A magnificent adaption of Sinclair Lewis' popular novel. A screen masterpiece, possessing all the tragedy, the humor nd the romance of life as lived in your own home town.

TURKEY PRICE UP TO 45c

The turkey market in Chestertown has been better this week than the Thanksgiving trade. Both H. S. Startt, Claude Truslow and I. Heller have been buying and the competition has been keen. 45 cents a pound was the highest price paid.

The turkeys have not been very plentiful, but Helms & Sons, of Swedesboro, N. J., have shipped about 18 tons of dressed turkeys from Chestertown this week. This will bring considerable money in the community.

A complete embargo on all classes of live poultry, chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese, etc., was ordered in effect for New York city this week by all railroads, because of demoralization of the local market resulting from a partial embargo imposed last week on chickens from eight Midwestern States, where there is an epidemic among poultry.

FIRE IN QUAKER NECK

The barn and stable on the Crossley farm in Quaker Neck, tenanted by Robert R. Walbert, was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. A quantity of feed and other things also burned. The live stock was gotten out. The building was insured in the George W. French agency for $700. The origin of the fire is unknown.

COLORED MAN SHOT

Leonard Smith, a colored man of Locust Grove, was shot below the heart on Monday by George Taylor, a Virginia colored man. Other shots also hit him. Strange to relate Smith is walking around. Dr. Urie attended him. Sheriff Goodman made an effort to find Taylor with the help of Locust Grove citizens but the darkey ran in the woods and escaped. The sheriff says he would like to have a pair of blood hounds. The shooting was over $3.00 that Taylor claimed Smith owed him.

FIRE IN CECIL

One of the most disastrous fires to have occured in Cecil for some time broke out Monday night just before 10 o'clock in the big barn on the Gilpin Manor farm one mile north of Elkton, along the main highway running between that town and Newark. Before the flames had been extinguished the structure was reduced to a mass of smouldering ruins. Nineteen milch cows, six horses, seven pigs, 200 pigeons and chickens, 800 bushels of wheat, 125 tons of bailed hay, much straw and fodder and many farming implements were destroyed in the flames. The total loss is estimated at close to $20,000. There is believed to have been adequate insurance on the property. The live stock, supplies and equipment are also said to have been insured.

The farm is owned by Oliver W. Gilpin, of Kittaning, Pa., and is tenanted by John Meredith. Whether the blaze was the deliberate work of an incendiary has not been determined, but Meredith is satisfied the fire was started by someone who had gone into the barn and who had no business there. He thinks they probably entered to seek shelter for the night and while smoking may have accidentally started the blaze. He is loath to believe anyone would have deliberately ignited the barn.

MANURE FOR FLOWERS

I am prepared to haul and spread good manure to any section of Chestertown, especially for ladies to put around their flowers. GEO. ERSKINE, Chestertown, Md. d13

I WOULD not feel that Christmas was complete without sending GREETINGS
to my old friends and patrons.
May this Christmas be a most happy one full of Christmas cheer and all those good things which makes Christmas the most wonderful holiday season for us all. I sincerely wish that the year 1925 will be the most prosperous one that Kent and Queen Annes counties has ever experienced.

MASONS ELECT OFFICERS

At the annual election of officers of the Chestertown lodge of Masons on Wednesday evening last the following were elected:

Worshipful Master—A. E. Culver.
Senior Warden—W. R. Huey.
Junior Warden—Herbert A. Urie.
Secretary—Wm. A. Wheatley.
Treasurer—J. H. Sides.

The Tri-County Past Masters Association will hold its annual meeting at Chestertown on Monday, December 29, 1924.

BODIES NOT RECOVERED

The bodies of the five missing members of the crew of the ill-fated A. Woodall, burned in the Upper Bay on Tuesday of last week, have not been recovered. The two bodies found were those of two Baltimore members of the crew. The two Chesapeake City members, James Ellwood Murray and Carlson Patterson, are among the missing, and search is still being made for their bodies along the shores, as a complete search of the hull of the boat failed to disclose any evidence of their presence.

CHRISTMAS HEALTH SEALS

The Christmas Health Seals for 1924 are being mailed direct from Baltimore to all voters of the various counties of Maryland including our county. Kent county will receive the same portion of money as heretofore also the seals will be sold locally. Mrs. Walter Morris is our local chairman. Only 25 per cent of this money goes out of the county, which is used to defray printing expenses.

MURDER AT PRINCESS ANNE

While angry citizens of Princess Anne, Somerset county, scoured the roads between Princess Anne and Salisbury, searching for Harry Merrill, negro, who Saturday shot to death Lewis S. Dryden, seventy-two, jail worden, and wounded Orrie J. Carey, deputy sheriff, officers on Monday spirited the negro from the Salisbury jail and took him to Baltimore.

Despite the precautions of authorities, a mob of 100 surrounded the Salisbury jail and made efforts to get the negro as he was being escorted to the automobile.

The automobile left Salisbury at 4.45 p. m., guarded by deputy sheriffs and a cordon of State policemen, who rode on both sides of the machine. The caravan headed for Middletown, Del., and thence to Baltimore.

Judge J. L. Bailey, of the First Judicial District, ordered Wicomico officers to lend all possible assistance in getting Merrill to Baltimore.

NO RURAL DELIVERY ON CHRISTMAS DAY

According to instructions issued by Postmaster General New, every Post Office in the United States will be closed at 11 a. m. Christmas morning. No rural delivery whatever will be made during the day.

"OUT OF COURT"

High School Pupils Play To Crowded House At Lyceum.

The Chestertown High School play "Out Of Court" was a big success at Lyceum last Monday night. Every seat was taken and the audience showed their appreciation in many ways. Prof. Mark Creasy was the director, assisted by Miss Grace Nickerson and did their part well. The following was the cast of characters:

Benjamin Capell, A Rich Man, Harry Schrieber.
Evelyn Capell, His Daughter, Ann Welch.
Gilbert Capell, His Son, Walter Robinson.
Mrs. Gardnor, Evelyn's Aunt, Louise Price.
Theda Travis, A Member of The Set, Anne Bonwill.
Julia Grayson, Also Belongs, Marion Collins.
Percy Alban, Evelyn's Suitor, Billy Usilton.
Adele Alban, Percy's Sister, Julia Williams.
Dr. Johns, Physician and Friend, Ellsworth Estes.
Miss Ramsey, A Special Nurse, Anne Matthews.
Captain Sloan, A Traffic Officer, Walter Morris.
David Bourne, The Man Who, Jas. Chapman.
Mrs. Bourne, His Good Mother, Louise Startt.
Remus, An Old Negro Servant, Gale Rasin.
Mammy, Loves Her Children, Miss R. Moffett.
Boy, With A Dog To Sell, Edward Hadaway.
Ambulance Doctor, Talbot Brice.
Bird Dog—belonging to Clerk of Court Bob Ayres.

During thet intermission Raymond Moffett with his harmonica, Gale Rasin in darky songs and Elizabeth Titsworth, Margaret Russell and Isabel Crow in a trio, delighted the audience immensely. The play was repeated at Betterton on Tuesday night. The proceeds were for the school library.

Old Kris letters will be found on page six of the News. A number of other letters have been received too late to get in this week.
