SAMUEL GOMPERS DIED SATURDAY

Veteran Labor Leader Expressed A Desire To Die "At Home" And Was Hurried From Mexico To The U. S. As The Result Of His Request.

Samuel Gompers, veteran president of the American Federation of Labor died at San Antonio, Texas, last Saturday.

Gompers was taken ill in Mexico City last Wednesday and was rushed to the United States when he insisted that if he should die he wanted to be "at home." He arrived at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon and although his condition was critical, physicians were hopeful that he would recover. Gompers' condition took a turn for the worse during the night, death resulting in the morning, at the St. Anthony Hotel where he was taken from the special car in which he arrived. W. S. Cockrell, his physician, who accompanied him from Mexico City, stated that Gompers illness was due to a condition which had been acute for one and one half years and which was agitated by the high altitude of the Mexican Capital where he had gone to attend the Pan American Labor Conference.

At 4.10 Saturday morning, Chester I. Wright, Press representative of the American Federation of Labor, came out of the sick room and said to the newspaper men gathered in the hall below, "Boys, the chief is gone." Failing heart action caused by the trip from Mexico City caused death, Wright said.

WHO-SO-EVER-WILL"

Messrs. Editors of Kent News:

The Business Men's Association having asked me to be the leader of the community singing on the evening of Xmas Eve, has also granted me permission to make a statement through the county papers.

Chestertown is a community of many organizations and many cliques. So often we lose both the pleasure and profit that accrue from affairs of a community nature because we seem more anxious to "claim credit" for the success of our achievements through organizations and cliques, rather than through striving for the highest and best because of an unselfish interest in, and love for, our community.

In my opinion a leader of singing upon such an occasion as we hope this to be, is in a great measure merely a figure-head. No distinction has been made in the selection of voices; this is to be a voluntary community affair. It is the sincere hope of all those responsible for the success of the Xmas plans, that the entire community, both the town and rural community, (for without the rural community Chestertown could not exist as a business center) the old and the young, shall feel a real interest and a corresponding desire to aid in the singing.

If in the churches and schools throughout the county the familiar Xmas carols could be rehearsed, this would contribute greatly toward the success of the singing. These carols we hope to have printed and passed among the persons gathered in the square, so all may have the words. We belong to different churches, we adhere to various creeds, but we all worship the same Redeemer, and the Babe of Bethlehem was a gift to all mankind. If upon this Xmas eve all persons in our little town will forget differences of church and creed and join for a half hour in a genuine community spirit of worshipful singing I'm sure we shall go far toward pleasing the Master, Himself. Again I say this is to be truly a community occasion, with no credit due any organization, clique or individual.

With all reverence and humility—I use these words—"Who-so-ever-will."

BURTIE BURCHINAL CLEMENTS.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear daughter, mother, Fannie B. Maslin, who departed this life two years ago, December 31, 1922.

Two sad years since you left us,
Whom we cherished and loved so dear,
Can we help but feel lonely
When we do not see you here.
Again we hope to meet you,
When the days of life have fled,
And in Heaven with joy to greet you
Where no farewell tears are shed.
If love and care could death prevent,
This life would not so soon be spent,
Life was desired but God did see
Eternal rest was best for thee,
Sleep on dear daughter, and take thy rest,
God takes those He loves the best.

By Her Loving Mother and Children.

The smallest, the largest, the youngest, the oldest will all be treated alike. We shall be as proud of your savings and earnings as will you and as OLD KRIS will be as he watches you throughout the year. This is the Bank of GOOD CHEER and we want the young people in this county to begin to be thrifty, saving and looking ahead. SAVE WITH AN OBJECT. If you wish pocket money for next CHRISTMAS this is the way to have it.
