

LOCAL NOTES

The Chestertown Public Library will not be open on Saturday, July 4.

Herman F. Hancock, formerly of Chestertown, druggist in Easton, has sold out his interests to W. E. Brown, of Newark, Del. Mr. Brown formerly kept a drug store in Newark, Del., adjoining the college campus. Mr. Hancock retires to private life and will take a long needed rest before entering commercial life again.

Henry Evans, proprietor of Rolph's Wharf, is promoting among the lovers of aquatic sports, a swimming meet. The preliminaries are to be on the Wednesday of every week for four weeks beginning with Wednesday, July 1, and on the fifth Wednesday the winners of the preliminaries will race in the finals. The races are to take place at Rolph's and a prize is offered by the management. Those entered from Chestertown are: Jack Nickerson, Joe Russell, Harry Russell, Sterling Townsend, John Townsend, and Billy Usilton. Come to Rolph's on these race days and help to promote friendly competition among our youngsters.

Russell Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bennett, of Vienna, who was the star pitcher for the Washington College team this season, has signed with the Newark, Del. team of the Sussex County League for a tryout. He has plenty of speed, excellent control, good curves and is considered a very promising young player.

A clinic for diseases of the chest will be conducted in The Health Center, Chestertown, Monday, July 13th, 10.30 a. m. Individuals complaining of any of the following: Cough, expectoration of blood (spitting), tired feeling, loss of weight and appetite, indigestion, hoarseness, etc., should see their family physician and obtain permission to attend clinic at the place announced above.

County Farm Agent Horace B. Derrick, with the assistance of Edgar R. Pennington, chairman of the Farm Bureau Dairy Committee, is endeavoring to organize a Cow Testing Association among the dairymen of the county for the purpose of increasing the volume as well as the quality of the milk produced.

The County Commissioners Tuesday granted the request of parents in Turner's Creek Neck to build a school house on the site of the burned building.

Sewell J. Lee has given up the Mann-Chapman farm near Lynch and will tenant the Lawrence Strong farm in Broad Neck. Mr. Strong will remove to town and occupy a home on High street.

Wm. T. H. Whiteley has rented the James E. Woodall farm near Georgetown.

The Robert M. Francis farm, near Tolchester, has been rented to Jennings Townsend.

The statement that William Smith, First President of Washington College, is buried at I. U. Cemetery is a mistake. He remains in a cemetery at Philadelphia. He had a daughter whose remains are in Cambridge Cemetery, Md.

Gov. Albert C. Ritchie has appointed Wm. F. Fowler, of Crumpton, Justice of the Peace for the Seventh Election District of Queen Anne's county, and the County Commissioners have named J. W. Skinner, of the same section, as district constable. The appointment of magistrate was made to fill the vacancy which has existed more than a year, due to the fact that Charles S. Nickerson, declined to qualify. Justice Fowler and Constable Skinner are close political friends of George I. Harrison, for many years leader of the Seventh District, and regarded as one of the most influential Democrats in Queen Anne's county.

A branch of the Washington Collegians, the college orchestra, has been engaged to play at the Betterton Casino for the summer.

The Child Welfare Clinic will be held in the Kent County Health Center, Chestertown, Friday, July 10th, 10.30 to 12.30. For colored children afternoon, from 1.30 to 3.30. A child specialist is in charge of the clinic. There is no fee or charge made at these clinics.

Mrs. Rosa O. Howard has purchased from Harry W. Moore the dwelling situated on the Corner Kent and Cannon streets. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will move to their new bungalow in course of erection at McLane's Corner near Fairlee.

Norman S. Dudley, little son of Dr. and Mrs. Norman S. Dudley, Church Hill, has been suffering the past week from an injury sustained several days ago when he stepped on the prong of a rake. The little fellow was playing about his home when he accidentally stepped on the tool, and the prong penetrated his foot. He has been quite sick as a result for the past several days.

The energetic firm of Metcalfe Brothers, with branch offices and plants at Kennedyville and Worton, are considerably enlarging their plant at Chestertown by the erection of a building 24x100, and a garage for their automobiles. Stavelly & Dowers, of Lynch, are doing the construction work. This large warehouse addition will make this firm better equipped than ever to handle their big business.

Hyland Copper has been appointed sexton of old St. Paul's Church in place of Walter Hickman, who has resigned to engage in work in Chestertown. Mr. Copper will also be in charge of the cemetery.

Cats raided the chicken coops of Miss Elizabeth Wickes on Queen street and killed 100 of the finest young chicks. Others in the town have sustained losses of half grown birds.

Wilbur W. Hubbard, Wilbur R. Hubbard, David B. Ford, Clarence M. Newcomb and Howard B. Strong, represented the Peerless Fertilizer Company while the firm of Massey & Wilmer was represented by Wm. B. Wilmer, at the Eastern Shore Fertilizer Manufacturers Association held at Ocean City, Md., Friday and Saturday, June 26th and 27th.

The Kent House, owned by Thomas W. Eliason, Jr., is being treated to a new dress of paint. W. C. Benjamin and force are doing the work.

The following named persons have contributed to the Volunteer Fire Co. in addition to others mentioned in News heretofore:

Massey & Wilmer	$25.00
F. A. Greenwood	2.50
Wm. H. Truslow & Son	50.00
Mrs. John Bartley	5.00
E. E. Hudson	5.00
R. Snowden Thomas	5.00
W. S. Collins	10.00
Horace W. Reed	5.00
Thomas W. Perkins	5.00
R. G. Nicholson	25.00

About $500 is still needed to finish paying for the new truck.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES

Judge Lewin W. Wickes and wife were called to Riverton, N. J., Thursday, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Wickes' brother who died quite suddenly, aged about 50.

Hope H. Barrall, Esq., is very much improved and now able to attend his large practice.

John D. Welch is improving slowly. Mrs. Wm. T. Nicholson made a mistep at her home near Chestertown Thursday and broke her arm in two places. Dr. Smith set the fracture.

Mrs. Benj. Houston and two sons, of Wilmington, and little Miss Charlotte Curry, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines, Chestertown.

Mrs. Joseph A. Wickes has returned to her home in Chestertown after spending the winter with her daughter in Baltimore. Miss Louise Simpers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank V. Simpers, of Chestertown, left Wednesday for the Girls Camp at Buckwood Lodge, Pa. Stephen Roberts Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins, will practice law here. Mr. Collins is a graduate of Washington College and of the University of Maryland Law School. He was admitted to the practice of law by the Court of Appeals of Maryland in October of last year and has been a member of the Baltimore Bar since that time. He has rented an office in the Slay building on Court street.

Mrs. L. C. Hess and family, of Chestertown, are visiting Cumberland, Md.

Miss Josephine Gould, of Cambridge, is the guest of Miss Esther Urie, of Chestertown.

Prof. David McMenamin and Prof. Robert Pippin are attending summer school at Hopkins.

Harvey Morris, of near Lankford, was operated on for appendicitis this week at Mercy Hospital, Baltimore.

Prof. Gilbert Byron, principal of Kennedyville High School, has accepted a more lucrative position in a Pittsburgh, Pa., High School. Prof. Byron is a graduate of Washington College.

Misses Mildred and Jane Martin, of Baltimore, are spending the summer with their grandmother, Mrs. Ella Davis.

Prof. Albert L. Leary, for the past three years principal of the Caroline High School at Denton, has been appointed principal of the Federick, Md., High School.

Edward Robinson, keeper of Chester bridge, has been confined to the house by sickness this week.

Harry E. Graham, of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., is home for a short vacation.

Mrs. Dell Hendershott and mother-in-law are visiting friends in Harrisburg, Pa.

S. Scott Beck, Jr., of Chestertown, left this week for the boys Red Cloud Camp, near Binghamton, Pa.

News from Percy B. Hollis is to the effect that he will arrive in New York July 4th from a visit to his sisters and brother in London and will be home in Chestertown Monday or Tuesday.

Miss Lida Wheat is acting in the capacity of stenographer for H. W. Vickers, Esq.

Miss Katherine Baker accompanied her grandmother, Mrs. Hessner, on a visit to Philadelphia.

Miss Alice Rote is visiting her aunt in Greensboro, N. C.

Hugh Hartman and family have rented a cottage at Ocean City, Md., for the month of July. They are much pleased.

Edward Lambert, formerly of Chestertown, and family left Easton Wednesday morning for the Pacific Coast for a month's tour. Mr. Lambert and family are making the trip thru the generosity of Mrs. Lambert's brother, Capt. George W. Burke, of Ohio. Mr. Lambert has asked a month's leave from the postal department. He expects to go by the southern route and return by way of Yellowstone Park.

Miss Sarah Watson, of Baltimore, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Watson.

Mrs. Alvin Brown spent part of last week in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bolton, of Elkton, were week-end guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Thomas Whaley.

Wilbur Hiron, of Wilmington, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hiron on Tuesday.

Miss Hallie Toulson returned home from University Hospital on Monday and is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Edgar McGinnis, of near Philadelphia, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ralph W. Barnett.

William Smith, son of Mrs. Belle Smith, left Baltimore last week for Chestertown, W. Va., to take charge of the main office of the United States Fidelity and Bonding Company of Baltimore.

Mrs. Lillie Elliott and son, Eli Elliott visited relatives in Baltimore last week.

Mrs. John A. Startt, of Baltimore, visited her aunt, Mrs. J. P. DeCorse, the past week.

Miss Luella Kendall is spending the month of July with her niece, Mrs. James J. Hadaway, in Flint, Mich.

Miss Virginia Barnes is visiting her aunt at Hockessin, Del.

Mrs. Gus Douglas and Mrs. Phil Neal, of Birmingham, Ala., are guests of their sister, Mrs. Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., Mt. Vernon ave. Miss Minnie Hicks left town Thursday for Pennsylvania State College where she will resume her French studies for the summer.

Miss Hettie C. Hicks, of New York, has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hicks. She will leave with a party of friends for Europe on July 8th, and will sail on the Beregania of the Cunard Line, and will be gone until September, and expects to visit England, Scotland, France, Italy, Switzerland and Belgium, returning on steamer Magestic of White Star Line.

Miss Pauline Hoyle, of Philadelphia, is spending a week's vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoyle.

Mrs. John Masten and daughter, "Bobby" of Harrington, Del., spent the past week with her sisters, Mrs. William Elliott.

Albert Tucker and family, of Baltimore, spent the past few days with his mother, Mrs. James A. Tucker.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle A. Barnes and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb motored to Hockessin, Del., on Sunday and visited Mrs. Barnes sister, Mrs. John Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Newsome, Mrs. Charles R. Brown and little grandson, Billy, and Miss Sarah Ruth motored to Wilmington on Sunday and visited Mrs. M. Ruth and daughter. Little Claude Beaton, of Chesapeake City, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Sallie Hines.

Miss Dora McIntire, of East Orange, N. J., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Webster McIntire.

Mrs. Joseph Mulligan, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was the week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. Walter Taylor, at Worton. She was accompanied home by Miss Christine Clark who will spend several weeks as her guest. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson, of Baltimore, were week-end guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Cooper.

Mrs. Alfred Crew and little Betty Barnes were week-end guests of relatives in Still Pond.

Daniel Reed, of Washington, visited his sisters and brothers last week. Mrs. Carrie A. Ways is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Leonard C. Needles.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bacon are visiting their daughter in Media.

Mrs. Mamie Hatcher, of New York, visited relatives here this week.

Miss Phyllis Hamilton, of California, is visiting Mrs. Sydney P. Townsend.

Henry Kratzer, of Chicago, is the guest of his parents here.

Walter Hill, of near Kennedyville, was taken to Easton Hospital Wednesday for an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Virginia Parks will leave this week for Pen Mar where she will spend the remainder of the summer.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Goldy Warren spent Friday with Mrs. Mazzie Webb and mother.

Mrs. Granvil Ward and baby are spending this week with her parents. Herbert Caldwell and Harry Rasin left on Wednesday to attend summer school in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston and family spent Saturday in Buck and Deer Valley, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones' many friends were glad to see them at home on Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Stanley and children are visiting relatives in Summit, Pa. Miss Reba Spence and Miss Mary Wiltbanks are enjoying a two week's vacation.

Mrs. Augusta Hessner is visiting in Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Robinson is visiting friends in Wilmington.

Miss Mary Oliff is visiting her sister in Chester, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Spent Sunday with relatives.

Rev. M. Staats entertained his brother, Henry Staats and niece, Mrs. Pomeroy from Roselle, N. J., over the week end.

Miss Ida Crew is spending some time with Mrs. Aca Crew.

Services at Grace Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon at 2.30 p. m., preaching by the pastor, Rev. B. B. Staats.

Services at M. P. Church. Sunday school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11 a. m., Christian Endeavor at 7.30 p. m., led by H. C. Stanley, topic "What Makes a Nation Great," Patriotic Conservation meeting.

Walter Hill was taken to Easton Hospital on Wednesday for appendicitis.

The Chestertown Ice Plant is in almost perfect working order and can supply almost any demand. They are furnishing a good quality of ice and are running three motor trucks to supply their local trade.

Georgia peaches on display in Gill's ice cream parlor window. Fresh peach ice cream on sale Monday. They are beauties.

Powder River Let's Go Presented By American Legion

Showing every division that took part in the World War. 1500 feet film confiscated from German U-Boat 35. Special scenes showing the 29th and 79th Divisions in action.

LYCEUM THEATRE CHESTERTOWN Friday and Saturday, July 10 & 11 Each Night at 8 p. m.

Advertisement for BORDLEY & SON THE MEN'S STORE. The store will be closed all day Saturday, July 4th. Owing to the fact that this year the 4th comes on Saturday, our store will keep open LATE FRIDAY NIGHT to accommodate our trade. BORDLEY & SON Chestertown, Maryland. ADLER ROCHESTER CLOTHES

Advertisement for KENT COUNTY SAVINGS BANK 32ND ANNIVERSARY July 1, 1893---July 1, 1925. Opened Its Doors For Business 38 Years Ago Wednesday. The Kent County Savings Bank began business July 1st, 1893, and from that day to the present time has fostered and encouraged habits of saving in the people of Kent and adjoining counties; it has had a friendly interest in the young and those of small means, and has protected the people's money and promoted their financial condition with constant care and faithfulness. It was the first bank in this community ever known to pay interest on deposits, and this was cheerfully done for nearly six years before any other bank in Kent county ever offered to do so; and you may rest satisfied that your money is safe and your interest is sure, if you open a Savings Account here. OFFICERS: MILBOURN A. TOULSON, President. FRED. G. USILTUN, Vice-President. JOHN DAVID URLE, Attorney. WILLIAM F. RUSSELL, Cashier. DIRECTORS: Milburn A. Toulson, Fred. G. Usilton, Jeff. D. Bacchus, John D. Urie, Lewin W. Wickes, Thos. W. Eliason, James E. Hurlock, Charles S. Smith, Howard Turner, William F. Russell. WE SOLICIT YOUR ACCOUNT.