For several years it has been the custom for the Queen Esther Circle, a group of girls in Millington indulging in missionary work under the direction of Mrs. N. A. Wallen, to go to Betterton on a picnic. This year they went Wednesday, July 8. The party left Millington at about one o'clock. Immediately after arriving bathing was enjoyed by a great number. At about five o'clock here came the hungry mouths. We ate supper—fried chicken, ham, rolls, sandwiches, pickles, olives, cheese, cake, ice tea and many other goodies. After our society had enjoyed this delightful spread two launches were hired and what fun! The water was just rough enough for fun! When we were in Betterton again bowling was enjoyed by many and other amusements were indulged in. At a very reasonable hour we started for home to enjoy a good night's sleep. Those present on the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Wallen, Ethel Jones, Mary Stevens, Emma Jones, Florence Dixon, Helen Higman, Myrtle Jones, Helen Vansant, Esther Porter, Helen Stevens, Elizabeth Bottomley, Louise, Doris, Frances, Anna and Margaret Shahan, Anna Jones, Dorothy Taylor, Martha Pennington, Lucille Massey, Nellie and Susie Everett, Mildred Smith, Pauline Comets, Mrs. J.
