WORTON NOTES

The community gave Mr. and Mrs. Preston Crowding a kitchen shower and serenade last Friday evening.

Miss Margaret Northamer and Miss Ruth Parker, of Baltimore were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Williams over the week-end.

Mrs. P. B. Rasin and M. Cronan are on the sick list this week.

Miss Carrie Geiser, of Worton, and J. Patrick, of Chestertown, were quietly married on Saturday afternoon by Rev. Hanby, of Fairlee.

Mrs. James Harris is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. E. J. Rouse.

"Peter Pan" the boy who wouldn't grow up, is coming to take you to the land of make-believe on the screen.

The Herbert Brenon-Paramount production of James M. Barrie's immortal fantasy is one of the cleanest and most entertaining pictures you've ever been given the opportunity to see.

Betty Bronson, selected by Barrie himself to portray the title role, heads a strong cast of featured players which includes Ernest Torrence, Cyril Chadwick, Virginia Brown Faire and Anna May Wong.

No need to go into the story here. Willis Goldbeck wrote the screen play which tells of a little boy who always wanted to remain young and have fun. He flies through the nursery window of a modern-day home, teaches the three children he finds there how to fly and carries them off to his underground home and the Little Lost Boys in the Never Never Land.

The picture shows, as the stage production never could, their adventures with the Indians and pirates. Every word picture the author painted in the story has been visualized on the screen—over to the children flying over the house-tops. Roy Pomroy, who obtained such marvelous effects in "The Ten Commandments" saw to this. You'll never witness anything quite like it before in your life and it will be a long time before you see such a picture again.

Go see "Peter Pan" at the Lyceum Chestertown, Friday and Saturday, May 8 and 9, Special Matinee for children, Saturday, May 9, at 2:30 p. m.
