

LOCAL NOTES

Crabs are more plentiful. Peaches a plenty in the markets. River resorts thronged with visitors. The M. P. picnic to Tolchester on Thursday was well attended. Dollar Day in Wilmington next Wednesday. Many tourists stopping at Kent county noted places these days. Sweet cantaloupes getting cheap and abundant. Home grown water-melons on the way. Summer is slipping along and soon vacation will be over and the schools again open. Canning houses getting ready for the tomato season which will open in ten days. Automobile prices are on the decline. See announcements in Kent News. The steamer "General Lincoln" has discontinued her trips to Chester river. Mullin & Sons, of Wilmington, are having a half-price sale and we ask our readers to look carefully at their adv. on page three of the News. Vansant & Newsome's clearance sale is going well. Read what they say on page 8 of the News today. Prof. Kenneth G. Faulkner, a former citizen of Chestertown, has been given full charge of the musical program at the New Dover Opera House. They are very much pleased with Prof. Faulkner's musical ability at the Dover play house. An excursion to Atlantic City will leave Chestertown on Wednesday, August 28, via Pennsylvania Railroad. Four inches of rain is said to have fallen in Kent last Friday in 24 hours. This is nearly a record for this section. Buick cars are in demand. The local Chestertown agents for this car, The N-B-R Co. say they have much trouble to get cars to supply their trade. Since last Friday week this firm have sold six Buick cars.

The silo on H. K. Miller's farm, near town tenanted by Clarence Parsons, was destroyed by lightning recently and the insurance promptly adjusted by James G. Beck, Agent. Tomato prospects are looking good but even at that various persons report it too hot, too cold, too wet or too dry. Fine hoes, cows and farm implements are offered at public sale in Kent News. See the dates and details elsewhere in the News. The Church Hill automobile business at Church Hill will not be purchased by Mr. Dorsey. The latter has been sick in a Baltimore hospital. This firm in two weeks have sold 13 cars. Among those buying cars were Dr. F. W. Smith, a standard coach; Oscar Hansen, standard touring car; T. R. Valliant, special six sport model roadster; Oscar Roe, big coupe; Daniel McKee, standard coach. L. B. Frazier and H. F. Newhart, Esqs., of Caldwell, Ohio, and Mrs. Jennie Lloyd, of Los Angeles, Cal., were visitors to Chestertown this week. The ancestors of all these visitors, the Fraziers, were Kent county and they were looking up the old records here to trace their exact lineage. Quite a number of Kent countians are attending the fourth annual regatta of the Miles River Yacht Club, of St. Michaels this week. The regatta began with a reception on the estate of Commodore Cosden in honor of the visiting yachtsmen, on Thursday, August 6 from 4 to 7 p. m. Friday and Saturday was devoted entirely to the racing of the various boats in their respective classes. Mrs. Leonard W. Beck, widow of the late Senator W. W. Beck, of Chestertown, has been appointed assistant to the Chairman of Traffic Survey Commission of Baltimore. Clarence W. Miles, Esq., of Salisbury, is the Chairman of the Commission. The survey will begin September 1st and continue indefinitely. Four beautiful wild deer are appearing in the woods and fields in upper Kent. They have been seen by a number of persons near Massey. One gentleman says there are two young ones and they can jump over a wire fence without any trouble. We hope no one will try to shoot them.

Advance notice announcing the tournament to be held September 3d, near Shrewsbury Parish Church. Particulars of same will be published later. The Crumpton cannery has been busy canning string beans. A fair crop is being harvested by the growers in that section. The scholarship to Washington College, Chestertown, was awarded on Tuesday morning of this week by the Orphans' Court for Queen Anne's county, to James P. Marvel, of Stevensville. The Court ordered that applicants for the scholarship should file papers with recommendations from their past teacher and appear in person on Tuesday of this week. There were seven applicants who appeared, namely: Lyle Appleford, of Church Hill High School; James P. Marvel, of Stevensville High School; Carlton Mandell, of Centreville High School; Nelson Scott, of Church Hill High School; Robert Farr, of Sudlersville High School; Willard Hickman, of Church Hill High School, and Olin Jarrell, of Centreville High School. The swimming and diving contest scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at Rolph's Wharf has been postponed until next Wednesday, at which time the finals will be run. Gill Brothers, local ice cream manufacturers, have purchased an electric conveying ice crusher, which they have placed at the Chestertown Ice Plant for the convenience of their ice cream delivery trucks. Capt. H. U. Fletcher will tenant the Miss Ida C. Crew farm at Lankford, now occupied by Herbert Walbert, Mr. Walbert moving to the C. N. Hague property. Howard Jones, the Fairlee representative of the Star car is meeting with success. He sold one this week to Thomas Marvell, near Fairlee. The Star car has gained a reputation as a hill climber and is claimed to have passed 74 cars in a hill demonstration near Baltimore. Clerk of Court Robert R. Ayres issued the following marriage licenses last week: Raymond Gregg, 21, of Providence, Md., and Eva Shaffer, 18, of Elkton, Md.; Claude Gogehagan, 21, of Dorchester county, Md., and Thelma Katherine Turner, 18, of Caroline County, Md.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NOTES

Fred. G. Usilton, wife and son are enjoying a vacation at Ocean Grove, New Jersey. Miss Dorothy Tucker, of the Third National Bank, is enjoying a vacation at Atlantic City, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt and Mrs. John D. Nock and son, of Baltimore, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson D. Bacchus, in Chestertown. Mr. and Mrs. James Springer, of Baltimore, are guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Frank B. Hines, Chestertown. Joseph A. Wickes, Esq., wife and daughter, of Dallas, Texas, have been guests this week of the former's mother, Mrs. Gladys R. Wickes. Rev. and Mrs. N. O. Gibson, of Chestertown, are entertaining the latter's niece, Little Miss Rittenhouse of Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sparks, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arlington L. Sparks, and are now spending a few days at Rehoboth, Del. Clarence Parsons, tenant on Henry K. Miller's farm, near town is in the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, and was operated on for cancer of the stomach on August 3rd. Miss Lellie Ware, of Massey public school, is spending sometime at Ocean City, Md. Capt. Lum. Ashley, of Piney Neck, is in a Baltimore hospital for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Long and daughter, of Elkton City, Md., have been the guests of Mrs. L.'s mother, Mrs. Emma Miller, near Chestertown. R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., wife and daughter, Mrs. Godfrey, spent the past week at Ocean City, Md. Col. Simon Wickes, of New York City, has been renewing old time acquaintances in Chestertown this week. Deputy Treasurer Miss Regina Rasin and Deputy Register of Wills Miss Caldwell are enjoying a well-deserved vacation visiting relatives in Burlington, New Jersey. Miss Daisy Williams, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Clendaniel, Jr., of Chestertown. Miss Elveta M. Asay, of Wilmington, spent the past week at the home of Miss Minnie M. Starr. Mrs. S. Lane, of Baltimore, spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Starr. Mr. and Mrs. Royland East and son, Mrs. G. O. East and son, of Oak Hall, Va., spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. East, near town. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. East will leave today on a week's vacation to Pocomoke City and Virginia. Miss Mary B. Covey is visiting Miss Emily Wilson at Atlantic City. Mrs. John H. Younger and grandsons, Ralph and Hunter Freeny, of the Green Spring Valley are spending the summer at their summer home near Fairlee Creek. Mrs. Freeny, of the Green Spring Valley, is spending a week with her mother and sons at her summer home near Fairlee Creek. Prof. and Mrs. W. R. Howell left on Sunday for a month's visit with friends and relatives in Chattoochee, Fla. They made the trip by motor. Miss Ida Crew is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Strong, in town. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Russell, of Chester, Pa., are spending the week with relatives here. Miss Harriett Welch has returned home after completing a summer course at the University of Virginia. Mrs. Augustus Douglas and Mrs. Philip Neal, have returned to Birmingham, Ala., after a visit here with their sister, Mrs. W. F. Russell, Jr. Mrs. Edward H. Shuman, of Washington, and Mrs. Fred Robinson, of Baltimore, were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Cooper. Mrs. George R. Rouse and daughters moved to Baltimore on Saturday. Mrs. John McIntire and daughter have rented the apartment vacated by Mrs. Rouse and moved August 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wheat are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a fine son. Mrs. Joseph Cordrey and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dickinson and children, of Laurel, Del., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus E. Collins. Mrs. Thas. H. Whaley is spending the week the guest of her daughter, at Betterton. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Thomas and daughter, Miss Lela Thomas, also granddaughter, of Stevensville, were Sunday guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Edward Ringgold. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Archbell, of New York, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Collins, Chestertown. U. S. Landers, a former resident of Chestertown, now living in Bakerfield, California, writes to the Kent News that Santa Barbara, Cal., is about 100 miles from Bakerfield and they had a good shaking up in the recent earthquake, but otherwise no damage. Miss Charlotte Hill Hatcherson, of New York, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Hatcherson. Thomas W. Trew, of near Chester-town, is visiting his son in Norfolk.

Judge Lewin W. Wickes has joined his family in Talbot county where they have taken a beautiful home on the Peach Bottom river for the summer. The Wickes home in Chestertown is occupied during August by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Skinner, of Swarthmore, Pa. Mrs. Skinner is a sister of Mrs. S. Scott Beck. Mr. and Mrs. W. Robert Huey entertained a house party from Federalsburg over the week-end. A number of young folks from town were invited to meet them on Friday evening and on Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Huey celebrated their 13th wedding anniversary with a motor boat party on the Chester, consisting of "13" members. The guests from Federalsburg included Misses Eleanor Noble, Evelyn Covey, Mary Howard, Rebecca Jefferson and Ruth Vickers. Mrs. J. P. Strong, of Baltimore, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Massey, near town. Misses Mary and Sarah Brown, of Baltimore, were guests of their aunt, Mrs. M. E. Newsome, several days last week. Miss Rebecca T. Kendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Kendall, of Chestertown, and Miss Mattie Whitaker, employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, at Wilmington, are enjoying 20 days vacation trip as far West as Yellowstone National Park. Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Hughes have taken a cottage at Rolph's Wharf for two weeks. They have as their guests Misses Helen and Ethel Hoffman, and Paul Hoffman, of Hagers-town. Mrs. W. R. Strong and daughters, Betty and Kathryn, are spending the month of August at her father's summer home, Deer Head Lodge, in the Adirondack mountains. David McMenamin, of the Johns Hopkins University, spent the week-end at home. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Robinson and family, of Baltimore, were the guests of the latter's uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McIntire on Saturday and Sunday. Misses Jessie and Louise Davis, of Bustleton, Pa., are visiting their aunts, Mrs. Wm. J. Hudson and Mrs. C. J. Reiche. Mrs. James E. Blackiston, of Baltimore, formerly of Rock Hall, was operated on in a Baltimore hospital last Tuesday. The operation was caused by a ruptured blood vessel in the stomach. Reports are that she is doing nicely. Mr. Blackiston is the son of the late James E. Blackiston, of Rock Hall. Col. Charles E. Woods and wife are spending ten days with the former's brother at New Brighton, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reed, of Chester, Pa., have been visiting relatives here for several days. Mrs. Wm. T. Miller was taken to Easton Hospital this week. Her husband and Mrs. Bates Chaires went to the hospital Thursday where an operation will be performed on Mrs. Miller. Dr. and Mrs. Paul E. Titsworth and family are visiting friends and relatives in Alfred, N. Y. Thomas F. Healey has returned to Chestertown after a visit with relatives in Waterbury, Conn. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dodson and children, of Wilmington, are spending some time with relatives at Worton Station. Bond M. E. Church, Sunday school at 10 a. m., Divine worship and sermon by pastor at 11 a. m., Epworth League service at 7:45 p. m. The Maria Corey Y. P. B. will meet on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Newnam, Jr. Mowbray M. E. Church, Sunday school at 2:30 p. m., Epworth League service 7:25 p. m., followed by the evening worship and sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. L. McClintock. At the Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. T. J. Sard, pastor. The services for Sunday and the week will be: Sunday school at 9:45, preaching at 11 by the Rev. W. W. Davis, D. D., sermon subject, "No Room," Epworth League at 7, topic "Thomas—Testing the Way," sermon at 7:30. The regular monthly meeting of the "Soldiers of the Cross" will be held on Monday evening, August 10, at the home of Mrs. Edw. Furbush, at 8 p. m. Kennedyville M. P. Church. 10 a. m. Sunday school, 7:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor, topic "The Benefits of Wholesome Play," led by Miss Della Spry. There will be no preaching service. The Sunday school will picnic at Tolchester Aug. 13. All invited. Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown. N. O. Gibson, minister, Sunday, Aug. 9. Sunday school at 10 a. m., Divine worship and sermon at 11 a. m. General theme for the summer "Out of Doors with Jesus." Subject for this Sunday morning "Jesus and the Sea." Gospel song service and sermon at 7 p. m. General theme for the summer "Seeking and Finding Happiness." Subject this Sunday evening "Happiness and Sympathy." Prayer and Bible study at 7:30 o'clock, study character "Job." At Lynch this week there will be an innovation in the form of an evening service. The Sabbath school for this week only will meet at 6:45 p. m. and will be followed by the preaching service at 7:50 p. m. To all of these services you are most cordially invited.

DEATH RECORD FOR THE WEEK

Mrs. Lavinia Stevens, widow of the late Clay Stevens, of Crumpton, died last Saturday at 11 a. m. at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Warner Mallieu, near town, after a lingering illness. The funeral was held at her late home in Crumpton on Tuesday at 11 a. m., Rev. John Gardner, pastor of Crumpton M. E. Church, officiated; Sparks and Good, undertakers; interment in Crumpton cemetery. She is survived by three daughters—Mrs. Warner Mallieu, of near Millington; Mrs. Ethel Bridgewater, of New Castle, Del., and Mrs. James William and Fred, of Crumpton, Burton, of Perth Amboy, and Samuel. Mrs. Carrie C. Worrell, wife of Frank Worrell, died at her country home on the outskirts of town early Monday morning, following a short illness, aged 58 years. Mrs. Worrell came here with her husband and family about a year ago, following the purchase by Mr. Worrell of the fine country estate of Walter Wright. Mr. Worrell recently retired from active business as the head of a large lumber firm in Philadelphia, and had returned here, where he expected to spend the remainder of his life. Since the removal of the family from Swarthmore, Pa., to Chestertown there have been two deaths, the first a young daughter, aged about 17 years, who died several months ago, and the mother. Mrs. Worrell was the daughter of the late William Henry Carville, a wealthy landowner of this county. For a number of years following the death of her father she resided in Baltimore with her mother and sisters. Besides her husband she is survived by five children, two sons and three daughters as follows: Houston, Beatrice, Carville, Gladys, and Claude Worrell. Funeral services were held from her late home Wednesday at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. C. L. Atwater; interment in Chester Cemetery. The pall bearers were Houston and Carville Worrell, Leon Brown, Joseph Frazier, Joseph Frazier, Jr., and Miffin Holiday; C. L. Dodd, undertaker. She also leaves a mother, Mrs. Annie Carville, and three sisters, Mrs. May Primrose, Mrs. Daisy Frazier and Miss Annie Carville, all of Baltimore. William Arthur, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mullen, died at the home of his parents in Chestertown on Friday, July 31st, aged 3 months and 26 days. Funeral was held from the home of his parents on Saturday afternoon at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. T. J. Sard. Interment in Still Pond Cemetery; W. T. Hicks, undertaker in charge. John E. Clow, one of the oldest residents of the First District, Queen Anne's, died last Saturday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harry Schultz, of near Millington, after an illness of a few weeks from paralysis. He was eighty-three years old. Funeral services were held on Tuesday of this week at the Busic M. E. Church, and interment in the Busic Cemetery. The deceased's sons and grandsons acted as pallbearers. He is survived by four sons and two daughters. Mrs. Essie White, widow of the late Thomas White, died at her late home, near Galena, on Thursday evening, August 6th, aged 97 years. She leaves a devoted daughter, Mrs. Essie Huhn, three grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Funeral service will be held in St. Dennis Church on Monday, August 10 at 10:30 a. m.; interment in St. Dennis Cemetery; W. T. Hicks, undertaker.

SWARTHMORE CHAUTAUQUA COMING

An explorer who tells of a civilization older than the Egyptian pyramids, Thompson of Yucatan; a splendid production of the 1921 Chautauqua prize play, "The Next Best Man"; a high-grade musical concert by The Vernon-Johns Company; Mexican music by the Llera (pronounced Yara) Mexican Serenaders; and the ultra modern marimba music by the Imperial Marimba Band of Guatemala; lectures by such orators as Dr. Robert McGowan and Montaville Flowers; specially arranged children's work—all these and more form the well-balanced Chautauqua program to be given here August 15 to 21. Buy a season ticket—Adults $2.50; children $1.00.

Famous explorer who is coming to Chestertown Chautauqua August 15 to 21.

DEPART. OF PUBLIC WORKS STATE OF MARYLAND STATE ROADS COMMISSION NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed proposals for building one section of State Highway, as follows: Kent County, Cont. K-29. One section of State Highway from end of Cont. K-26 to Crosby, a distance of 1.25 miles. (Concrete.) will be received by the State Roads Commission, at its offices, 601 Garrett Building, Baltimore, Maryland, until 12 M. on the 18th day of August, 1925, at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read. Bids must be upon the blank proposal form which, with specifications and plans will be furnished by the Commission upon application and cash payment of $1.00, as hereafter no charges will be permitted. No bids will be received unless accompanied by a certified check for the sum of Five Hundred ($500) Dollars, payable to the State Roads Commission. The successful bidder will be required to give bond, and comply with the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, respecting contracts. The Commission reserves the right to reject any and all bids. By Order of the State Roads Commission this 4th day of August, 1925. JOHN N. MACKALL, Chairman. L. H. STEWART, Secretary.

Caldwell's Bazaar

GALENA, MD. Regular Auction at my Bazaar on Wednesday, Aug. 12, 1925. Beginning at 12 o'clock. 15 head of horses and mules of most every kind and description. 40 head of cattle, several of them fresh with calf by sides; others are springers, fat cattle and heifers. You can buy any kind of cattle you want at this sale. 2 stock bulls. 100 shoats and pigs of every size and description. Sold 80 at my last sale at very satisfactory prices. Several large lots of chickens. 25 pure bred Bard Rock pullets; 25 pure bred White Rock pullets, etc. Several sets of single and double harness, collars, bridles, blankets, carriages and a lot of small articles too numerous to mention. Will sell for Mr. Frank Johnson at this sale all the stock and implements he has. Will sell 200 yards from his home which is about 200 yards from my sale barn beginning on his implements at 12 o'clock sharp, all the list below: 1 bay horse, 12 years old; 1 yellow horse 10 years old; 1 gray horse, 8 years old. These horses are all good and sound, will work or drive anywhere. 1 farm wagon, good as new; 2 saws, 1 saw bench, 1 well windless, 1 gasoline engine, 4 horsepower; 1 jack, 16 in. leather belt, 1 hay rigging, 1 tomato rigging, nearly new; 1 wheel cultivator, 1 hand cultivator, 1 spring-tooth harrow, 1 drag harrow, 1 brooder, large size, used one season, 2 row bars, 1 asparagus buncher and 2 knives, 1 set double trees, several 2 and 3 horse trees, 1 corn planter, 1 half bushel, lot harness and small articles too numerous to mention. This will all positively be sold as Mr. Johnson has no further need for any of his stock or implements. Will sell anything for you at this sale on commission. Terms Cash. S. C. CALDWELL. Next Sale August 26, 1925.

CHURCH NOTES

The Rev. H. J. Magonigal, a blind evangelist from Ohio, started a two-week revival August 2, at Chestertown M. E. Church, South. Preaching at 8 p. m. every night except Saturday. This evangelist plays for his own solos and is an excellent leader of song service. M. L. Reiter, from Virginia, a brother of the pastor, plays most of the music. He also sings at every service. Shrewsbury Parish Church, Kennedyville. The hour for the evening service on Sunday next will be 7:30 p. m. instead of the usual hour 2:30 p. m. This change from afternoon service to night services on the 2nd and 4th Sundays is now possible because of the new lighting system installed by the congregation of this historical church. You will always be welcomed. Bond Church will picnic next Tuesday at Hendrickson's shore. St. James will hold their annual picnic next Tuesday at Tolchester. Members of St. Clements P. E. Church, Massey, are planning for a big celebration on August 19th, when United States Senator Thomas F. Bayard of Delaware, will deliver the principal address. The proceeds of an entertainment feature will be for the benefit of the church.

BORDLEY & SON THE MEN'S STORE JULY CLEARANCE All Tropical Worsted, Mohair, Gaberdine and Palm Beach Suits now ONE FOURTH OFF All Bathing Suits ONE FOURTH OFF All Straw Hats ONE HALF PRICE Terms Cash Alterations charged to customer at cost BORDLEY & SON Chestertown, Maryland. ADLER-ROCHESTER CLOTHES