John W. Moffett, a son, and Elizabeth A. Moffett, his wife.
Benjamin F. Moffett, Jr., a son, and Elizabeth M. Moffett, his wife.
Jesse J. Moffett, a son, and Minnie Moffett, his wife.
Norman L. Moffett, a son, and Georgia L. Moffett, his sister, and a daughter of the late Georgia Moffett.
Enoch F. Moffett, a son.

3. That since the death of the said Georgia Moffett, who died intestate, seized and possessed of in whole or in part of a lot of land and premises as described in a deed certified copy of same heretofore referred to of date the 10th day of April, 1923, and recorded among the land records of Kent County in R. R. A. No. 2, folio 92. The children and heirs at law have united in the signing and execution of a deed of their interest in the said tract of land and premises to their brother, George H. Moffett, and a certified copy of this deed is filed herewith as a part of these proceedings showing that all of the children and heirs at law have united in the signing and execution of this deed with the exception of Joseph N. Moffett and Bertha E. Moffett, his wife, who although they had previously agreed upon the purchase price of this tract of land to the said George H. Moffett, declined to sign and execute this deed.

4. That the said Georgia Moffett died intestate, seized and possessed of another tract of land in the First Election District of Kent County, State of Maryland, a certified copy of this deed is herewith filed with these proceedings and is to be taken as a part thereof, said deed of the 7th day of June, 1911, from Mary A. The said lot of land and premises is described in the deed in Liber J. T. D. No. 24 folio 15.

5. And whereas the said George H. Moffett has acquired a fee simple title to all of the property and real estate as set forth in paragraph No. 3 and as he cannot purchase the interest of Joseph N. Moffett and Bertha E. Moffett, his wife, from them and that further, as the said real estate is not susceptible of partition without material loss and injury to the parties entitled to an interest therein, as above stated, and that in order that the division of the said property may be made, it will be necessary that said real estate be sold and the proceeds be divided among the parties according to their respective interests.

KENT'S JAIL LISTED LOWEST

Worcester county was given the highest rating and Kent county the lowest among county jails of the State in a report made to the Board of Welfare by Howard C. Hill, who last month made an inspection of all county jails.

The standing of the counties in the matter of their jails is as follows, according to Mr. Hill's report: Worcester, first; then follow Baltimore, Allegany, Calvert, Garrett, Dorchester, Talbot, Harford, Wicomico, St. Mary's, Anne Arundel, Caroline, Queen Anne's, Washington, Somerset, Carroll, Frederick, Cecil, Charles, Prince George's, Montgomery, Howard and Kent.

About the Kent county jail at Chestertown, Md., Hill said: "Built in 1884, this old brick building and interior equipment are in deplorable condition. The ground floor is a row of vaults, with a small window and a door as the only openings into a narrow corridor, with small windows at the ends and a blank wall opposite.

"The floor of one cell was wet, and all were dirty and neglected. "What beds there are have boards instead of springs. The straw mattresses, however, were full and comparatively clean. The plumbing was in need of repairs.

"The inspection was made at night, and there was no ventilation. Steam heat satisfactorily heated the corridors and there was an electric light on each floor.

"At 8 a. m. and 6 p. m., bread, molasses and coffee are given, and at 12 o'clock a boiled dinner of beef, cabbage and potatoes is served. The meat seemed of good quality, but there practically is no deviation from this diet.

County Commissioners have long ago decided to improve these conditions.
