Harry Moore is building a bungalow on lot at McLane's Corner, near Fairlee. Worton Grange will meet next Monday evening on Harry T. Williams' lawn. Ladies will bring cake, please. N. Lieberman advertises his business for sale at Melitota in this issue. Mr. Lieberman has been serving the public for about 40 years and has a fine trade. His removal will be regretted. Charles D. Rollison pulled ripe to matoes from his garden last Friday, June 19th. Miss Hattie Baechus is among our lady gardeners to report ripe black raspberries. In crossing the road at the railroad crossing on High street, the ten-year-old daughter of Rev. Hamilton, colored preacher at Baptist Church, Chestertown, was painfully injured when run over by an automobile driven by a Baltimorean. The child had an arm and leg broken. Dr. H. P. Copeland, after setting the broken bones, took the girl to Easton Hospital. The driver of the auto volunteered to pay all expenses of the accident. Joseph Howard, of Still Pond, is working for the Government on the widening of the C. and P. Canal. He visited Chestertown Saturday and told the News man of this great undertaking. He says that three men were killed and three others badly injured in a landslide on the Canal, at Summit Bridge, early Tuesday morning. The high bank was weakened by the rain of the night previous and the men were buried under tons of earth. The dead are George Hurd, 33, Blackbird, Del.; Lewis Wilson, colored, 68, Cecilton, Pleasant wood, colored, 48, Mt. Pleasant, and the injured are Alexander Wilson, Cecilton, and Mike Wolenty, Wilmington. The injured men were removed to Union Hospital, Elkton.

Elliott his stock of goods and started in business there last Monday. Mr. E. has built a house on wheels and will travel this summer with his family. He has associated himself with a medicine show and will have charge of popular attractions. A dog belonging to a colored man killed 35 seven weeks old turkeys belonging to Mrs. H. M. Baker, of Quaker Neck. Although the dog was killed, and the County may pay $1.00 apiece for the turkeys killed, this is a great loss as day-old pullets of this breed cannot be bought for $1.00 apiece. Mrs. Baker had them all engaged for breeders. N-B-R Garage has been painted a 4th of July red! Thos. H. Fowler will give an exhibition of his new Advance-Rumely threshing outfit on his farm, about 3 miles from Chestertown, Monday. There will be no garbage collected in Chestertown next Saturday, July Fourth. As an evidence of the unusual situation in agricultural life the reader will find elsewhere in the News such landlords as James E. Woodall, of Galena, James W. Chapman, of Chestertown, Capt. Robert M. Francis, of Baltimore, advertising for tenants on excellent farms in Kent. Sunday was a big day at Tolchester. The Express brought 2900 passengers in the afternoon and 50 automobile. 1900 paid for bathing suits. The wharf at Tolchester is being enlarged so that boats may also land on the south side. A representative of the State Board of Health appeared before the Easton Council Monday night and declared that some of the milk sold in Easton is as bad as sewage. He said Easton was the "dirtiest" town in Maryland so far as its milk supply was concerned. When the matter was referred to Health Officer Palmer he declared that he did not believe the conditions were as bad as that but that he felt there was room for improvement.

WM. A. HYLAND GALENA, MARYLAND Our business aim is to stock and sell the very best farm machines the industry offers, and to insure their continued satisfactory work by providing ready, intelligent service every day in the year. In line with this aim, we are now recommending the well-known Deering Grain Binders. These are really "great" binders—dependable, easy to pull, and long-lived—and they are getting to be more popular every year. IS YOUR BINDER GOOD FOR ANOTHER SEASON? Perhaps it has outlived its days of practical usefulness. If so, you need one of these new binders. We have one on display here at the store. Better come in and let us show it to you. You'll find a surprising number of valuable, noteworthy features. I only have a limited number of these Binders and would advise placing your order early to avoid disappointment. I have the usual full stock of Repairs. Ask Us To Show You the Deering Line of Harvesting Machines
