

JUDGE THOMAS J. KEATING

In the Centreville Observer of a recent date we find the following reference to our learned jurist now sitting on the Kent bench.

In the Centreville Observer we find the following: Next Thursday will mark the passing of another birthday anniversary for one of Maryland's most highly esteemed jurists and a Queen Anne's countian who is held in high regard by innumerable warm and very devoted friends.

22, 1872, in Centreville, and is a son of the late Thomas J. Keating, also a member of the Centreville bar. The latter was publisher of the State's Rights newspaper, which immediately preceded The Observer, and because of its pronounced pro-southern sympathies the newspaper plant was wrecked and burned by Union Soldiers in 1862.

STUDEBAKER

New Standard Six Coach

f. o. b. factory [with full-size balloon tires]

STUDEBAKER is the only large manufacturer that builds its own cars complete—both body and chassis—in its own plants. This means that Studebaker saves the profit of outside parts makers and body-builders. Thus the price of this new coach is not burdened by an extra profit.

And no other manufacturer can offer a coach of such fine quality at the price. For every coach that Studebaker builds carries with it traditions of fine craftsmanship that have existed in Studebaker plants since 1852.

Compare this coach with other cars which sell at much higher prices. This will prove that Studebaker values are unequaled.
