SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 1925

The next thing to be expected is climate regulation. Electricity now lights the world; soon it will also heat it.

We are no more than invited guests on this sphere, subject to be called "home" at any moment. If each of us would recognize this unquestionable truth, what a fine world this would be!

DEATH RECORD FOR THE WEEK

Mrs. Mary A. Hibbard died Tuesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Andrew Lockerman, Millington, after a short illness. She was seventy-three years old. Funeral services were held Thursday from the house and interment in Millington Cemetery. Rev. J. E. Barrett, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiating. J. A. Tobin, undertaker. Mrs. Hibbard for many years was a resident of New Jersey. Besides her sister she is survived by a brother, J. P. Ahern, also of Millington.

Martha Elizabeth (Ernest) Richards, of Philadelphia, Pa., died on Monday, July 27, 1925. Mrs. Richards was a native of Chestertown, born December 5, 1848, and lived here until about 1872. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wooster Ernest. Mr. Ernest was a well known citizen who came to Kent county from Salem county, N. J. He was an active member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for many years. His daughter, Martha Elizabeth married Joseph T. Richards, v lived in Chestertown in 1871-2 during which period he was chief engineer and superintendent of the Kent county railroad, having constructed the railroad and telegraph line to connect our county town by rail and wire with the outside world.

Mrs. Richards is survived by her husband and three children, two daughters and one son, Mrs. Dr. Norman S. Essig, of Philadelphia, Mrs. Eugeue C. Sawyer, of Ashville, N. C. and Joseph Ernest Richards, a banker of New York City.

Mrs. Richards, though living out of Kent, has been a subscriber to the Kent News for fifty years.

Sudden Death Of Willard Pinder

The people in the community of Worton were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Willard Pinder. Mr. Pinder was in perfect health and able to attend to his business up to the time of his death, but on Thursday night he had an acute attack of apoplexy which caused his death. He was in his 65th year.

Mr. Pinder has been operating a general merchandise store in the vicinity of Worton Point for a number of years and previous to this he was engaged in farming in the immediate neighborhood. Mr. Pinder was also agent for the Tolchester Steamboat Company at Worton Manor or Wharf for a number of years.

In the death of Mr. Pinder the community has lost a true and useful man who will be missed by the whole neighborhood. Services were held at his home on Sunday at 1.30 p. m., conducted by Rev. L. C. Randall, of St. James Church. The bearers were J. D. Maxwell, George W. Watts, Wilmer Dill, William H. Cooper, Jr., Robert Goodman and Wm. B. Willis.

He is survived by a widow who was formerly Miss Bertie Murn and four children, viz: Mrs. Archie Crew, of Betterton; Clarence, of Claymont; Earle, at home, and Mrs. Wm. Davis, of Phoenixville, Pa.

Interment in Still Pond Cemetery, B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

TURKEY MEETING

There will be a meeting Tuesday afternoon, August 25th, at the home of Mrs. Harold Baker in Quaker Neck to discuss "Diseases of Turkeys." The meeting will start promptly at 1.30 p. m. All those interested in turkey raising are invited to be present.

This meeting is being planned by Susan V. Hill, Home Demonstration Agent, at the request of women interested in the turkey industry.

See Page Two for other real and personal sales.

SUDLERSVILLE MAN SHOOTS HIMSELF

John Sparks, of Sudlersville, was shot to death last Friday evening Week, when he placed the muzzle of a double barrel shot gun against his breast, lodged the butt against a shopping block and with a small stick pushed the trigger. A verdict of death by his own hand was rendered at the inquest.

For some time, it is said, the deceased had appeared despondent, yet his tragic end came as a complete surprise to his many friends who held him in high regard. It is believed that he shot himself about ten o'clock.

Funeral services were held from his late residence on Monday afternoon. The Rev. Hodgson, pastor of Calvary M. E. Church officiated. Interment was made in the Sudlersville Cemetery. The pall bearers were members of P. O. S. of A. and Junior Order A. M. Lodges. The deceased was forty-one years old and is survived by his wife, mother and one sister.
