

LOCAL NOTES

Cherries are ripe. Wheat harvest is in full swing. The prospect is good for a big crop. The price will be around $1.50.

The first red ripe home-grown tomatoes in Chestertown were gathered this week by W. S. Carroll, on Water street. Mr. Carroll also has a fine bed of sweet peas which are beautiful.

The work boat races today at Cambridge will be attended by many Kent cottagers. Among those from Chestertown are R. Hynson Rogers, M. P. Brooks, H. T. Hartman, Truslow & Son and others.

Commencement exercises were held at the State Normal School, Towson, Md., Tuesday. There were 505 students who received diplomas which were presented by Governor Ritchie. The following were the graduates from Kent County: Annie Dwyer Brown, Myrtle Elizabeth Faulkner, Louise Story Harris, Henrietta Elizabeth Matthews, Mildred Catherine Melvin, Frances Gwendoline Orr, Virginia Owens, Margaret Fenimore Stoops, Virginia Elizabeth Thompson, Gertrude Brooke Willson.

The platform on which the 191 elementary school graduates of Caroline county were seated at their annual commencement at Denton, last Monday evening, collapsed and several of the children were slightly injured. The exercises were held in the court yard and a temporary platform had been constructed. Prof. Wm. R. Howell, of Washington College, was the principal speaker and played a prominent part in the gathering that followed the fall of the platform.

Our tomato growers are having much extra work replanting, so many plants having died from the extreme heat of the past few weeks.

The bathhouses at Chesapeake Haven were destroyed by fire Friday afternoon, also 3200 feet of fine Georgia pine lumber. A part of the old wharf was also burned. No insurance on buildings. This property is in Cecil county in full view of Berterton.

Dr. Chas. F. Smith Gets Honored Post

Dr. Charles F. Smith, of Salisbury, was named President of the Eastern Shore Dental Society, an organization affiliated with the American Dental Association. The election came at a business session of the Dental Society in the afternoon after a day spent at the Caulk Laboratories, Milford, Del. It was unanimous and came as a result of the progressive work done by Dr. Smith. He has won special recognition in several cases recently because of modern methods employed in treating particular dental problems.

The Eastern Shore Society after the election of Dr. Smith to the presidency named the other following officers; 1st vice president, Dr. J. T. Nock, Pocomoke; secretary, Dr. J. P. Payne, Cambridge; treasurer, Dr. P. P. Swing, Cambridge; sergeant-at-arms, Dr. J. McHaymaker, Denton; The Executive Council is composed of Dr. H. C. Hughes, Chestertown; Dr. P. P. Payne, Cambridge; Dr. S. P. Fuller, Crisfield; Dr. W. L. Lowe, Cambridge; Dr. R. O. Higgin, Salisbury.

PRESS ASSOCIATION WILL MEET IN JULY

Ocean City, Md., through its Chamber of Commerce will be hosts during the month of July of the Maryland Press Association and of the Del-Mar-Via Press Association. The tentative dates have been fixed for the 12, 13 and 14 of July. One or two business meetings will be held but the gathering will be more of the nature of an outing. While at Ocean City the members of these two associations will be entertained by the Chamber of Commerce and will be located at the various hotels of this delightful summer resort and several very interesting side trips have been arranged. The Governor of Maryland and the Governor of Delaware have been asked to attend. Several other speakers of note have also been invited.

Fred H. Davis, a young farmer residing in Quaker Neck, has filed a petition in bankruptcy.

John Medders, clerk to the County Commissioners, handed the levy to the printers last Friday. It will be published shortly.

SALE OF FARMS

S. Scott Beck, Esq., attorney, sold at public sale in Chestertown Tuesday the George Clements farm, located near Crumpton in Kent county. This tract is known as "The Pennington Farm" and contains 225 acres, all arable. It is considered one of the best farms in Kent. J. Edwin Hurlock, of Millington, was the purchaser at $19,500.

H. W. Vickers, Esq., trustee, sold at the same time the Ruth Clements farm located on Cherry Lane, near Chestertown. It contains 285 acres and was purchased by Wm. R. Wilson, of Ingleside, for $10,200. This farm has an annuity of $400 against it.

The two Newton farms near Locust Grove were offered at public sale on Tuesday last by S. Scott Beck, Attorney, and withdrawn at a bid of $26,000 for both. One of these farms will be rented out by the Newtons.

Wm. B. Loller, of Earleville, has sold his farm of 128 acres to O. G. Schwalbe and will soon begin the erection of a house on a lot purchased from Shallcross Bros.

Mrs. George W. Lockwood, of Middletown, has sold her 296-acre farm near Warwick, to Guy Lockerman, of Warwick.

Wm. Luebers, dealer in Maryland select farms, whose card appears elsewhere in the News says he has trouble to supply the demand for farms. He has sold recently the following places: 84 acres belonging to Gerhard Sontag sold to Peter Aello, of Baltimore.

Farm of 30 acres, near Tolchester, belonging to I. A. Kabaskie, sold to Wm. Graver, of Baltimore.

217 acres, near Tolchester, sold to Otto Lassen, from Iowa.

80 acres, near Maryland, sold to Robert Conroy from Lowell, Mass.

50 acres near Lakeville, Dorchester county, sold to Wm. Hender, of New Jersey.

Conrad Born, of Baltimore, has purchased thru Mr. Luebers a 170-acre water front farm.

Wm. Brice, a former resident of Chestertown, now of Baltimore, has purchased a beautiful water front farm of 60 acres known as Senator Bosley's farm on Taylor's Island.

Andrew Wilson has erected refreshment booths on his property adjoining White Crystal Beach, also driven a well, and it is expected he will add other attractions in the near future.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES

John D. Urie, Esq., went to Baltimore last week and had tonsillitis removed by Dr. Mitchell. Mr. Urie has been annoyed for sometime with a throat aggravation and Dr. M. thinks this operation will remove the cause.

L. H. P. Vansant fell from a ladder while at work in Baltimore last week and injured both wrists. He is now at his home on Kent Circle recuperating. He has the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

D. W. Ingersoll is in a Baltimore hospital for special treatment. He has been quite a sufferer for some months.

Mrs. Hester Pyle, of Bel Air, who was visiting her son, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Pyle, fell down stairs on Tuesday evening and broke her hip. She was immediately taken to Easton Hospital for medical attention.

Miss Hallie Toulson passed a very successful operation at the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, last Thursday. Miss Mabel Toulson and Mr. and Mrs. John Speicher visited her on Monday and report her doing finely.

John C. Smith who has been tending the Chapman-Pearce farm of near town, will retire and has taken the agency for machinery of all kinds.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Harris, Chestertown, are entertaining the former's sister, Mrs. Banning, of Baltimore, who is recuperating from a recent illness.

Mrs. J. D. Bacchus and daughter, Mrs. Karl Melamet and husband and Claude M. Parks left Chestertown yesterday by auto for New York where they will spend several weeks with Mr. James L. Bacchus, and Mr. St. John. Mr. James L. Bacchus, and Mr. Claude M. Parks will sail for Europe to be gone several weeks.

Miss Susan V. Hill, Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. W. R. Huey and Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb are attending the Short Course of the Home Economics Club being held at College Park this week.

Miss Helen Rouse, who has been filling the position of private secretary to President Tittsworth, of Washington College, has resigned and will shortly remove to Baltimore with her mother and sister, where she will enter the Peabody Conservatory of Music for a course in voice culture.

Dr. T. Howard Fowler, of Wells College, Aurora, N. Y., is spending the summer with his sisters.

Mrs. John Masten and daughter, of Harrington, Del., have been visiting her sister, Mrs. William Elliott the past week.

Mrs. John Boulder and Mrs. Elizabeth Boulder, of St. Louis, are guests of Mrs. M. E. Baker, High street.

Prof. L. J. Tibodeau, of Waterbury, Conn., is spending the week-end in town.

Hyland Jewell, of Philadelphia, spent the first of the week with his father, H. Theodore Jewell.

Miss Ermyn Jewell attended the commencement exercises at Drexel Institute, Philadelphia, Tuesday evening. Her sister, Miss Alberta Jewell, being one of the graduates.

Miss Margaret Jefferson has returned home for the summer vacation.

Walter Chapman, a student at the University of Maryland has returned home for the summer vacation.

Stephen R. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins, graduated at the University of Maryland Law School last week.

Miss Lillie Truitt, of Washington, D. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Bexley.

Miss Mary Fisher, of Cumberland, Miss Julia Smith, of Baltimore, and Miss Bessie Maston, head nurse of the operating room at the University of Maryland Hospital, spent Sunday home at Mr. and Mrs. Bates Chaires.

Miss Elizabeth Wickes has returned to her home after having spent several months in California.

Thomas Elliott, of Baltimore, is the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. T. B. Elliott.

Mrs. Lourine Frohne, of Lakewood, Ohio, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen C. Smith.

Mrs. Indiana Massey, of Easton, is the guest of her son, John G. Massey.

Mrs. Dumont Lambert resumed her duties with A. L. Sparks on Monday last, after an absence of several weeks illness.

Miss Elizabeth Culp spent the week-end with Miss Justin McCauley in Baltimore. Miss Justin graduated Monday morning at a school in the city.

Miss Rebecca Adams, of New Jersey, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Paul Adams, on Mill street.

Mrs. Reed and son, of Chester, Pa., are guests of her son, Howard I. Reed and family on Mt. Vernon ave.

John H. Moore, Mrs. Ella Bramble, Andrew Moore and Kathleen Nickerson visited friends in Dorchester this week.

WEDDING NOTES

Mr. and Walter Taylor, of Kent county, announce the marriage of their daughter, Amanda Stein Edwards, to Joseph Frank Mulligan, on Saturday, June 20th, at the home of the bride. A reception will follow the wedding. They will make their home in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary J. Rogers announces the marriage of her daughter, Nellie Buchamp, to Edward Earle Parsons on Monday, June 15, 1925, Baltimore, Md. At home after July 1st, at 1300 Baker street. Mr. Parsons is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Edward Parsons, of near Rock Hall.

Miss Irene Cook, of Camden, N. J., and Francis Hynson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hynson, of Baltimore, and Rock Hall, were married Monday, June 8th, 1925, by Elder L. C. Drevs, at his home in Baltimore. The young people will reside in Baltimore.

St. Ignatius Church, Baltimore, was the scene of a pretty wedding Thursday at noon, when Miss Frances Lee Hubbell, attractive daughter of Mrs. Henry H. Evans, of Rolph's Wharf, this county, became the bride of Mr. Charles J. Bohn, of Baltimore.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Eugene McDonnell, rector of the church.

The bride wore a dress of brown satin, with brown hair-braided hat and brown shoes and stockings. She carried opelia roses. The maid of honor was Miss Florence Burch, who wore a dress of brown crepe de chine, with brown crepe de chine hat and brown shoes. She carried pink roses. The best man was James Bohn, a brother of the bride-groom.

On Thursday morning a wedding breakfast was served in Baltimore, and immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a honeymoon in the North. Upon their return they will reside in Baltimore, where the groom is associated with the Armstrong-Cator Company.

DEATHS

Mrs. Lawrence Washington, of Muskego, Okla., passed from earth to her "Heavenly Home," at 7 p. m. Thursday, June 11, 1925. She will be remembered as Miss Cattie T. Bordley, daughter of the late Col. Thos. B. Bordley, who was for a number of years a resident of Fairlee, Kent county, Md.

She leaves a husband, L. Washington, and a daughter, Mrs. Fred E. Brown, of the Peoples Ice and Fuel Company, of Muskego, and two sisters, Mrs. A. M. Kendall and Mrs. Brownson, both of Muskego. She came West after her marriage, became a "pioneer Muskogean," and saw the city grow by leaps and bounds. She was known by many people. Kindly regarded, and loved by all, as shown by the floral tributes. She was laid away to rest in beautiful Green Hill Cemetery.

James B. Emory, a well-known resident of Queen Anne's, died at his home near Basic last Saturday morning after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Emory had been in poor health for several years. He was 73 years old. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Basic M. E. Church, Rev. Cowman, pastor of the church, officiating. Interment was made in the Templeville cemetery. Besides his widow, the deceased is survived by one sister, Mrs. Sarah Starkey, of Barclay; eight children and his grandchildren. Children are Mrs. Frank Pinder, Kennedyville; Mrs. Wm. McLaughlin, Kennedyville; Mrs. Arthur Cooper, Chestertown; Mrs. Alice Kenton, Queen Anne's; Charles Emory, of Cecil; James and Fred Emory, of New Jersey, and Lewis Emory, of Queen Anne's.

On June 10th, 1925, at Cooper Hospital, Camden, N. J., Myrtle B. aged 32 years, beloved wife of Millard Lindsay. She leaves besides her husband, a son 7 years old, two sisters and five brothers. She was the youngest daughter of the late D. S. Loller. Interment at Sudlersville, funeral service conducted by Rev. Mr. Hodgson, of the M. E. Church. The bearers were five brothers and one brother-in-law; W. T. Hicks, undertaker.

Edwin Dorsey Loane, President of The Loane Engineering Co., died at his home in Rock Hall Saturday evening, aged 62. He leaves a widow and a son, Jos. Turner Loane. The remains were carried to Baltimore on Tuesday and interment made in Greenmont Cemetery with Masonic rites. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The packing plant of Gibbs & Co., Baltimore, was destroyed by fire, loss was placed at $200,000 Wednesday. The firm recently was formed by the combination of four packing companies. Packing operations were to have started Thursday. President John S. Gibbs said the building was filled with new machinery, a quantity of fruits and vegetables and a large number of unfiled cans. The interior was wrecked.

If you want to see a fine garden visit James E. Allen's, uptown, and Capt. J. T. Jester's on Jueen street.

MASSEY GIRL BECOMES A BRIDE

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Helen Lucas, daughter of Mrs. James D. Lucas, of Massey, to J. Edward Murphy, of Milford, was made at a tea given last week. The tea was given following the commencement exercises at the University of Delaware, by Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Baker, of Selbyville, for their daughter, Miss Helen Baker, a member of the graduating class at the University. The announcement came as a surprise to the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy who had known of their engagement and expected the marriage would take place soon. The couple were married in New York city on November 8. Mrs. Murphy was a member of the graduating class of the Women's College of the University. Mr. Murphy is an alumnus of the University, class of 1923. He is a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity. They will make their home for the summer in Milford where Mr. Murphy is in business.

Stam Drug Co. The Prescription Store. A full line of Squibb's Household Products. Cigars and Cigarettes.

WM. A. HYLAND GALENA, MARYLAND. Image of a man with a horse-drawn machine.

Our business aim is to stock and sell the very best farm machines the industry offers, and to insure their continued satisfactory work by providing ready, intelligent service every day in the year. In line with this aim, we are now recommending the well-known Deering Binders. These are really "great" binders—dependable, easy to pull, and long-lived—and they are getting to be more popular every year.

IS YOUR BINDER GOOD FOR ANOTHER SEASON? Perhaps it has outlived its days of practical usefulness. If so, you need one of these new binders. We have one on display here at the store. Better come in and let us show it to you. You'll find a surprising number of valuable, noteworthy features. I only have a limited number of these Binders and would advise placing your order early to avoid disappointment. I have the usual full stock of Repairs. Ask Us To Show You the Deering Line of Harvesting Machines

Bids on Coal & Wood

Table with columns: School, No. of tons, Kind of coal, Quantity of Wood. Lists bids from various locations like Galena, Millington, etc.

BORDLEY & SON THE MEN'S STORE. Your enemies would like to have you wear your Winter Suit to-day -----but we are your friends. A man in June in January Clothes is like a Seal on the Sahara—he is hot—dull—feverish—irritable—and all in all—all in. That same man can be changed from a gloom to a go getter—and we are seeking the task of supplying the remedy. Cool Tropical Worsted Mohair and Palm Beach Suits here that turn a turned disposition into a Cool, Magnetic Personality. Come in—tell us your trouble—and we'll furnish the toe-line. Cool Suits 10.00 to 25.00 Collar attached Shirts 1.50 to 4.00 Cool Underwear 50c to 2.00 BORDLEY & SON Chestertown, Maryland. ADLER-ROCHESTER CLOTHES