School team of Waterbury, Conn., which gained fame in the Eastern United States and the national tourneys several years ago, also is a student at the Eastern Shore institution and is a real find. This quartet should help Coach Kibler considerably during the coming campaign. Other new men to make an impression during the past week are Galvin, Smoot and Lovesky.

The first game of the season will be played December 13. The Grace Methodist Episcopal Church five of Wilmington will furnish the opposition on the Washington court.

On December 16, New Haven School of Physical Training will send a quintet headed by Henny Carrington, former Washington star, against the Flying Pentagon. This will be the final game before the Christmas holidays. Both contests should put Coach Kibler's machine in fine trim for the difficult schedule during the remaining weeks of the season.

FARMERS MEET IN ANNUAL SESSION HERE

Wm. G. Smyth, Secretary of The Kent County Farm Bureau, is pleased with the second annual meeting of the organization at the Court House, Chestertown, Md., last Friday. The sessions began at 10.30 o'clock and continued until evening with intermission for dinner. The program included a summary of the work of the Kent County Farm Bureau and the locals during the past year; discussions by the members of local and county-wide Farm Bureau problems, and addresses by prominent speakers The officers of the Maryland State Farm Bureau, president, E. P. Cahill, vice-president, Edwin Warfield, Jr., and secretary-treasurer, Melvin M. Stewart, were the principal speakers, together with Paul V. Nash, secretary of the Idaho State Farm Bureau, and Lester Patterson, president of the Maryland Agricultural Corporation. Following the morning session a Farm Bureau buffet dinner was served by the By-Kota Club of the M. E. Church. An accident to the boiler of the heating plant at Washington College put the plant out of commission for a day and prevented the meeting of the Bureau, which was transferred to the court house and firemen's hall.

FINK TRIO AT W. C.

Through the combined efforts of Miss Louise B. Russell, instructor in music and Dr. Paul E. Titsworth, president of Washington College, the Fink Trio of Baltimore, has been secured to give a concert at William Smith Hall, Friday evening, January 23rd, at 8.15 o'clock. Music lovers should turn out in large numbers to hear this celebrated trio in its first appearance on the Eastern Shore.

Mrs. Mary Muller Fink, harpist, of well known reputation in Baltimore, received her education at the Peabody Conservatory of Music in that city and has taken graduate work under Carlos Salzedo, a great harpist and teacher of that instrument. She has played before many musical clubs in Baltimore and Washington and also in many colleges of the South.

Helen Kerr Ward, cellist, from Michigan, received her early education here and later came to Baltimore where she received the teachers' certificate at the Peabody Conservatory of Music and is now taking a graduate course there. She has played two seasons with the Swarthmore Chautauqua with much success. It will be remembered that Miss Ward appeared before a Chestertown audicence last year with great favor.

Geraldine Edgar, violinist, is also a graduate of the Peabody institution and has studied abroad for several years. She also possesses vocal talent worth and is always well received by her audiences. Miss Edgar will probably render several solos in conjunction with the program arranged by Miss Louise B. Russell for the evening.

The Fink Trio will give a very interesting and enjoyable program and it is hoped that the people of Chestertown and the vicinity will show their appreciation for the efforts of Miss Russell and Dr. Titsworth, who arranged such a brilliant program, by their attendance.

Larro The Ready Ration for Dairy Cows

Every dairyman in this county shold investigate Larro. We want you to see how it will either increase your milk yield or else produce the same milk with fewer cows, less feed and less work. It keeps cows in "tip top" condition. Ends off-feed conditions. Does all this because its famous blend of selected ingredients is succulent, palatable, easily digested and highly nourishing. Contains positively no filler or off-grade ingredients. Your neighbors know these things are true. If Larro fails to produce more milk—the 2-bag trial costs you nothing! Why take chances with uncertain home mixtures? Why waste time? We invite you to try Larro at once.
