

The Building of the Gospel Ship at Christ M. P. Church

Anniversary Of The Missionary Society Celebrated With Wonderful Symbolism And Program Of Music And Recitations—Beautiful Decorations—Big Offerings By Classes—Easter Day A Glad Occasion.

Easter is always a joyful occasion at Christ M. P. Church. A dual celebration was observed—by the Sunday school and church. Rarely does Mother Nature show herself in happier mood than on Sunday for the joyous Easter season.

loveliness told its own story. At the morning service the pastor preached an appropriate sermon to a fine congregation on the Resurrection while the enlarged choir rendered most exquisite music. A young man was received into church. At night the Sunday school observed the 54th anniversary of its interesting programs of its long history. The symbolism was "The Gospel Ship" emblematic of the religion as a conveyance for human voyagers over the ocean of life to the heavenly port beyond.

much to the exercise. Little Miss Olive May Whittington, of Crisfield, rendered a pretty solo, "Jesus Loves Me." After the ship was all together with flags flying, etc., Mrs. George H. Cannon read the "Crew of the Gospel Ship" which consisted of members of the Maryland Annual Conference arranged in poetic verse and assigned to different parts of the vessel. Then Miss Amy Wheat sang the solo "Land Ahead" with chorus by school, Rocks and Storms, I'll fear no more, when on that eternal shore, drop the anchor, furl the sail we are safe within the vale.

HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

As a result of an auto accident, which occurred last Sunday afternoon near Cecilton, Mr. Wm. D. Fowler, of Elkton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Fowler, of Chestertown, is nursing a badly lacerated face. Mr. Fowler with his fiancée, Miss Kathryn Bolton, of Elkton, and a couple of young lady friends, visitors from Wilmington, Del. left Elkton shortly after noon, to visit the former's parents in Chestertown.

SEED

Fancy Red Clover, both Frederick county and Western Grown. Fancy Alsylke. Fancy Red Top. White Blooming Sweet Clover. Fancy Alfalfa Kansas Grown. Fancy Timothy. Fancy Orchard Grass as pretty a lot of seed as you have ever looked on.

All of our Seed stock has been selected with great care and the Purity and Germination tests will meet the approval of the most careful buyer.

OATS

Again this year we have those Canadian Seed Oats that have been such good producers in years past. Our prices on all seed are very attractive, purchases having been made on lower markets which we are able to pass on to you.

JONES & SATTERFIELD Phone 51. Chestertown, Md.

This ship formed the basis of a similar service in 1879 and was interestingly referred to by the superintendent. There were only eight present who had a part in the exercise at that time.

Wm. B. Usilton, 3rd, the president of the Society in his address of the evening referred to the symbolism and spoke on the "Sea of Life."

Miss Clara Usilton's class won the banner which was presented in a most appropriate address by Prof. Wm. R. Howell, of the college. Mrs. C. J. Reiche's Primary Department and Mrs. W. R. Maul's classes followed close to the leader.

The four winners for the year were classes taught by Miss Clara Usilton, Mrs. T. D. Bowers, Mrs. Ella P. Robinson and J. Frank Wheatley. After remarks by the superintendent Rev. N. O. Gibson pronounced the benediction.

The officers of the society are President, Wm. B. Usilton, 3rd; vice-president, Walter Alcutt, Jr.; secretary, Miss Jeannette Ledum assisted by Miss Catherine Elliott; treasurers, Miss Clara Usilton, Albert L. Wheat; board of managers, Misses Kathryn Smith, Lida Wheat, Franklin Smith and W. Russell McMenamin. Chorister, Prof. Roy Woodland; orchestra, Jos. N. Wheatley, D. B. and W. R. McMenamin. The committee on arrangements were Misses Lucie Frazier, Emily Lusby, Catherine Elliott, Mrs. Barber Bartley, Mrs. Albert L. Wheat, Mrs. Frank C. Turner, and M. Elwood Baker.

MAY DAY-CHILD HEALTH DAY

The Best Six Doctors Anywhere And No One Can Deny It Are Sunshine Water, Rest and Air And Exercise And Diet.

The six doctors mentioned in this theme will figure largely in the program that will be arranged for school assemblies, health center conferences, club meetings, boy scout affairs, girl scout councils, and community gatherings, for May Day which will be celebrated throughout the country—in response to the suggestion of the American Child Health Association—as Child Health Day.

Governor Ritchie has signed and sealed a document making the first day of May, Child Health Day, for the people of Maryland; and Dr. John S. Fulton, Director of the State Department of Health, as the official guardian of health of the people of the State, has appointed Dr. J. H. Mason Knox, Jr., Chief of the Bureau of Child Hygiene, as the Child Health Day Chairman for the State.

The aim of the May Day celebration in Maryland will be to have every day a health day for the children of the State. With that idea in view, health conferences for the babies and pre-school children will be held in a number of counties, and special exercises emphasizing some constructive health feature, something to work towards, community health as well as personal hygiene, will be held in the schools.

The National Congress of Parents and Teachers, the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the Playground and Athletic Associations, and organization like the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs, are especially interested in the observance of the day, and celebrations in many places will be arranged under their direction.
